BY DEXTER SMITH

I.

Put away the little garments That the darling used to wear, She will need them on earth never; She has climbed the golden stair; She is with the happy angels, And I long for her sweet kiss, Where her little feet are waiting, In the realm of perfect bliss.

II. Lay aside her little playthings, Wet with mother's pearly tears,-How we shall miss little Nellie All the coming weary years! Fold the dainty, little dresses That she never more will wear. For her little feet are waiting Up above the golden stair.

Kiss the little, curly tresses Cut from her bright, golden hair; Do the angels kiss our darling In the realm so bright and fair? Oh! we pray to meet our loved one-For a long, long, sweet embrace, Where the little feet are waiting, And we meet her face to face.

On Going to Church.

Some go to church just for a walk; Some go there to laugh and talk; Some go there for speculation; Some go there for observation; Some go there to meet a lover; Some the impulse oft discover; Some go there to meet a friend; Some go there the time to spend; Some go to learn the parson's name; Some go there to wound his fame; Many go there to doze and nod : But few go there to worship God!

THE DOG AND HIS MASTER.-The Almighty, who gave the dog to be the companion of our pleasures and our toils, hath invested him with a nature noble and incapable of deceit. He forgets neither friend nor foe-remembers with accuracy both benefit and injury. He hath a share of man's intelligence, but no share of man's falsehood. You may bribe a soldier to slay a man with his sword, or a witness to take life by false accusation; but you ty. Office at his residence, on the corner east of Sayre & Bros. Foundry. [June 18, 1867.—19* cannot make a hound to tear his benefactor .- Walter Scott.

-The Richmond correspondent of the New York Times mentions, as a sign of progress in Virginia, that a colored memher of the convention recently sent one of the pages to one of the leading white members for a "chaw of tobaker," which was courteously sent in the form of a ten cent plug. Black gentleman bit off a big quid and sent the remainder back. This is a touching evidence of returning harmony between the races.

-There is a deacon in a neighboring town named Day. One Sabbath morning he heard a number of boys playing in front of the house, and he went out to stop their Sabbath breaking. Assuming a grave conntenance, he said to them:

"Bys, do you know what day this is?" "Yes," replied an urchin, "it's Deacon

-Seme years ago it was reported that $35,000 in Government bonds had been lost in an ocean steamer, and evidence thereof was presented to Congress, whereupon new bonds were issued. It appears now from a statement made in Congress, that since that time a large portion of the missing bonds have been presented at the Treasury Department and paid.

-A chap inquired at the post office in Eric, the other day, for a letter for "Eury Hodgen." He was told there was none "Look 'ere," he replied, a little angrily, " you've hexamined a hodd letter for my name. It don't commence with a haitch. It begins with a ho! Look in the ole that's got the he's!"

-The joke pratical does not always end as harmlessly as in the case of Nathaniel Appleton, who found, on riding up to the house of his beloved, that his rival's horse was hitched to the gate. Unhitching him and giving him a smart stroke with his rawhide, he walked in and inquired whose horse that could be cantering down the street. It need not be said that he found the coast clear at once and took good pains to keep it so.

-A good anecdote is told of a well known vagabond, who was brought before a magistrate as a common vagrant. Have ing suddenly harpooned a good idea, he pulled from a capacious pocket of his tattered coat a loaf of bread and a half dried cod-fish and holding them up in triumphant look and gesture to the magistrate, exclaimed:

"You don't catch me that way; I'm no vagrant. Ain't that visible means of support, I should like to know?"

-So far in the present fiscal year $134, 838,013,88 have been collected as internal revenue. Under Democratic administration this sum would pay nearly all; under Radical rule the whole vast sum amounts to but a drop towards the vast public expenditure.

-The late Democratic State Convention was one of the most harmonious assemblages that ever convened in this State.

Our Last new addition to our different styler is attracting the admiration of both critics and populace. We mention specially, some of the claims of this new Piano. Believing the exterior should be as beautiful to the eye as melody is to the ear, we have paid great attention to getting them up in a style that is conceded by all who have seen them to be the handsomest Piano Forts made. They are an entirely new style, with four full round corners, heavily carved legs and lyre, base richly moulded, and contains our latest improved new scale and action. The tone is melodious, and its adaptability to passages of every shade of expression, from the soltest murmurs, the Cressendo, and the F F, gives the performer every advantage of the Concert grand.
