TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1868.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, GEN. WELLINGTON II. ENT, OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Election, Tuesday October 13, 1868.

Judge Woodward has introduced a bill to provide a method of bringing before the Supreme Court any law that may be passed over the President's veto, in order to afford that tribunal an opportunity of deciding on its constitutionality.

The Radicals had Grant's portrait printed on the head of their tickets in Connecticut, with a view to carrying the State by the aid of his popularity. The result was a handsome Democratic gain!

The Radical claquers now allege that Johnson must be impeached, as a party necessity, because, to acquit him now, would be to stultify themselves by admitting that they have been in the wrong.

At the opening of the impeachment trial, Butler argued that the "High Court of Impeachment" possessed none of the attributes of a Court, and was bound by no law; but urged that each Senator should make a law unto himself during the trial. His intent was to make it a purely lynch-law affair, in which all statements should be admitted that would defame the President, and all testimony be ruled out that might show his innocence. Now, when his advice is partly taken, but he is not allowed to decide what shall and what shall not be ruled out, he not only exhibits his partisan passions, but treats the Chief Justice and counsel in an ungentlemanly manner.

Partisan Impeachment.

The Radicals freely admit that the impeachment trial is not to ascertain whether the President is innocent or guilty; but that it is a question to be decided on party grounds. In this view of the case, is tors to pass themselves off as jurors to try fore the usual debate closed, the court adthe question of guilt or innocence of the President, whout regard to the political condition of the country, why, nobody is harmed thereby; but probably the Republican Senator who flinches will fare the President that the tenure bill was pretty much as he would if he abandoned void. his party on any other question-only a great deal worse."

Bogus Registry Bill.

We publish this week what was supposed to be a true copy of the Registry law; but since our outside forms were printed, it has become a matter of doubt whether that is the original or a bogus act. On the day before the adjournment, Mr. Chalfant, a vigilant member from Montour county, created some excitement in the House, by exposing a most infamous outrage-nothing less than the alteration of the Registry law, after it had passed the Legislature and before it was sent to the Governor. He stated that the bill which the Governor signed and which had been declared a law had never passed the Legislature-it was an entirely different bill. He moved for a committee to investigate the fraud, and what is still the House refused to have the matter investigated.

The Impeachment Trial.

April 11th, Gen. Sherman was called as witness; but the managers objected to most of the questions, the Senate sustained the objections, and he was not allowed to answer.

On the 13th he was recalled, and after a vain effort to get his testimony admitted he was dismissed, but afterwards recalled. To a queston put by Senator Reverdy Johnson, he was allowed to respond, and he was allowed to state a part of the conversation which took place between him and the President in reference to getat the time when he was offered the appointment of Secretary of War, ad interim. The impeachers felt badly damaged by his evidence.

On the 14th, owing to the illness of Mr Stanberry, the Court adjourned.

On the 15th, the defence put in documentary evidence showing the uniform practice of making removals by the President, beginning with the removal of Timothy Pickering, Secretary of State, by President John Adams, during the sess ion of the Senate.

On the 16th, the defence put in the evidence of W. S. Cox, Esq., an attorney en-Gen. Thomas' arrest, to get the case into the courts. They also called R. T. Merrick Esq., counsel for Gen. Thomas. In small majority overruled his objections.-Their testimony, as well as that of Gen. showing that the plans of the President were to test the tenure-of-office bill in the courts, and determine Stanton's situation, and not to violate any law. On the 17th evidence was taken in reference to the President's speeches at Cleveland and St. Louis. Documentary evidence in reference to appointments was also put in.

Sec. Welles was also called and testified that he notified the President of the reported movements of troops, and that this caused Gen. Emory to be sent for. Mr. Welles also testified to what occurred at a cabinet meeting on the 21st of February | ly in front, and the whole were precipitain reference to Mr. Stanton's removal .it not the duty of the President to be pre- Mr. Welles was also asked to state what Judd and Division Superintendent Dougpared to treat this like any other attempt occurred in cabinet meeting in reference at rebellion? The defence intend to show that the whole cabinet, including Stanton, advised his objections.

A large portion of time is taken up with Butler's petty objections to evidence, his windy and violent harangues, his low tricks as a pettifogger, which grow from bad to worse as the Chief Justice and Senators continue to disregard the wounded. his objections. His course is well calculated to expose the vile animus of the impeachers; and every day's proceedings show more and more emphatically that there is no cause for the trial, but such as is based upon partisan motives.

> What has the Republican to say to this? Is it true, as we have long suspected, that the republican organization is to day disgraced by a record of Bribery and shame ?

The Sole Reason for Impeachment. The New York Tribune, in an article on impeachment says:

The President is determined that the Southern States shall return into the Union with governments created by and recognizing the white vote only, while Congress has resolved to confer the suffrage on both the black and white races, and to Impartial Suffrage and loyal supremacy. This antagonism, in the fundamental problem of reconstruction, is the fountain and charges that in the Legislature " on prisource of the whole difficulty between the President and Congress.

After remaining a few moments, he was escorted to the Capitol for the purpose of fixing his flag on the dome, but the radical police in charge of the building refused him admittance even to the rotunda, although a swarm of negroes who had followed the crowd, were admitted. Thus, after being kindly treated all through the south by the former rebels whom he helped to defeat, he only finds enemies in the radical convention at Richmond, and among the impeachers at Washington.

Michigan Elections.

The radicals are endeavoring to destroy the effect of the defeat of the Constitution in Michigan, by declaring that in the town and township elections they have maintained their usual supremacy. This is not so. The facts are the reverse. Not only is the Constitution defeated by the Democratic and Conservative vote, but lanti, and Holland, all radical last year, now elect Democratic mayors. This is a most signal and significant gain, and shows that the people have repudiated negro suffrage and radical rule at the same time in Michigan. The gain in East Saginaw is over one thousand, in Port Huron two hundred, and in Adrian it will reach cheering.

NEW YORK, April 16.

A special dispatch to the Tribune states hat an accident took place on the Erie Railway this evening, within one mile of the place where the frightful disaster of vesterday occurred. Thirteen cars, composing a freight train, ran off the track in consequence of a broken rail and were thrown down an embankment and badly broken up.

PARTIZAN LEGISLATION REBUKED.-The Democracy of Bridgwater, Beaver Co., gave the rads a Waterloo defeat on Monday of last week, by electing their whole ticket by a handsome majority. One year ago the rads carried the town; HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC control of the Republican organization, it ried it by eighteen majority. The rads thereupon secured the passage of a bill know it is, by a record of bribery and through the present Legislature-against numerously signed remonstrances-attaching the village of Shannon (which was almost entirely radical) to Bridgewater. Thereby they expected to carry the town beyond a peradventure, but failed to elect a single officer. The four radical candidates for school directors were beaten worse on account of the fact that for the past year negroes have been admitted to the white schools, through the action of the retiring radical board. Evidently the rank and file of the radical party felt that it was about time to show their manhood. and therefore, whilst rebuking the miscegenation tendencies of their leaders, most of them voted the whole Democaatic tick-
