ELLIOT ALDRICH, of New Milford

Election, Tuesday October 8th, 1867.

Are You Assessed?

Look to the assessment lists, Demoocratic vote to swell the majority for in winning our victory. Judge Sharswood. The importance of a signal rebuke to the Radical revolutionists cannot be overestimated. Be sure that you are duly assessed, and that your neighbor attends to the matter. Next Saturday is the last day to be assessed.

Vote the Whole Ticket.

We have a first rate ticket, and should all vote for every man on it. Above all, don't let a vote be dropped on Congress. Judge Woodward will be the ablest and most influential man in the House, and to his majority.

The Coming Election.

From every portion of Pennsylvania we bave glad tidings of a Democratic revival. portion or emb orthon through ancie and greatest enthusiasm prevails. Thousands who never before acted with the Democracy intend to vote for George Sharswood. or Montana.

Judge Sharswood's nomination has excited the most intense enthusiasm, while the corruption and infamy of the Radical party are driving away from the support of its candidate thousands who never before faltered in their party allegiance. The masses want a change, and are wheeling fast into the Democratic column. The day of our redemption is drawing near.

Excuses for Radical Defeat.

When the white party carried Connecticut and California, the darkey politicians said it was because those States were conservative. When Maine and Montana were heard from, it was because they are taxed fifty millions of dollars per year were radical. Just so! A poor excusé may be better than none. The Reaction.

The change of forty five thousand in the omparatively small votes of the States of Maine and California, is extremely signifi cant. It is an early and startling symp tom of the deep reaction in sentiment now progressing among the people. If it is followed in the same proportion, Pennsylvania will give 100,000 majority for the white man's ticket.

The white workingmen of the North to pay the officials who have been appoint ed to register the negro voters in the Southern States. Are white men con-tent with this? Are they willing that money which should be used to feed, expended in raising the negroes to a position from which they can injure the material interests of the white race? If not, prefer the negro to poor white men, and will continue to legislate for the former at the expense of the latter. White men must take care of their own interests.

> RECONSTRUCTION. - Acting Attorney General Brinkley has issued an able opinion upon the power and sphere of the military commanders in the South. It is clogged the wheels of justice and thrown everything into confusion. The Attorney. General proves, by quotations from the highest legal authority, in interfering with the judicial authority in North Carolina, Sickles has rendered himself liable to severe punishment, and that it is the duty of the President instantly to interfere and protect the judiciary and punish those who have attempted to subvert the power of the Federal Courts. He calls upon the President to exert his authority in this matter.

Negro Suffrage by Congressional Enactment.

On Thursday, what is called the Border State Republican Convention assembled in Baltimore. Delegates were present from quite a number of Northern States. Some were white, others black; but they were all imbued with the spirit of Radicallem. The object of the assemblage was to urge the immediate enforcement by Congress of negro suffrage and consequent negro equality in every State in which it does not exist. There was no mincing of words in this Convention .-The resolutions speak out plainly in favor of forcing negro equality upon the Northern States in violation of the Constitutions and without consulting the wishes of the people.

New Advertisements.

SIGNIFICANT.

The newsystem of advertising adopted by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row. New York, is attracting a good deal of attention. The following extract from a speech delivered be fore the N. Y. State Editorial Convention (lately holden at Penn Yanni by a prominent advertising agent of N. Y. City, goes to show that he at least acknowledged their advantages:

From Jamertown, N. Y. Journal of Aug. 2nd. edited by C. E. Bishop, Chairman of Committee on Adverthing

"Mr. Petting ill spoke in opposition to that plan from the publisher's stand point alone. He showed the publishers that by this system of contracting they were giving lower rates than they were giving their was those customers; that they were selling one portion their paper to be used to compete with and underside the other colume; that if the publishers, fully unterstanding this, still wished to continue so irregular and unbusiness-like a system be (Pettingtil & Co.) should ecase trying to get advertising for the papers at they regular rates, and go into the other system of contracting—which he could stand if the printers could."

The anxiety on the account of newspapers is uncalled for. There is not one in twenty which would not pre for to receive all their foreign pa tronage on this plan when it is fully understood. It is too generally recognized as thoroughly ben eficial to all parties concerned to be injured in the least by anything which may be said against by interested parties.
