

The Montrose Democrat.

W. B. HAWLEY, EDITOR.

MONTROSE, PENNSA.
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1870.

White men, not Indians. It seems that some of the horrible outrages committed on the Western frontier have been the work of white men, who have disguised themselves as Indians, and thus sought to turn the indignation consequent thereon, upon the Red Man. In reference to this, the New York World has the following:

It has been frequently asserted and often denied that some of those Indians who harass the border were really white men plumed and painted; but we now know General Sherman's official declaration that "in a recent case between Fort Hayes and Camp Supply, the Indians, on being captured, turned out to be white men in disguise." The readers will also remember that in the case of the late horrible outrage at Ladore, Kansas, it was stated in the local dispatch that it was thought the ruffians who so brutally maltreated two girls were either Texans or Indians; whereas, when the villains were brought to the gallows they were found to be white men, one and all from the Eastern States. These cases, coming so close together and in a time of a threatened war upon the Indians for alleged outrages, would seem to imply that while the white men are no doubt bad enough—rascals, we believe, in most cases, by wrongs done to them in the first instance—they should not be held responsible for all the outrages on the border. A little sash and water might reveal many an Apache rascal or murderer to be the work of white men.

Condensed Congress.

SENATE.—Drake quacked according to his custom—this time about the propriety of hanging people in the Southern States. There were several people in Missouri who were particularly desired to be executed. He referred to the fiasco in human shape whose hands were dripping in loyal gore, and whom the unrepentant rebels of his State actually desired to send to the Senate, in the place of himself. He lacked words to express his sense of so gross an outrage. He thought that he could be comparatively happy if forty thousand men were hanged or otherwise "disabled" from voting against him. This would make his re-election a pretty sure thing.

Mr. Ferry said he really thought this thing had gone far enough. People were coming to understand that the general run, he did not refer to Bull run, of the Northern army was just about as good, and no better, than the general run, he did not refer to Gettysburg, of the Southern army. As for Drake, he was a canard, and his statement was another. He did not approve of the bloody Draconian code.

Mr. Morton said Ferry was very easily crossed. As for him he considered that Ferry was a copperhead. Mr. Revels was in favor of removing disabilities as soon as it could be done with safety. They all know what he meant by safety. As soon as not only his calling which was formerly clerical, although now legislative, and election were made sure, and no better, than the general run, he did not refer to Gettysburg, of the Southern army. As for Drake, he was a canard, and his statement was another. He did not approve of the bloody Draconian code.

Mr. Sawyer thought his opinion as good as Revels', if he was white. He considered that he was safe in South Carolina, and he disapproved of the plot of removal which went for the removal of the disabilities.

House.—Mr. Dawes did a neat thing. He represented that the Naval Appropriation bill contained a number of most nutritious jobs (as indeed it turned out that it did). Upon this hint Schenck agreed to let the tariff "pass" for the present, though he reserved the right to order it to pass at any time. Thereupon the astute Dawes moved to postpone it indefinitely, to the huge disgust of Mr. Schenck, who said he ought to be ashamed of himself. Here was the oyster pining for protection, the peanut absolutely shriveling on its stalk under the neglect of Congress, and the American hook and eye weeping for being overrun by the imported article. He refused to consider, might lie heavy on their souls.

Kelly was to fall of pig-iron for utterance. "Punchello." "A Bill of the Play. Sir?" Mr. Boutwell and his associates say they want the following nice little sums for the next fiscal year: Pensions and Indians $60,000,000 War Department 30,000,000 Navy Department 18,000,000 Interest on the public debt 127,000,000 Total $291,000,000 The Senate Finance Committee wants $188,000,000 gold, in foreign imports, and $150,000,000 internal taxes—or, according to some of their number, only $110,441,570. This is a nice little sum to have to pay for advertising, and they want, and get all they want, the people may as well despair of reform short of a total change of Administration. The above items of estimate are shameful, extravagant and wicked.—N. Y. Express.

A Bold Heist on the Helm. A paragraph has been going the rounds of the press quite recently, stating that Hembold the celebrated New York Druggist, pays the Tribune of that city over $10,000 per year for advertising. Hembold's business must be immense to enable him to pay such a sum of money to one paper out of some fifteen or sixteen hundred in which he advertises. By his judicious, but at the same time extensive advertising, Hembold has made his "Buchu" and other proprietary compounds standard remedies in almost every household in the land; while the medical faculty, whose approbation is never gained for a nostrum, not only quote Hembold's preparations, but quite generally use them in their private practice.

