Chanler and E'dridge spoke against the bill, and it was postponed till January 21. Mr. Schenck offered a concurrent resolution for an adjournment for the holidays from Dec. 20 till January 6. Adopted.

Dec. 13.—In the Senate, a memorial from John Warren, an American citizen, who claims to be unjustly imprisoned in Great Britain, was presented and referred. Mr. Cragin, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill regulating affairs in Utah. Among other provisions, is one in regard to marriages, which under heavy penalties prohibits polygamy. Mr. Sherman called up the bill exempting cotton grown after 1867 from taxes. After some discussion the bill was postponed till Monday. The House bill to regulate bounties, was, after some verbal amendments, passed. The vote on the concurrent resolution to adjourn December 20, was reconsidered. After considerable debate, the resolution was adopted by a vote of 21 10 19.
