damages assessed at $3. A. Lathrop vs. George Keator. Verdict for defendant.

Lottery Swindles.

"C. A. Taylor & Co., general agents for the United States," as they call themselves, are sending lithographed letters to persons about the country offering to send a prize of $1200 on receipt of $10. They are swindlers, as are other lottery and and avoid all such.

This is our response to their offer to send us a prize.

Melancholy Occurrence.

The evening of Friday, April 17th, will long be remembered by the citizens of the usually quiet borough of LeRaysville, as connected with the sudden and violent death of John H. Davies. The circumstances as shown at the Coroner's inquest are these: The deceased and James II.

Shortelle entered the wagon shop of Stephen Gorham in company. Davies seeing an old musket, (a "relic of the war) in the sudden and provided and market in the sudden and violent are these in the deceased and James II.

Having made strangements to forward Butter this season, we have procured a lot of new, clean Butter Palls for the purpose. We will send to good and responsible men, sho will make as good sales as any in the city, and prompt returns. Farmers can know at what prices their Butter sells by reference to our returns as fast as we get them. We will sell them goods as cheap as any one else, and pay them money on their sales of Butter as they may want it.
