JOHN LESLIE, } Ex. Com.

A. B. TUCKER, Sec'y.

—Wilson, the celebrated vocalist, was upset one day in his carriage, near Edinburg. A Scotch paper, after recording the accident, adds, "We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

—The Washington Chronicle has a fellow in the office there, who has never been south of Washington, who writes all the letters of Union men who live in Georgia and Texas, for that paper. Summer hired him last winter to furnish him with letters from Union men living South; and as soon as Congress adjourned Forney hired him. He is certainly some on the pathetic.

—The letter of Mr. Ould, in which he avers that the Confederate government, in 1864, offered to surrender, without an equivalent, fifteen thousand sick and wounded Northern prisoners, is creating quite a sensation in all quarters.

—We cut the following from the Mobile Register: Our Military Mayor is moving things in a very lively manner. At the request of two or three of the colored aristocracy, he has promptly removed twenty white laborers and widows from the street and horse cart force of the corporation for the purpose of putting twenty "cullud persons" in their places.

—A young gentleman, after having paid his addresses to a lady for some time, "popped the question." The lady, in a frightened manner, said, "You scare me, sir." The gentleman did not wish to frighten the lady, and consequently remained quiet for some time, when she exclaimed, "Scare me again."

—A teacher in Springfield, Mass. while conducting an examination, asked, among other questions, the following: "Why is the pronoun 'she' applied to a ship?" To which one of the boys rendered the following answer: "Because the rigging cost more than the hull."

—Another new fractional shipplaster, of the denomination of fifteen cents, will be issued in a few weeks. It will contain pictures of Grant and Sherman, and be printed upon "a peculiar kind of paper."
