An Old Subscriber.

Mr Nathan Aldrich, of Montrose Depot, called upon us one day last week and renewed his subscription, informing us that he had followed the DEMOCRAT with his support through all its vicissitudes since it was first started. He is now 86 years of age. His mind is clear and active, and he walks with quite a firm step. It will be seen by his marriage notice, which we publish this week, that he has taken a wife to share his fortunes, the lady being 70 years of age. It must be admitted that they were old enough to be aware of the responsibilities which they have assumed. We wish them much joy, and hope that several years of happiness are yet in store for them.

Sad Accident.

We regret to announce the death of young John Nolan, late of Friendsville, who was killed by a fall from a bridge at St. Paul, Minnesota, while engaged at work, on the 8th of February ult. He was a son of Michael Nolan, Esq., formerly of Friendsville, and was highly esteemed for his manly qualities by all who knew him.

Ear Ache.

There is scarcely any ache to which children are subject, so bad to bear and so difficult as earache. But there is a remedy never known to fail. Take a bit of cotton batting, put upon it a pinch of black pepper, gather it up and tie it, dip it in sweet oil, and insert it in the ear. Put a flannel handkerchief over the head to keep it warm. It will give immediate relief.

Oyez!

We are prepared to print auction bills in good style on short notice, and at reasonable rates.—The question is often asked us, who is the best advertiser? Of course those who mean business advertise in the DEMOCRAT, as follows: P. Reynolds, Montrose—A. Ely, Brooklyn—Chas. S. Gilbert, Great Bend—M. C. Sutton, Friendsville.

Why Don't Prices Fall.

People are pretty generally wondering how it is that with gold jumbling at an average of about one per cent. a day, nothing else is cheaper—if we may except certain classes of dry goods.—House rents, instead of coming down, are on the contrary to be made higher. Provisions and clothing remain about the same. One cannot buy a hat, nor a coat, nor a pair of boots, nor a loaf of bread, nor a pound of butter, any cheaper than when gold was 130. The workman does not find that his daily wages in paper will purchase any more than it did before, while the salaried clerk puzzles his brain to understand why, with his greenback worth six or eight cents more than it was a few weeks ago, his weekly stipend goes no further than it did months ago. We all wonder why prices don't come down.—Has gold ceased to be the standard of value in this country?

Is the Grain Injured!

Some of our cotemporaries are starting the report that the growing grain has been injured by the winter being so mild, or that it will be injured by the March winds. Speculators are always ready to use the public press to raise the price of articles they have to sell, and especially is this the case with grain speculators. The grain is not injured, and so long as we have such wet weather as has prevailed for the last two months, no danger need be apprehended. Hard freezing for several days does not hurt the grain if it is succeeded by wet weather. Freezing raises the growing grain out of the ground, so that the roots have scarcely any hold, but if this is succeeded by wet weather the roots become again embedded, and no injury is caused. If the month of March should be as wet as the two months of December and January, the crops will be all right.—Corning Journal.

Hydrophobia.

Rodney Saw-yer, a well known druggist of Philadelphia, writes to the Germantown Telegraph that he believes that the foot of the common pine stove in new milk, is a sure remedy for hydrophobia. Perhaps it would be better called a preventive. Take 1½ ounces of the root, burnish it or shred, and boil it in one pint of new milk until it is reduced to a half pint, when cold it is to be taken in one dose, after six hours fasting. Try it the dose for several mornings.

New England Factories.

A Miss Collins, of New England, has started upon a lecturing mission to secure the abolition of the system of operative slavery now in vogue in that section. She avers that the system of negro-servitude in the South had no terrors to be compared to those endured by New England factory operatives. The factory masters of New England are the worst task masters on earth, and their victims suffer fearfully. Miss Collins may aid the formidable New England labor movement to awaken the Yankees to a realization of the natural penalty for their crimes against humanity in their operative system of slavery.

Cribbing in Horses.

C. M. Wyvell, of Portville, N. Y., said that cribbing is not a habit, and that it can be cured with out resort to the celebrated neck-strap. "Let any one sufficiently interested take the worst old cribber he can find, examine his mouth and ascertain whether the pressure is made with the upper or under nippers, or both; provide himself with the necessary straps to lay him down, secure him in an easy position, take a small tooth saw and open carefully between the adjacent teeth will down to the gums, with a small sharp knife loosen the gums around the teeth both inside and out; and he has the poor fellow, who has suffered for years, cured of his habit."

An Artistic Love Letter.

We have been handed the following letter which was actually received by a friend with permission to publish it for the benefit of our juvenile readers, who may wish to take lessons in phonography and spelling.

The Asylum Fire.

