Internal Revenue.

Large sums of money are now being recovered by the revenue assessors of this district, which were lost to the Government in past years, through neglect and fraud.

No. 1. Hides sent to this county by firms in New York to be tanned, the leather returned to them, they paying for the tanning, and furnishing funds to pay government tax on the leather.

No. 2. Similar to above. Owner of tannery retains $6,000 during past four years. Addition of per centage swells the amount to $10,000—all of which belongs to the Government.

No. 3. No false return discovered; but loss in past years caused by mutual neglect of taxpayer and officials. A clear $1,000 for the Government.

Penalties for Frauds.

The penalties for frauds upon the revenue should be kept in mind by the people. If a tax be due, and a person neglects to make return and pay it, he is liable.

First, to the tax and fifty per cent. in addition. If it be a special tax (formerly called license) the delinquent is also liable to fine not exceeding $500, for failing to be assessed and paying tax before commencing business.

Second, if any person renders a false statement of amount of tax due, he is liable to double the tax; also to a fine of $1,000 and two years imprisonment, either or both, for each false return.

Third, if a false return be sworn to, there is still further fine, imprisonment, &c., for the offense of perjury, to an extent we need not name. It is something like punishment after death—uses up whatever may be left of man, material and immaterial.

Fire in Brooklyn.

Mack's furniture factory at Mack's Corners, in Brooklyn, was burned down on Friday evening last. The establishment had just been furnished with new machinery, &c., for an increase of business, and is a total loss—no insurance. We hear that the loss is $8,000.

Accident at New-Milford.

A sad accident took place here this morning. Mr. John Winfield, an aged man over 70 years old, was crossing the Railroad as the morning Express was crossing the Montrose road.

Fire and Loss of Life.

A Mother and Three Children Burned to Death.—Late on Saturday evening, the 16th inst., the dwelling of Patrick McNulty, located one and a half miles from Dimock Corners, was consumed by fire; and three children, one a boy of about 15 years, and two girls, aged about 6 and 8 years, perished in the flames.
