What's the Use?

What's the use of minding what "they say?" What's the use of lying awake at nights with the unkind remark of some false friend running through your brain like forked lightning? What's the use of getting into a worry and fret over gossip that has been afloat to your disadvantage by some meddlesome busy body? Those things can't possibly injure you, unless indeed, you take notice of them, and in combatting them give them character and standing. If what is said is true set yourself right at once; if it is false, let it go for what it will bring until it dies of inherent weakness.

Out-Field Burned.

The party from this village who attended the funeral of H. C. Stewart on Sunday last, report it excessively dry in that section. When returning, they saw near Dundaff a large field of standing oats on fire, which burned like dry straw; and a meadow stubble adjoining had been literally burned over.

Musical.

L. B. Powell, 116 Penn avenue, Scranton, has the general agency for the Chickering Pianos and Mason and Hamlin Organs in Northern Pennsylvania and Southern New York. These celebrated instruments are the only Pianos and Organs manufactured that are selling at low rates strictly on the "One Price System." Send to Mr. Powell for the new circulars and price lists.—[July 27—4

Debts.

The ability of every one to pay depends upon his ability to collect debts due him. The individuals of a community are linked together by a chain of debts and credits, and in times of depression the failure of one person to discharge a single libility, often embarrasses a line of a dozen debtors and creditors. Hence the payment of small debts in times like these becomes a public as well as private duty. The same money which pays a debt in the morning, may pay a dozen before night, and twelve men are thus relieved from anxiety and pressure by the action of one.

Beware of Him!

A sneak of a man, named Hay, is traveling about the country, obtaining money of the various temperance organizations, by representing himself to be a temperance man and a member of certain temperance societies, such as Sons of Temperance, Good Templars, Temple of Honor, etc. He is a fraud of the first water, and we would warn all temperance men and Orders to beware of this rascal. He is small in stature, and quite heavily built, and has been expelled from all the Orders he was ever associated with.—Belvidere Apollo.

Borough Items.

—The weather is growing dryer and no cooler very fast.

—We had a slight dash of rain on Sunday evening last.

—The improvements on the Court House will be completed before August court.

—The next social will convene at the Tarbell House on Friday evening next.

—Another tailoring establishment will be opened soon in the Lathrop Block, in charge of T. D. Taylor, late of Binghamton.

—Mrs. William Allen, a late resident of Scranton, was presented with a silver pitcher, silver goblets, etc., at the Festival held in the Baptist Church on Friday evening last, in honor of her services previously rendered as organist in that Church. The net receipts at the Festival were nearly one hundred dollars.

—There were five persons lodged in jail on Saturday and Sunday evenings last, for various offences. Whiskey and cider being the foundation of it all. Our Justice's offices presented the appearance of miniature "Tombs" on Monday morning last, some were fined and others remanded to jail for lack of bail. A little fearless execution of our borough ordinances may be beneficial.

—A number of our citizens attended at the funeral obsequies of Mr. M. C. Stewart, on Sunday last. There was a very large concourse of people in attendance from this and adjoining counties, of the Masonic fraternity, and others. He was buried with due Masonic honors.

—John S. Tarbell, proprietor of the Tarbell House, with some good help accomplished within the last two weeks in the hay field on his farm near the borough, what we feel warranted in saying was never equalled in this county. They cut and secured in eleven and one-fourth days 275 tons of hay without one drop of rain falling upon it. On Friday of last week they drew in 62 loads.

—Mr. Charles Birchard gave us the measurment of the combined growth of a bean vine in his garden for three successive days, which was eighteen and one-half inches.

—The Montrose Republican of this week says "there are six colored preachers in Montrose." We would add that one of these divine colored "lights" of the Gospel was attending a Church conference not many years ago, nor many miles away, when he suddenly arose at one of its sessions in an excited manner and made the following startling announcement. "Bredderen, I'se got to go home dis minit. You must 'scuse me dere is business of de greatest 'portance dat must hab my attention." He was asked what it was that called him away so suddenly, to which he said. "Wall bredderen dere is a 'crease in de family." On being asked what that meant he said. "Why de ole mare has got a colt." We think that in view of the above circumstances the Republican need not stop with "six" but might "crease" the preachers in the Radical family to an indefinite number.

