"The Age."

The attention of the Democratic and Conservative citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound, political doctrines should command the carnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance: The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicraism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Tr. th can be devised, than is circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way, worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finnnee, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quations, Martine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Resides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and niso the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamers first touch. The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorists from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family fournal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Fatmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and facinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest Novels.