If some thousands of business men, who have been content to plod along in the old fogy footsteps of their ancestors, who looked upon newspaper advertising as money thrown away, had but possessed Hembold's sagacity and courage, they might, perhaps, figure quite as largely in the income tax returns.

The corner stone of the monument to the revolutionary hero, Baron Steuben, in the town of Steuben, N. Y., was laid on Thursday last with imposing ceremonies. A large delegation of New York and Pennsylvania, including one of their renowned singing clubs, were present. Hon. Henry Seymour delivered the oration, and speeches were made by General Franz Sigel and others.

Two Children Killed by a Bat. A few days since, a Mrs. Smith, residing in Van Buren street, East Brooklyn, was attracted by the screams of her child, which she had left asleep in one of the upper rooms of the house. As she entered the room a large rat sprang from the cradle and made its escape, and Mrs. Smith discovered that the child's leg was considerably mangled. A physician was called in but the child sickened and died in a few days. Mrs. Smith had taken a poor woman to live with her, who had a child about the same age or a little older than the one she lost. This woman left her child asleep for a short time in the room she occupied, and was alarmed the other morning by hearing its scream. On hastening to it she found that the rat, which was just making its escape, had bitten the child severely in the neck, severing some of the cords. This child, like the other, immediately took sick and died.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

The State election in Oregon took place on Monday. No returns yet. General Fallow is a candidate for Judge in Kentucky. Alexander H. Stephens has finished his history of the war. Beasly Fitter wants to be next governor of Mass. Spoons are going up. Seward is sick—effect; Auburn gave a Dem. majority.

The Illinois Constitutional Convention met the State $225,000. Ex-President Johnson declares he will run for Congress anyhow. Cozzens, of the West Point hotel, refused to harbor the nigger cadet during the present examination. Something must be done with Cozzens! Seven men are after the Senatorial seat of Andrew H. Cragin, of N. H.

A colored man (chocolate) is a candidate for Sheriff of Madison Co., Ky. There are nineteen candidates in the field for governor of Pennsylvania. The Rochester Chronicle charges a break in the Erie canal to the Democratic party! "Ring" broke. The true Secretary of the Navy is now said to be Allen Pinkerton, the colored detective.

Rev. Mr. Smyth wants to go to Congress on a pig-and-milk platform. Yates, of Illinois, backs him. General Pratt, the "Great American Traveller," says that American politics is hell's grist-mill to grind up devils in.

Fred Douglas says that if a colored man wants a vote Democratic, he must be allowed to do so. Generous Fred! General Pratt, the "Great American Traveller," says that American politics is hell's grist-mill to grind up devils in.

Stromer Cain, colored, of South Carolina, says that thieves and robbers are in the straitening the Republican party in that State. The negroes can't get over the fifteenth amendment. Whenever three of them meet together they kick up their heels for joy.

A London journal says that Grant pleased England by his action during the recent Fenian raid by a good deal more than he did the United States. In Rhode Island a negro can vote whether he owns property or not, but a naturalized citizen cannot vote unless he owns real estate worth $150. What a free country!

An extensive fire is raging in the woods of the Metapedia district of New Brunswick, and miles of telegraph poles have been burned. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says that "an officer of the House of Representatives" created a sensation by appearing at the National Theatre on Tuesday night in company with "two dashing and elegantly dressed colored ladies." The world moves.

The fruit and grain crops in Central Illinois are reported to be nearly a month ahead of last year, and promise splendidly. The Deputy U. S. Marshals in Philadelphia, three of whom are neg.—wag bag pardon—American citizens of African descent. No appointment have been made in Berks, but several intelligent colored citizens, who are not physically qualified for the position of organ-grinder on the street corners, are anxiously awaiting their recommendations from the Ring.

It is reported that the French Prince Imperial is soon to be affianced. Out of a dozen candidates for the rather pleasant position of Empress of the French, the Archduchess Gisela of Austria, daughter of the Emperor Francis Joseph, is the one most likely to be selected. She is about the same age as the young Frenchman, and is said to be pretty.

Harry Leslie, the rope walker, who was somewhat notorious in the past, once crossed Niagara river on Blondin's back, has graffied the morbid longing of sightseers at last. While performing on the rope at the Park in Washington City on Tuesday, he fell to the ground, a distance of thirty feet, breaking an arm, and sustaining internal injuries of which it is thought he will die.