The origin of the Binghamton Asylum fire is now stated to have been that it was set in the basement under the carpenter shop, as the engineer on duty the night of the fire, heard and saw some person in that vicinity just previous to the breaking out of the same, and the supposition is that the fire was the work of a colored man who acted as fireman, and was discharged from the institution the first of the month. The Board of Trustees offer a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the incendiary.

Another Railroad Enterprise.

An enterprise is on foot to obtain for Philadelphia a portion of the immense grain trade of the lakes, which now centres at Buffalo, and which has been heretofore monopolized by the transportation companies of the State of New York. The Legislature has chartered a railroad to extend from Jersey Shore (on the Philadelphia and Erie Railway) in a northwestern direction to Buffalo. Sixteen miles of the Buffalo road have been completed under an old charter.

This line will pass for about one hundred and fifty miles through the undeveloped mineral regions of Potter county. The completion of the new road will enable the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company to divert a large amount of Northwestern produce to its Philadelphia elevators and wharves.

—A Clergyman writing to a friend says: "My voyage to Europe is indefinitely postponed. I have discovered the 'fountain of health' on this side of the Atlantic. Three bottles of the Peruvian Syrup have rescued me from the fangs of the fiend Dyspepsia." Dyspeptics should drink from this fountain.

—Comparatively little ice is to be seen in the lake at Erie. This is most unusual at this time of year, the general rule being that during February the lake is thickly covered with ice for miles from the shore.

—John Harmer's barn in Mountjoy township, York county, was burned on the 8th, with his entire crop, farming implements and two horses. Mr. Harmer, who was absent, on hearing the ill news, lost his reason.

—A cattle drover named Mitten, was assaulted by highway robbers in Huntington county, a few days since, and escaped by the fleetness of his horse. Two shots were fired after him, one passing through his hat.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

The following bills were passed during the past week.

The House bill to incorporate the West Chester and Phœnixville Railroad company, in Chester county, passed finally.

House bill, a supplement to the act entitled a further supplement to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth, approved April 17th, 1869. Called up by Mr. Henszey, and finally passed.

In the house, the resolution of Mr. Keene, of Luzerne, appointing a committee to ascertain and report to the next Legislature whether any railroad company in the Anthracite coal region has made overcharge for freight was indefinitely postponed.

In the Senate a resolution was adopted citing Mr. Irwin to appear and answer for his refusal to testify in regard to the Treasury.

Bills were passed to punish the adulteration of milk, and exempt from license fee sellers of goods not exceeding $500 annually.

—Andrew Stewart, an octogenarian, of Uniontown, is engaged in building his one hundred and fifty third dwelling house. In addition to this number of dwellings, he has erected seven saw mills and four grist mills.

There can have been gathered from water in Allegheny, which the Pittsburgh papers describe as two inches in depth, as much as looks like frozen lard, and the ice of Lakes Erie and Michigan and Lake Ontario, and West Branch of the Susquehanna.

Two men have recently fell dead in the Pierce Cooke room, on the Pittsburgh Exchange, and the death of one [illegible] A third man who was with them escaped by standing close to the wall.

An exchange says: Sharpers are just now going about the country buying poultry, butter, eggs, etc., at any place asked, and paying for the same in counterfeit greenbacks. Our farmers should keep on the lookout for such men.

—The remains of Rev. Dr. Franklin Moore, who died recently in Sacramento, California, have been brought home and interred in the new cemetery at Beaver. Dr. Moore was a minister of the Philadelphia Conference M. E. Church.

—Information is wanted by John M. Moore, Cahoosing, Washington county, of Reed Register, Mary Isabel Moore, formerly living in the family of David Crumrine, Esq., of Washington, who has been missing since last December.

—Judge Hare, of Allegheny county, was attacked on Monday [illegible] which he was about to charge it, and badly cowed and thrown about to floor. The [illegible] passed almost through the neck. He will probably recover.

NORWAY OATS FOR SALE!

The result of my experiments the last season with the Norway Oats have been fully up to my expectations, and I am satisfied they are well adapted to our soil, and that every farmer who possibly can should get the seed. I bought last spring of the Ramsdell agents in New York, one bushel of 39 lbs. of the Norway Oats. I sowed them on one acre of good ground, and harvested from it 70 bushels of 30 lbs. per bushel, making an increase of 70 bushels from one.

I also sowed in the same lot on equally good ground, 3 bushels of 30 lbs. each of common oats on one acre, and harvested therefrom 55 bushels of 30 lbs. per bushel, an increase of 18 bushels from one. Therefore from this trial I am satisfied that the Norway Oats will produce twice as much as the common Oats. If any wish more confirmation, I would refer them to reports from all parts of the country, given in the Rural New Yorker of Jan. 8th, 1870.

PRICE $4 per BUSHEL of 32 lbs.

Call soon, as I have but few to sell.
