It was ceded in 1868 to Robert Wehrdan, an engineer trom Saxony, who, after serv-ing the United as Major during the war of the rebellion, engaged in explorations, the rebellion, engaged in explorations, for railroad companies in South America. He has induced a company of Germans numbering some sixty or seventy to mi-grate to this island, and they are quite, de-lighted with their prospects. They find it a fertile and lovely spot, stocked already with a herd of wild goats, and with a few wild donkeys and horses. They, have brought with them cattle. They, have brought with them cattle.
