

Montrose Democrat.

A. J. GERRITSON, Editor.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1868.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,
OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,
GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,
OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Election, Tuesday October 13, 1868.

It is reported that Republican Senators are even threatened with death if they do not vote for impeachment.

The Tribune urges that Senators be at once admitted from Arkansas, Carolina, &c., so as to vote for impeachment, although such Senators would not have heard a word of evidence.

It is freely admitted upon Radical authority that votes for impeachment are being offered for purchase and sale with reference to offices supposed to be (in future) in the gift of the impeaching party.

The people of Arkansas, by a majority, voted down the negro equality Constitution submitted to them; so the "election" was continued 17 days to allow bands of negroes to roam from place to place and vote for it. The Rads finally figured 1816 for it; but admit that in two counties 1928 votes were cast by persons not residing therein! Yet the House adopts a preamble declaring that the Constitution was adopted!

Such is reconstruction under Radical rule.

The Impeachment Trial.

As noted in our last, Mr. Stanbery closed his speech on Saturday the 2d. It proved to be a very able, logical argument, clearly demonstrating that the impeachment charges have no just, moral or legal foundation.

Monday, manager Bingham opened the closing speech, which was not closed until Wednesday. He labored to incite passions against the President, and at the close, as if by previous arrangement, a crowd of "outside impeachers" who were in the galleries with their "ladies" commenced cheering. They refused to come to order, when requested to do so by the chief Justice, and the galleries were ordered to be cleared, which order was not obeyed, and the disturbance continued. Senators Grimes and Trumbull proposed that order be enforced, at which the mob became more violent and insulting in their demonstrations, and were finally driven out by the police. Meantime, Cameron began a speech in support of the conduct of the mob, and refused to come to order at calls of Senators until ordered to take his seat by the Chief Justice. This course was doubtless a part of the means adopted to coerce doubtful Senators to vote for impeachment under the party lash.

After a long controversy, it was agreed on Thursday to adjourn till Monday, and that on Tuesday (to day) the voting upon the several articles should commence. As each Senator is allowed but fifteen minutes for argument or explanation, a final verdict will no doubt be reached this week. Leave was given for written opinions to be filed up to Thursday, 14th.

Doings in Congress.

On the 2d, a personal controversy arose between Donnelly of Minnesota and Washburn of Illinois, radical members of the House, which led to one of the vilest debates that ever disgraced a public assembly. Much of the language used was so profane, abusive and indecent, that it is not fit to be printed; yet the radical house refused to allow a stop to be put to it. As Grant's name was mixed up in it, the rads afterwards decided to suppress portions of it from appearing in the Congressional Globe. It should be noted that the House has voted to impeach the President for "unbecoming language;" and while the Senate is trying him on that charge, the House indulges members in language that has no parallel in respectable society. In view of these facts a member offered a proposition to withdraw that article of impeachment, but the pharisaical members would not allow its consideration.

A bill was offered in the House on Friday to "restore Arkansas to the Union," and which was passed under the previous question, without time being given to examine or debate the subject. Thad. Stevens said he had reasons for immediate passage which he did not choose to reveal. Four radicals voted against the bill. It not only forces negro equality upon the state, but declares that the state shall never abolish that order of things!

A bill to admit South Carolina was reported.

Causes and Results.

As it is now settled that partisan causes are the moving impulse for impeachment, the inference is drawn that the result will be in compliance with the orders of King Caucus.

But if enough of Republican Senators consult law and facts rather than the party programme, or fear to go so far for party ends, the President will be acquitted.

The Carbonade Advance (a Republican paper) of last week, takes this view of the case; and we call especial attention to its words:

"Some people seem to look for the President's acquittal. They are unable to divest themselves of the idea that this case is to be decided like ordinary legal and judicial trials. They overlook the controlling partisan aspects of the case.

"The President has proved a traitor to the party that placed him in power, while in possession of his office. He has distributed precious patronage against the will and wishes of a majority, a two-thirds majority of both branches of Congress. Official honors and emoluments which Congressmen wanted for their friends have been given to their enemies. This proves the President's guilt so plainly that it is quite unnecessary to look further.

