_____ Our Next Legislature.

While our minds are drawn to the importance of securing a proper representative in Congress, we must be careful and not allow our vigilance to slumber in matters of a more local interest, which may perhaps be considered of minor importance, yet which we believe are not second but equal to it in their vitality to the futhre prosperity of our state and nation. Dan of these is the choice of Representatives in our next Legislature. The mur-Ky pool of Radical corruption at our State which are in power, in their desperate er time. What is the situation at the present Linie! It is this : Many of the leaders and leading journals of the dominant party, headed by the State executive, denonnce those who have controlled legislation, and charge them with the most criminal transactions, in using their power to rally to any theory or any measure, and if filch from the tax-burdened laboring men of this Commonwealth, their money and burden would be immediately lifted from of this Commonwealth their money and their rights, for the base purpose of perpetuating their rule. Whether these admonions are presented by those who have been thwarted in their own schemes to at the Cupitol, these views, to which we wictimize the people, and hence a jealousy has arisen in consequence which caused them to turn "State's evidence," of the opinion that Congress should adand expose their guilty companions, or journ, 'instanter.' whether it is an honest repentence on their part and a determination to reform, date, in its Washington notes, has the folit matters not, so long as past facts and lowing : sad experience prove the validity of their statements, and demand positive and uncompromising revolution.

The expediency of employing a Sunday-School missionary to labor in this county was fully discussed by the Association; as there ap-peared to be such a diversity of opinion on the subject ho final action was taken, but the mat-ter was had over until the next annual meeting. LITTLE CORPORAL MAGAZINE.—The July number of this beautiful juvenile comes to us greatly enlarged and im-foot of Warren st, already partly filled from a On motion of J. B. Gregg, it was Resolved, That the District Corresponding Becretaries from each township and borough be requested to make reports of the number and situation of the schools in their respective town-slups, to the next Association.

On motion, it was resolved to hold a Sabbath school Convention in the Presbyterian Church at Montrose, next fall, the time to he fixed by e President and corresponding secretaries of Rested, That the next annual meeting of the Association be held at Susqu'elanna Depot.

Resolved. That the thanks of the Association be tendered to the citizens of Harford, for their ospitality. From the report of the Correspo

From the report of the Corresponding Secre-tary, it appears that 80 schools are reported: to-the Association, in which are engaged over seven-bundred teachers, and about 4400 scholars, with an average attendance of about 8,600, and near-hy 20,000 volumes in their libraries. There are probably 25 schools that did not report.

probably 25 schools that did not report. It will be seen by the above statistics that there is a great work still to be done in this county. Probably not more than one-half of the children attend Sabbath Schools. This schoold not be so. Let us cheerfully engage in the work of organizing new schools, and bring-ing in those among us who do not already at-tend. "Gather them in , matter the children in," G. B. ELDMED, Rec. Sec. y.
