Probable Imposter. A young man answering to the name of Ster-ling has during the past few days called upon physicians at Great Bend, New Milford and Montrose, and representing himself to be laboring under physical infirmities, and to have recently lost all he had by fire, has obtained sums of money At Montrose on Saturday evening last, after receiving such aid, he became very much intoxicated, and his conduct was such as to induce the belief that he is a base imposter. All physicians and others upon whom he may call are cautioned to let him alone severely. C. C. HALSEY.