"His conviction, when that stage of the case is reached, is to be looked for as a matter of course."

Similar avowals have come from various radical sources; and, let the result be what it may, they go into history as the true and correct exposition of the motives of the authors and endorsers of impeachment.

Luzerne License Law.

An Act for the further protection of the wholesale and retail merchants in the county of Luzerne:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any merchant, or his traveling agent, not residing within said county, to sell by sample, order, or otherwise, in the said county of Luzerne, and goods, wares, or merchandise, by wholesale or retail without first having obtained from the Treasurer of said county of Luzerne a license for that purpose, for which said license he shall pay the sum of three hundred dollars said license shall not continue for a longer period than one year from the date thereof.

Sec. 2. Any sale made as aforesaid by any merchant or his traveling agent, without license obtained as aforesaid, within the limits of the county aforesaid, shall be held and deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by fine of not less than three hundred dollars, one half to be paid to the informer, who shall be a competent witness, the other half to the School District in which the offence shall have been committed, or imprisonment, or both at the discretion of the court, and it shall be lawful for any constable residing in any of the townships, wards or boroughs in said county either upon own knowledge, or the complaint of any citizen of Luzerne county, to arrest any person or persons engaged in making sales as aforesaid, by sample, order, or otherwise, and convey him, or them before any Alderman or Justice of the Peace, residing in said county of Luzerne, and unless the said person selling as aforesaid shall be able to exhibit his her or their license from the said Treasurer of the said county of Luzerne, said Alderman or Justice of the Peace to require such persons, so arrested to enter into bonds with approved security for his, her, or their appearance at the next court of Quarter sessions, to answer, and in default thereof, to be committed to the proper jail in said county.

ELISHA W. DAVIS,
Speaker of the House of Rep.
JAMES L. GIBBAM,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved, the fourteenth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight.

JOHN W. GEARY.

PRECEDENT.—The impeachers have been looking up precedents for their prosecution of Andrew Johnson. Here is the copy of a verdict found by a Confederate court held in Knoxville, Tennessee, in December, 1862, which the radical majority in the senate can adopt in form:

"That the Senators on their oath do say that the said Andrew Johnson is an alien enemy to the Confederate states of America; it is, therefore, ordered by the Court that the said Johnson is an alien enemy, and all the property, rights, and credits belonging to him, either at law or in equity, are sequestered under the acts of Congress, and the Receiver for this District is directed to proceed to dispose of the same as provided by law."

The verdict of the Rebel court against Andrew Johnson was in consequence of his devotion to the Constitution and the Union, and the verdict of the radical court at Washington is to condemn him for the same cause.

No Wonder so many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure of various diseases, and when tried "found wanting;" that the invalid loses all faith in specifics. We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

The Alta Vela Case.

During the impeachment trial some facts about the Alta Vela case have transpired that not only do no credit to the Managers, but which prove that they have held their position over the head of the President as a menace. It will be remembered that Alta Vela is a Guano Island, claimed by some Americans, clients of Ben Butler and others. On the 6th of March, Butler drew up a paper for one of the claimants, which he, Thad. Stevens, John A. Bingham and John A. Logan signed and sent to the President. The paper demanded that the President should send a man of war to the island to dispossess the foreign occupants. As this paper was gotten up and forwarded after the impeachment proceedings had been commenced, it had the appearance of their wishing to drive a private speculation through under a threat from the managers. This disgraceful proceeding was exposed by Judge Nelson, in the high Court of Impeachment, and not a little excitement was caused thereby. It was made apparent to everybody that the Managers tried to use their power during the trial to subvert their private interest. No doubt, if the President had sent a national vessel as they desired, to dispossess the foreign occupants of Alta Vela Island, it would have been brought up against him as another instance of executive usurpation. But the President refused to entertain their proposition, and thereby made the Managers more hostile to him than before.

