

E. B. HAWLEY, EDITOR.

MONTROSE, PENNSA.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 26, 1870.

More Evidence.

Henry L. Daves, Republican Congressman from Massachusetts, put in some stunning blows upon the reckless extravagance of Grant's administration.

He charged the administration with unprecedented extravagance, and said that Congress alone could save the Republic from the ruin and disgrace.

He said the administration talked of reducing the debt. It must first reduce the expenditures and estimates which had been sent to the common appropriation.

This speech created great excitement, and his allusion to "the other end of the avenue," gave rise to much laughter on the Democratic side.

The name and character of Mr. Daves are well known to the reading public, and such an exposition cannot be waked at.

Our readers will again notice, that the gate of would-be official authority has been closed against us in the matter of publishing Real Estate changes.

less we are furnished with such facts, we shall consider it a contemptible act of petty official authority without any foundation.

The Crawford County System. There was a formal adoption of the Crawford County System by the Republicans of this county last week.

The editor of the Republican seems to be grammatically mad, and vents his spleen on an article which appeared in this paper last week.

There seems to be a great deal of "unpleasantness" in Radical ranks, not only in the State Capital, but at the National Harbors.

President Grant has finally mustered up courage enough to write the word "veto." It is not any unconstitutional act that he thus forbids to become a law.

On Friday last John W. Geary I. retired from the gubernatorial office and Major General John W. Geary II. was installed into the office of Governor of Pennsylvania.

Judge Woodward is thus pictured by a female correspondent of the New York Tribune: "The calmest, strongest speaker among the Democrats, was Judge Woodward."

Gov. Hoffman's message, delivered to the legislature of 1869, is regarded as a model of excellence. His views about the State's payments are admirable.

The Legislature. Just now, when wheat hardly pays for raising, and the farmers of Chester and Lancaster counties are resolving, in meetings held for that purpose, to reduce the wages of agricultural labor one fourth.

To amend the charter of the United States Army and Steel Company. To incorporate the Woman's Branch of the Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Creating a department of instruction for the education of the youth and others of the Commonwealth. Providing for taking an enumeration of the taxable inhabitants of the State.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY. JANUARY 17th.—In the Senate various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

When the radical farmers of Chester county hold another meeting for the purpose of reducing the wages of agricultural labor, it is not probable that the members will call their attention to the doing of the party in power.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to the Military Academy, and to the abolition of the franking privilege, were presented.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, Mr. Anthony presented a communication from the Governor of Rhode Island presenting to Congress a marble statue of General Nathaniel Greene.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, Mr. Anthony presented a communication from the Governor of Rhode Island presenting to Congress a marble statue of General Nathaniel Greene.

Luxurious Extravagance to the Navy. Just now, when wheat hardly pays for raising, and the farmers of Chester and Lancaster counties are resolving, in meetings held for that purpose, to reduce the wages of agricultural labor one fourth.

During the war, when hundreds of vessels were arriving and departing from the New York station weekly, the commandant of the Navy Yard, needed no assistance in receiving reports, inspecting vessels, and attending to their departure.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

News Items. The Carbon Democrat says: The number of persons on the pay rolls of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company last month, was nearly four thousand.

The citizens of Huntington were terrified on Saturday last, at an attempt of Bolten and Bordenburg, managers of the Peightal farm to escape from jail.

The annual report of Dr. Wright, Superintendent of the Episcopal Hospital, exhibits a great degree of usefulness. The institution is deserving of increased popular support.

A jewelry store in Allegheny city was robbed on the 17th inst., in broad daylight, of six watches (four silver and two gold), worth $500.

A French woman sues a San Francisco for $10,000 damages in having hired her to come over here as governess, and declined to receive her when she arrived.

In Texas, a Miss Pitts, of Fort Bend county, last year cultivated, with her own hands, seven acres of cotton, making five bales worth $500.

A Parisian actress has been compelled to give up comedy for the season, her last costumes having been so expensive that she cannot buy any new ones.

Mrs. Scott Siddons has on exhibition in a New Orleans jewelry store, a bracelet presented to her by Queen Victoria, after a reading at Osborne palace.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

FRIDAY, JAN. 22.—In the Senate, various petitions and memorials relating to such a modification of the revenue laws as shall relieve disabled soldiers.

H. B. Swoope, has been appointed by United States Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The honor was conferred upon him on a merit award for his mastery and manly words spoken in a public speech at Bellefonte, where he boasted: "The day will come when democratic ladies will be glad to get a drop of negro sweat to perfume their pocket handkerchiefs with."

A happy groom, at "Glen White" coal mine, two miles west of Kittanning Point, on the line of the Pennsylvania railroad, was congratulated on his wedding evening by a ride on a rail. He was taken out of his bed, carried out of his house, set astride of a rail, and made a public exhibition of by being presented at every door in the neighborhood.

The Scranton Republican of the 18th inst., reports that an old man named Hugh Currier, in the employ of the Iron Company of that place, was robbed of sixteen hundred dollars, two hundred and twenty of which was in greenbacks and the balance in checks.

The ladies of Rev. Horace Cooke's congregation call him a "lovely man." Mrs. Dalton, of Maury county, Tennessee, recently gave birth to her twenty-second child.

A woman in New York had enquired her drunken husband to prevent his carrying off the furniture to the pawnbroker. A French woman sues a San Francisco for $10,000 damages in having hired her to come over here as governess, and declined to receive her when she arrived.

In Texas, a Miss Pitts, of Fort Bend county, last year cultivated, with her own hands, seven acres of cotton, making five bales worth $500.

A Parisian actress has been compelled to give up comedy for the season, her last costumes having been so expensive that she cannot buy any new ones.

Mrs. Scott Siddons has on exhibition in a New Orleans jewelry store, a bracelet presented to her by Queen Victoria, after a reading at Osborne palace.

Special Notices.

A SPLENDID CHANCE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY OFFER. DON'T DELAY. SEND AT ONCE. THE LEADING AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL OF THE COUNTRY.

THE AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL. A first class monthly, containing 22 large double column pages, devoted to Farming and Stock Breeding.

DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH. A new and effective method of curing these ailments.

Let Common Sense Decide. What is the result of a course of procedure in cases of nervous debility and general prostration?

THE ONLY RELIABLE CURE FOR DYSPYPSIA IN THE KNOWN WORLD.

ERRORS OF YOUTH. A gentleman who had suffered from errors of youth for many years.

THE ONLY RELIABLE CURE FOR DYSPYPSIA IN THE KNOWN WORLD.

A medical expert, holding honorable certificates of diploma, declares that his system of treatment for nervous debility and general prostration.

LETTERS FROM ANY PART OF THE COUNTRY, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to.