Agricultural Meeting

Society will meet at the New Court House, Montrose, on Tuesday Evening April 14th, of First week of court. M. M. Mott, Sec.

Prolific.

This spring, a Sow, owned by L. B. Mitchell, in Bridgewater, had a litter of 13 living pigs. Last fall the same Sow raised 11 fine pigs, one more than she had teats. A few such sows would stock the county.

Seriously Injured.

Montrose station to this city. When at the Vensterck mines, above Providence, the train switched off on the Hampton mines track, and the engine and caboase ieft Mr. Fordham standing on the track. Thinking it possible to overtake the engine he ran after it. While running, he fell into a cattle guard, and sustained serious injuries, breaking a rib and otherwise bruising his person. He finally crawled out and made his way to his home in the Fourth ward, reaching it about 12 o'clock, in an almost exhausted condition. A portion of the distance he crawled on his hands and knees. Application was made at two dwellings for as MARTHA M. HENDRICKS, of Herrick, Brad. sistance, which was refused by the occu- co. Pa. pants, and the only thing he could do was to crawl on the best he could .- Scranton Register.

Disaster at Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 31-By the breaking of a chain connected with the hoisting machinery at the Diamond Coal Mines in this city this morning, a platform containing seventeen men was precipitated to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 185 fee; Eleven were instantly killed, one has since died, and two more, it is thought | dence in Herrick, Rev. WM. LATHROP. in cannot live. They leave eleven widows and twenty-eight orphans. This is the most disastrous accident that has occurred AMBROSE W ATERHOUSE, aged 69 years. in the Lackawana Valley coal fields for many years.

Stamp Duty.

Under the Internal Revenue laws, letters acknowledging the receipt of either drafts, checks or money, exceeding twenty dollars, are subject to a stamp duty of two cents, the same as if a formal receipt had been given for so much money. The fact is sometimes forgotten, or is not known, even by good business men.