MORE THIEVES.—H. P. Doran's store was entered on Friday night last, and two watches, one gold, the other silver, a large quantity of pennies, a satchel and a suit of clothes, were taken therefrom. An Erie watchman saw a negro up near red rock, wearing a new suit and carrying a satchel, and upon hearing of the robbery, mentioned the fact. Luke Buck and Mr. Doran at once started in pursuit of the suspected party, and overhauled him near Susquehanna Depot. The missing articles, were found in his possession, and he was at once taken in charge by Buck. At an examination before Esq. Reckhow on Saturday his guilt was clearly proved, and Sheriff Lane was furnished with a guest until our next term of Court.

Burglars were also at work the same night at the shop of Geo. Wessell, and house of Dr. C. P. Bigelow. The lock on Wessell's door was broken to pieces by the burglars parties. It is not known whether anything was taken or not in either case.—G. B. Pennsylvanian.

A Case for Conservative Republicans.

The Supreme Court of Louisiana, a body which is now composed of Radical carpet-baggers, has decided that a grand jury drawn under Hancock's order is illegal, because composed entirely of white men. The same body has set free a negro murderer, who was indicted by the white grand jury and convicted in the court below. That was done for the purpose of pandering to the negro vote. We would like to hear an honest expression of opinion on such proceedings from those men in Pennsylvania who style themselves Conservative Republicans.

WHERE WILL THEY GO?—Before the election in Chicago, a correspondent says the Radical in that city declared that if it went for the Democrats, the Radical National Convention "should be adjourned to some more loyal section." Chicago has gone Democratic, and it therefore becomes a question as to where the Radicals will go. All the great Atlantic cities are Democratic, and now that the greatest of inland cities has deserted the rotten Radical party, where will they go? There is still one last refuge which may be pointed to where they are likely to find sympathizing friends for a year longer, and that is Washington city. The Capital has been legislated into the hands of the negroes, who doubtless would be glad to entertain their Boston and New York friends just once. But as the negroes detest carpet-bags no doubt they would despise the Radical ever afterwards, and Washington would vote the Democrats into power again.

The cable dispatches Sunday night brought the startling news that General Napier, commander of the British troops, has at last met the Abyssinia forces, under the command of King Theodore, and not only conquered them, and set the British prisoners free, but during the strife killed the King, who fell fighting bravely at the head of his troops, defending his Capitol, Magdale.

The steam saw-mill of Mr. Sutton, three miles east of New Milford, was burned to the ground on Monday night, April 27th. The engine room was the last part to burn. One of the workmen was through the building an hour and a half before the fire enveloped the whole building, and reported everything safe. It is thought, accordingly, that it was fired by an incendiary. Loss at least $5,000.—Northern Penn.

Jeff. Davis' bail bonds were renewed in Richmond on Saturday. Horace Greeley, Cornelius Vanderbilt, and Gerrit Smith became securities in $25,000 each, the remaining $25,000 being guaranteed by citizens of Richmond.

The accused is to appear at the next term of the Court on being duly notified. The judge announces that Chief Justice Chase would be prepared to try the case immediately after the impeachment trial closes.

The radicals at the recent charter election in Hoboken, New Jersey, headed their tickets "Grant and Victory." They were beaten worse than ever before.

A white stripling named Irwin Peachy was married to a negro girl named Ellen Edmonson, in McVeytown, Mifflin county, the other day. An illustration of consistent radicalism.

A portion of the trestle work on the Erie Railroad Depot at Jersey gave way on Tuesday, precipitating a locomotive into the North river. The engineer and fireman were drowned.

The Selma Messenger says: "Ashburn, who the radicals abetted and over, was a man of bad character and infamous associations. An ex slave driver, ex preacher, and low demagogue, he met his death in a negro den of prostitution where he had lived!"

FISH LAW.—The Legislature of this state, last winter passed a law regulating fishing in the Susquehanna river, making it an offence to place any fish basket or fish trap in the river, or to fish with a seine within two hundred yards of any sluice or fish way erected for the passage of fish, under severe penalties. This law is intended for the preservation of fish in the streams throughout the State and to the systematic stocking of the waters and the breeding of fish in them.