Secretary Boutwell's statement of the national debt makes the decrease during the past month $4,301,362. The total amount of the debt, less the amount in the Treasury, is $2,405,562,371. At a meeting this week of the Boston Sunday School Society, the Rev. Mr. Tafton complained that "children are no longer brought up—they are trampled up; it is done by machinery. Once the mother used to teach the children around the hearthstone. Now they are sent to Sunday School, and sing, 'I want to be an angel, and with the angels' stand, a crown upon my forehead, and Harp's in my hand.' 'I am afraid,' said the Rev. Mr. Tafton, dolefully, 'that family government is a lost art!'

The public debt statement just issued, shows a reduction, during the past month, of $4,301,362. As the receipts from internal revenue and customs average $20,000,000 a month, besides the large sums received in payment for arms and stores sold to the Fenians—to be taken back by force, and re-sold—to foreign governments, we fail to see anything remarkable in a reduction of only $15,000,000.

A white woman, the wife of a deceased soldier, has been turned out of the Fourth Auditor's Office of the U. S. Treasury, to make room for Kate V. Jennings, a milahto, whose father is reported to have great influence with the negro voters of Washington City. This is the first appointment of African females among the lady clerks in the Treasury Department. It is such a concession to the negro vote as the Radicals will be compelled to make if they expect to hold it. That they are ready to make the sacrifices demanded of them their conduct shows.

PERVIAX SYRUP.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way in popular favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the proteolite of Iron which in this preparation remains unchanged, and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

Communications.

New Milford, June 31, 1870. FRIEND HAWLEY—Dear Sir—My attention has been called to a lengthy communication signed 'M. Vandinker,' containing nearly two columns of your issue of Junist, in relation to the case known as the Good Templars' lawyer. I have read it with interest, and am glad to see that you are so fully informed on the subject. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

He goes on to say, "If he (Walworth) had only been the 'sensible' man, and not the 'stupid' one, all might have been well. It is perhaps natural enough that one garrulous donkey should regard the talking propensities of another, as a reflection upon his own. I have no inclination to engage in a newspaper controversy with Vandinker about the responsibility of the Lodges in New Milford, or either of the other characters mentioned in your issue. I have no personal knowledge, and no personal interest in the matter. I have no objection to your publishing it, and I am sure it will be read with interest by your readers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. W. WALKER & SONS, No. 11 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia.

ESTATE NOTICES.

ESTATE OF JOHN ANEY, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, to distribute the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Auditor. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM QUISE, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. JAMES REDDING, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF LEWIS BRUSH, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. C. C. HILLS, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF CHARLES REYNOLDS, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. HENRY HARRIS, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF SARAH KNOWLTON, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CHAS. AVERY, Esq., Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

NOTICE. In the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, Pa., the estate of Wm. Williams, deceased, is being administered by the undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

THEATRE'S SALE OF UNSEATED LANDS IN SUSEQUHANNA CO. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF JOHN ANEY, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, to distribute the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Auditor. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM QUISE, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. JAMES REDDING, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF LEWIS BRUSH, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. C. C. HILLS, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF CHARLES REYNOLDS, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. HENRY HARRIS, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF SARAH KNOWLTON, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CHAS. AVERY, Esq., Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

NOTICE. In the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, Pa., the estate of Wm. Williams, deceased, is being administered by the undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

THEATRE'S SALE OF UNSEATED LANDS IN SUSEQUHANNA CO. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF JOHN ANEY, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, to distribute the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Auditor. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM QUISE, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. JAMES REDDING, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF LEWIS BRUSH, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. C. C. HILLS, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF CHARLES REYNOLDS, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. HENRY HARRIS, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF SARAH KNOWLTON, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CHAS. AVERY, Esq., Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

NOTICE. In the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, Pa., the estate of Wm. Williams, deceased, is being administered by the undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

THEATRE'S SALE OF UNSEATED LANDS IN SUSEQUHANNA CO. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. CLERK OF THE COURT, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE NOTICES.

ESTATE OF JOHN ANEY, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the Orphans Court of Luzerne County, to distribute the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. W. D. LUKK, Auditor. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 8, 1870.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM QUISE, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. JAMES REDDING, Adm'r. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF LEWIS BRUSH, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. C. C. HILLS, Administrator. Luzerne Co., Pa., June 1, 1870.

ESTATE OF CHARLES REYNOLDS, late of Luzerne County, deceased. The undersigned, administrator of the estate of the above named deceased, has been created by the court, and is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the above named deceased, to present their claims against the same, to present them fully substantiated for settlement. HENRY HARRIS, Ad