The Radical executive committee, composed principally of members of Congress, are busily engaged in distributing political documents, in the interest of their party throughout the country. For this purpose several persons in the employ and yay of the House of Representative have been detailed to address these documents and prepare them for mailing. They spend the greater portion of their time at the Radical committee room, but draw their salaries from the Treasury as employees of the House.

HANOVER, Pa., Feb, 16, 1859. Messas, S. W. Fowle & Sox. Boston:

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the ure of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago, one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and itute hopes of her recovery were suteriated. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a grant improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefitted by it. I would, lewever, cantion the public against imposition because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry affoat throughout the country.