Before the late election in Chicago the Tribune of that city declared the result would be indicative of public sentiment in Illinois and the West general in regard to Grant, impeachment, &c. It had not then the remotest idea of such a sweeping condemnation of Radical men and measures.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE Syrup, for the cure of Injunct consumption, cough, cold, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, and general debility. For several years I have been urged by kind friends, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but I knew the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same. For years I have endeavored to do so, but the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to outcall the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, the friends of the general public, who appreciate my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The ingredients are perfectly harmless, and it acts on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cts. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt street New York, near Jersey City Ferry. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers everywhere. may12ml

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for the cure of coughs, colds, hoarseness, Asthma, Influenza, croup, whooping cough, Bronchitis, Predisposition to consumption, &c. &c. This great and well known and is performing so much good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice it to say that it cures all the ailments mentioned in its name, and is the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy, will be glad to see it, and will find it their only reliance to insure a perfect restoration to health. Testimony of Mr. PETER SEAW. West WINDFELD, N. Y., Dec. 10, 1860. Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & SON, Boston. I was afflicted with a severe cough, pain in the side and Lungs and a general depression of health to such an extent as greatly to alarm myself and friends as to the result. During this time I tried several highly recommended remedies, with little or no good result, and had concluded to try the effect of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I did so, and to my great joy found immediate and permanent relief. The medicinal properties of this Balsam are health as ever. I believe your Balsam one of the best remedies for coughs, colds and all Lung diseases, now in use, and conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with such ailments. Yours truly, PETER SEAW. Prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Son, 15 Tremont st. Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE—WE are constantly hearing favorable reports from those who have used this Salve. Any Anthony, who of Mark Anthony, of this city, and living at No. 6 Locust street, afflicted with a felon on the finger, was recently induced to make a trial of the Salve. Almost instantly she experienced relief from the pain, which had been almost unendurable. Every other remedy had failed to afford her any relief, and she was now satisfied of its merits, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply.—Fall River News.—may12ml

FRIGHTFUL PROPHECIES CONCERNING the end of all things are made by religious enthusiasts; and on the other hand, philosophers insist that the centre of the earth is a mass of fire—that the poles of the earth will one day be at the equator, and that the Sun is gradually fading! Talk like this is very terrible; but, pending such wholesale calamities, it will be as well for each member of society to take care of his or her health, and leave the rest to Providence.

The end comes prematurely to all who neglect the preservation of that inestimable blessing, Suffer Liver disease, dyspepsia, chronic constipation or any other ailment to take its course unchecked, and it will assuredly shorten life. It cannot be said that the means of protecting the system against the predisposing causes of disease are withheld. The constitutions and physical vigor of the least robust may be so strengthened and fortified by a course of Hostetter's stomach Bitters, as to render them all but invulnerable, not only to the attacks of epidemic disorders, but also to the ordinary complaints which prevail in all countries and at all seasons. If the immense importance of protective medicine were universally understood, this incomparable vegetable antidote, which is already the most popular tonic in the world, would everywhere be classed among the staples of life, and no family would dare to be without it. The system may arrive when this will be the case, for every year adds hundreds of thousands to the list of those who use it.—may12ml

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedy for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
Is composed of the purest juices (as they are medicinally termed, extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Berries, making a preparation highly nutritious, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Oregon making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a medicine free from alcoholic admixture, will use:

Hoofland's German Bitters.
Those who have no objections to the combination stated, will use
Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, dyspepsia, nervous debility, etc., is very apt to lose its functions deranged. The weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried or difficult breathing, or a feeling of heat, churning or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowing of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, etc., reddish streaks of heat, burning in the chest, constant imaginations of evil, and great depression of spirits.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, a remedy which they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectively cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, chronic Barbores, disease of the stomach, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, stomach, or intestines.

Debility,
Resulting from any cause whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by severe labor, hardships, over-exertion, or any other cause; Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the strength of the organs which are injured, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated, the eyes acquire a bloom in their cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes strong and healthy again.

PEASONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, and feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this medicine, the most valuable remedy, which will give new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their debilitated frames, and give them a bloom in their cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes strong and healthy again.

TESTIMONIALS:
Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa.
writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.
"I find Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good medicine, useful in disease of the digestive organs, and at great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous energy in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 25, 1868.
"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of indigestion for Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.
Pastor of the tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from disease arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, E. D. FENDALL.
