"Election" in Tennessee.

The Radicals have carried Tennessee. Brownlow, famed for his billingsgate and blackguardism, has been re-elected Governor, not by a majority of the popular vote, but by a combination of negroes and squatters who were permitted to decide the contest, while thousands of free white citizens were refused registration and kept from voting. Brownlow is a good type of progressive radicalism. Although not born in New England, he is to-day a true exemplar of her ideas, and belongs to the same school in which Sumner, Stevens and Williams were tutored. In 1854, when he was a pro-slavery fanatic, he thus spoke:

"Fellow-citizens, I heard the particulars of your burning that negro the other day, and think you served him exactly right; and I came along this morning by the smoking remains of one of those breathing holes of hell, and I think you served him right, too. Whenever you get to burning negroes or dram-shops, count me one; I'll help you."

In 1866, when he became a member of the Radical party, he said "he would rather go to hell with a loyal negro than to Heaven with a white rebel." This is the man the Radicals have again made Governor of Tennessee. He was the candidate of the same organization that wants to place Judge Williams upon the Supreme Bench of Pennsylvania. Can a party be trusted that is willing to recognize as its leader such a degraded and infamous creature as Parson Brownlow?

"Absurd and Criminal."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle, a Radical daily paper, is unable to submit to all the vile utterances of its party. It quotes from the address of F. Jordan, chairman of the State committee, the following shameful sentence:

"The Democratic party, with Judge Sharswood for its leader, and with Free Trade, State Rights and Secession on its banner, is again marshaling its hosts, and now summoning us to the field of political combat on these same issues."

Disgusted with such infamous falsehoods put forth by its own friends, the Chronicle says:

"It is insulting to the intelligence of the people of Pennsylvania to say that in this judicial contest the Democratic party has secession inscribed on its banner. We warmly support Judge Williams in this contest, but we will not even by silence lend our endorsement to so utterly a shameful and unwarranted charge as the one above quoted. It is a sign of bad party demoralization when such means are adopted to achieve success. It is utterly wrong and utterly unnecessary. Such things recoil against the men who practice them, and cloud even an honest cause with suspicion. It is both absurd and criminal to say that the right of secession will be an issue in the approaching election. The Republican party can go into a canvass upon its own merits and upon actual issues, without compromising itself by these shabby devices, and we trust no respectable journal in the party will lend itself to such a style of warfare. It is a veritable Mexican business."

"Foreign" News.

A Radical daily has the following news item under the head of "foreign news": "The Register of births and deaths at New Orleans was yesterday removed by Governor Flanders. Stephen A. Tarré, a colored veteran of 1812, was appointed in his place."

Although the classification may be a printer's error, yet it is not so far from truth. Under the theories and legislation of the Radicals, the former State of Louisiana is now "conquered territory." It is, therefore, a "foreign province," and news from there may be classed with foreign news.

President Johnson, in his late veto message, declared that the Constitution is the supreme law of the land, North and South. If that be true, answers Thad Stevens, "then all we have done here is rank usurpation." This is the real point of the controversy.

Radical journals of Ohio are apprehending the loss of that State to Radicalism and the gain of Democratic members of the Legislature in sufficient numbers to give the Democrats a majority on joint ballot. We hope their apprehensions are well founded, and that they will surely be realized.

An Open Avowal.

The extra session of the Ramp Congress was appropriately wound up by a series of serenades got up expressly to allow leading radicals to let off a little superfluous gas. Old Thad was first serenaded, but, being too feeble to speak, his special pet and toady clerk, McPherson, spoke for him. Colfax got off a rambling speech, full of high sounding platitudes. Both these speeches were extremely ad quanted in their theories; they were not quite so clear and explicit as was that of Senator Yates. In reply to the serenaders he said:

"The Republican party has declared that equal suffrage shall exist in the District of Columbia and the Southern States. Now they must do for the North as they have done for the South, and impose suffrage upon every State. Thus it is that Republicans must accept the situation."

That is what we call putting the matter in plain English. No one can fail to understand such language, and no conservative Republican can have the slightest excuse for mistaking the intentions of the leaders of the Republican party. They are fully resolved to force negro suffrage and negro equality upon all the States, Penna. included. The only way that can be prevented is by defeating them at the ballot-box. The issue is directly involved in the present campaign.

A Good One.

The Democratic State Convention of Iowa, at its recent session, passed among others the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its judgment, exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends."

Immediately upon the promulgation of the platform, the above resolution was violently attacked by the Radical press. It was characterized as embodying the very essence of secession, slavery and treason. It was "the abominable heresy of State Rights that brought on the war, and degraded the country in blood." It was "contrary to freedom and the enlightened spirit of the age," &c. After going on in this style for about a week, one of the Democratic newspapers revived the Lincoln and Hamlin platform of 1860, showing that the resolution is an exact copy of one from that document. Since then the Radical press have had nothing to say.

There is an inquiry among the subscribers to the Lincoln Monument Fund in New York as to where the money has gone.

A public man of 1867 who holds to the principles avowed by Lincoln in 1860 is denounced as a copperhead or rebel sympathizer by the radicals.

Washington gossip has it that Gen. Hancock will supersede General Sheridan.

The "Rads." of Nashville are importing hundreds of negroes from the South and having them registered immediately on their arrival, to be used in the coming elections in Tennessee.

General Sheridan has ordered that one-half of the Louisiana election Commissioners shall be colored men.

The "Reconstruction" bill in brief—Come in as Radical States or stay out of the Union.

"What's in a name?" P. T. Barnum and Charles Dickens are two of the men who recently broke out of Danbury jail.

The Michiganans are to vote on the acceptance of a constitution giving suffrage to women and all Indians who pay taxes.

The Cincinnati Commercial says John A. Logan was Radicalized by the President refusing to assist him to get a fee of $30,000 on a cotton claim. Just like him.

On Saturday the 19th a miserable farce was enacted in Washington. Chas. Sorrell, a laboring man, who served in the Federal Navy for two years during the war, was arrested and "held to bail, to appear whenever wanted," for the fearful crime of "talking against Congress!"

A Mississippi paper thinks General Ord was omitted from the vote of thanks by Congress because he was the only commander who had failed to get up a riot.

Thad. Stephens declared in the Ramp House that "the fragments of the old shattered Constitution stuck in the kidneys of some Senators and trouble them at nights."

Over-Exertion, either of body or mind, produces debility and disease. The usual remedy is to take some stimulant, the effect of which is the same as giving a bird horse the whip instead of oats. The true way is to fortify the system with a permanent tonic like the Peruvian Syrup, (a protoxide of iron), which gives strength and vigor to the whole system.
