

Montrose Democrat. A. J. GERRITSON, Editor. TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1868. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, OF FAYETTE COUNTY. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT, OF COLUMBIA COUNTY. Election, Tuesday October 13, 1868.

THE ELECTIONS. Connecticut Redeemed!

IMPEACHMENT CONDEMNED! Last week the people of several States, cities and towns, voted upon the current issues of impeachment, negro equality, etc., as presented by the Radicals; and most gloriously was the verdict rendered. In CONNECTICUT, the Democrats elect a Governor by over 1,700 majority! Well done for a State that has been giving Radical majorities of 10,000 in past years!

In MICHIGAN—usually good for 20,000 or 30,000 Radical majority—that party framed and submitted a new Constitution, embracing their pet doctrine of negro suffrage; and so sanguine were they of success that they refused to allow a separate vote on that question. The result was a square knock-down party fight, resulting in the fall of wool to the tune of 10,000.

In OHIO the Democrats made large gains—carrying the strong Radical city of Cincinnati; Columbus by 1,000 majority—a large gain—and like results at other points.

In IOWA the Radicals are in mourning—the Democracy having for the first time carried the Radical city of Keokuk.

In MISSOURI Radicalism has lost its hold upon power—and the head centre, St. Louis, falls into the Democratic line.

KENTUCKY re-echoes the Democratic thunder, with 3,000 majority in Louisville.

In WISCONSIN the Radicals only carry the State judicial ticket by about 3,000.

In KANSAS—heretofore under the colored shadow—the Democrats elected a mayor in Atchison, and polled a largely increased vote in Lawrence.

—And such, with trifling exceptions, is the current everywhere; and the grand result will be the election of a Democratic President in November.

Military Dictation Rebuked.

A few days before the election in Connecticut, the Tribune announced upon the alleged authority of Gen. Grant, that, as a soldier, he had decided that the President must be impeached! This being the case, it was held that it became the duty of the Senate to depose Mr. Johnson in compliance with Grant's wish.

In view of all which the people were admonished to vote for Grant, impeachment, negro equality, and the radical ticket! But the spirit of liberty and law has yet a vitality that astonished the party that seeks to crush and destroy it; and in defiance of Grant's semi-official manifesto or military order, the people rallied for the Right, asserted their Independence, and defeated Grant's programme; just as they will (Grant, Wade and all) in November!

The St. Louis Democrat and the Philadelphia North American, both (radical organs), do themselves credit in opposing the further continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau. The former is frank enough to admit that the Bureau "can hardly fail to do more harm than good," while the latter sharply remarks:

We observe that quite a number of officers of the Bureau are candidates for high office in the South, and perhaps this will, in some degree, account for the anxiety to continue the Bureau. * * * The South has interests of its own to look after at Washington, which these men do not understand or appreciate, and we suspect that if they should succeed, through the agency of the Bureau, in getting themselves elected to Congress, they would for the most part, be mere representatives of New York or New England interests.

The New Tax Bill.

The following is a copy of the Act repealing taxes on Manufacturers, imposing special taxes in certain cases, and containing additional stringent provisions relative to illicit distillation. It was approved by the President and goes into immediate operation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled: That sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the Act, entitled "an act to provide internal revenue to support the Government, to pay interest on the public debt and for other purposes," approved June 13, 1864, and all acts and parts of acts amendatory of said sections, be and the same are hereby repealed; except only so much of the said sections and amendments thereto as relates to the taxes imposed thereby on gas made of coal, wholly or in part, or of any other material; on illuminating, lubricating or other mineral oils or articles, the products of the distillation, redistillation or refining of crude petroleum, or of any single distillation of coal, shale, peat, asphaltum or other bituminous substances, on wines there-in described, and on snuff and all the other manufactures of tobacco, including cigars, pipes, cigars and cheroots; Provided,

