For the Democrat. Presidential Vote---1868.

As considerable interest is felt as to the result of the next Presidential election, Lappend a Tew figures giving the probable result.: Total number of votes in the Electoral College, (including the South,) Necessary to a choice,

Total number of votes in the Eletoral College, (excluding the South,) Necessary to a choice,

The States that have held elections that are emphatically Democratic, send to the electoral College as follows: California 5; Conn. 6; Del. 3; Ky. 11; Md. 7; N. J. 7; N. Y. 33; Penn. 26;—Total 98. Thus In the District Court of the United States for the giving the Republicans Ohio, 21; and the Western District of Pennsylvania: balance of the Northern vote, making a total of 149, a majority of 51. Counting To whom it may concern: Ohio, (which is certain) to the Democrat-Ohio, (which is certain) to the Democratic 98, making a vote of 119, still giving them by 9 majority the President. It is however very probable that the States of Nebraska, Nevada and Oregon will each Montrose, Feb. 11, 1868.—3w give us 3 electoral votes, making 9, and 128 total. This figuring on the Northern vote, gives a Democratic majority of still giving them the President by 51 majerity. Should the Southern whites carry La. 7; Texas 6; West Va. 5; N. C. 9; a total of 27, it would change the figures to 157 Rep., 160 Democrat, a majority of Notice IN BANKRUPICY. 157 Rep., 160 Democrat, a majority of 3. Should this "Most infamous Congress continue its infamous acts," the States of the great North West, will record their votes with the other Democratic States, thereby ansuring the utter and overwhelming defeat of the Republican and radical negro party of these States, whose career began in revolution, succeeded by despotism, continued in Anarchy and confusion and will end, I trust, in rain soon.

"The Age."

The attention of the Democratic and Conservative citizons of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly is sauces of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of synan political doctrines should command the carnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Tr th can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way, worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and be pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with anticles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day: Local Intelligence.