That the products of petroleum and bituminous substances hereinbefore mentioned, except illuminating gas, shall from and after the passage of this Act be taxed at one half of the rate fixed by the said section ninety-four.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal or interfere with any law, resolution or provision for the assessment or collection of any tax which under existing laws may accrue before the first day of April, A. D. 1868; and nothing herein contained shall be construed as a repeal of any tax on machinery or other articles, which have been or may be delivered on contracts made with the United States prior to this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That after the first day of June next no drawback of internal taxes paid on manufactures shall be allowed on the exportation of any article of domestic manufacture on which there is no internal tax at the time of exportation; nor shall such drawback be allowed in any case unless it shall be proved by sworn evidence in writing to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that the tax had been paid, and that such articles of manufacture were, prior to the 1st day of April, 1868, actually purchased or actually contracted for, to be delivered for such exportation; and no claim for such drawback or for any drawback of internal tax on exportations made prior to the passage of this act shall be paid unless presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue before the 1st day of October, 1868.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That every person, firm or corporation who shall manufacture, by hand or machinery, any goods, wares or merchandise (bread-stuff and unmanufactured lumber excepted) not otherwise specially taxed as such, or shall be engaged in the manufacture or preparation for sale of any articles or compounds not otherwise specially taxed, or shall put up for sale in packages with his own name or trade mark thereon, any articles or compounds not otherwise specially taxed, and whose annual sales exceed $5,000, shall pay, for every additional $1,000 in excess of $5,000, $2; and the amount of sales in excess of the rate of $5,000 per annum shall be returned quarterly to the Assistant Assessor, and the excess of $5,000 shall be assessed by the Assessor and paid quarterly in the months of January, April, July and October of each year as other taxes are assessed and paid; and the first assessment herein provided for shall be made in the month of July, 1868, for the three months then preceding.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That every person engaged in carrying on the business of a distiller who shall defraud or attempt the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him or any part thereof, shall forfeit the distillery and distilling apparatus used by him, and all distilled spirits and all raw materials for the production of distilled spirits found in the distillery and on the distillery premises, and shall on conviction be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than five years.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That if any officer or agent appointed and acting under the authority of any revenue law of the United States shall be guilty of any gross neglect in the discharge of the duties of his office, or shall conspire or collude with any other person to defraud the United States, or shall make opportunity for any person to defraud the United States, or shall do, or omit to do, any act with intent to enable any person to defraud the United States, or shall make or sign any false certificate or return in any case where he is by law or regulation required to make a certificate or return, or having knowledge or information of the violation of any revenue law by any person, or of fraud committed by any person against the United States under any revenue law of the United States, shall fail to report in writing such knowledge or information to his next superior officer, and to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue he shall, on conviction, be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and shall be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That no compromise, discontinuance or nolle prosequi of any prosecution under this act shall be allowed without the permission in writing of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General.

Approved March 31, 1868.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND Hoofland's German Tonic.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, Is composed of the purest juices (for, as they are medicinal terms, extracts) of Hops, Herbs and Berries, making a preparation highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Iron, Orange and making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a medicine free from alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objections to the combination as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, dyspepsia, nervous debility, is very liable to have its functions deranged. The liver, sympathizing closely with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is the following: indigestion, flatulence, inward piles, fullness of blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust for food, loss of weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried or difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, or webs before the eyes, constant nervous tremor, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, etc., reddish flushes of heat, burning in the feet, constant imaginations of evil, and great depression of spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from alcohol, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies:

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have (unnumbered) performed cures, and been tested—offering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Nervous Debility, chronic Rheumatism, disease of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

Persons Advanced in Life, and feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant evils, will find in the use of the Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will assist new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and vigor of more youthful days, and give the shrunken frame, a new vigor and happiness, to their remaining years.

NOTICE: It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, to use their own expressive "feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

Testimonials: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa. writes: "I find Hoofland's German Bitters, a good tonic, useful in disease of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 23, 1866. "I consider Hoofland's German Bitters, a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of indigestion for Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D. Pastor of the tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually does not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD. Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia. I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from disease arising from derangement of the liver. E. D. FENDALL. CAUTION: Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are worthless. Principal office and manufactory at the German medicine store, No. 631 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON, & Co. PHILADELPHIA, Pa. PRICES: Hoofland's German Bitters per bottle, $1 00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1 00 per bottle, or a half dozen, $5 00. Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. April 14, 1868—37