—We saw a rattlesnake on Wednesday morning last lying near the Court House which measured four feet two inches in length, and nine inches in circumference having nine rattles. Do not be frightened, it was not alive, but was brought from between Great Bend and Susquehanna Depot by a party of our townsmen where they captured it. Some malicious fellow started the slanderous report that they did not kill it but bought the body of some one on the way. We can positively affirm that they had a snake, and we believe them to be men of truth and veracity as to "snakes" let their reputation in other matters be as it may.

Pitiable People.

If anybody in this world is to be pitied, it is he who has nothing to do and spends his time in trying to keep cool; such people are the most miserable of any. Men who have work, and whose hearts are in their work, don't suffer anything to compare with those lazy loungers who have nothing under the burning heavens to do, save to watch the thermometer, seek cool places, and dwell, mentally or orally, on the tribulations of these torrid terms.

How to Make a Town.

Encourage every one, especially new men, to come in and settle among you, particularly those who are young and active, whether they have capital or not. Their labor alone is worth money. Those who have capital will buy lots, build houses, or tear out and remodel old ones. Go to work and stimulate every legitimate enterprise by giving it all the friendly encouragement you can, or by uniting your industry, influence and capital in the common cause. Cultivate a public spirit, and talk less than you work. Help your neighbor, if he is in danger of breaking down, prop him up in some way, either by kind words, good counsel, or a lift from your pocket.

If he gets fairly down before you know his situation, set him on his feet—his fortune is to be pitied, not blamed—and his talents are worth money to the community. Besides, it may be your turn to need a corresponding sympathy. Encourage improvements for the good of the town, speak well, talk encouragingly of the town you live in, of its prospects, of your neighbors, and in fact of everything likely to advance the general good. It is such things that make a town grow.

FLYS CAUGHT—Montrose, 2; Stars, 5.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of Clifford Lodge, No 459, A. Y. M., held on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1870, A. L. 5870. The following was unanimously considered as the sense of this Lodge:

Our brother Mahlon C. Stewart, a member of this Lodge, having been removed from among us to a higher existence, we bow submissively, as bow we must, to this agonizing dispensation, but while so doing, we deem it meet to make a brief record of his life, that, though he be absent, his memory and virtues may be perpetual among us.

He was born at Clifford, Susquehanna county, Pa., where he has resided since. He has for many years past held the office of Justice of the Peace, having been twice re-elected. For one term of three years he was Commissioner of the county, filling both of these places with marked ability, and to the satisfaction of all.

The counsellor of a large surrounding community, a faithful and steadfast friend, an honest man, he justly secured universal love, confidence and esteem. His death has cast a gloom over our community. The station which he occupied in society, we feel must ever remain vacant. We extend our sincere sympathy and condolence to his bereaved family, and commend them to him, who "tempereth the wind to the shorn lamb."

Resolved, That this Lodge attend the funeral in a body, and that the ceremonies be conducted in accordance with the ancient usages of our Order, and his request while living.

Resolved, That the Lodge be draped in mourning and the brethren wear the usual badge for thirty days.

Resolved, That these proceeding be entered upon the record and preserved in the archieves of the Lodge, and copies be furnished the several newspapers of this and the adjoining counties for publication, and a copy thereof, be presented to the family of our deceased brother.

Harford Fair.

The 18th annual Fair of the Harford Agricultural Society will be held on the grounds in Harford on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 5th and 6th. The Premium List will be published hereafter. By order of Executive Committee.

Forest Lake Items.

July 16th, a grand entertainment was given at the house of Mr. Johnson in Stone Street, Forest Lake township. They began to make their appearance about half past eight, and before 9 o'clock their spacious home was crowded.

The guests represented every form of humanity. Old women with wrinkled faces, drawn out of shape with age, tottering along with canes; the Indian squaw, with beads and trinkets, and dresses in which the various hues of the rainbow were blended; then the Highland maids, with their plaid petticoats came tripping along, to mingle with the motley crowd; next comes Victoria, with her flowing robes, bearing her crown most majestically; faces of every form and shape; Death with his ghastly form soon came stealing noiselessly among them; if a spirit had risen from the grave the form would not have been more natural.

Music and song
Did speed the hours along.

Young and old shared heartily in the amusement. The company began taking their leave about 12 o'clock, all well pleased with the few hours of merriment they enjoyed.

A picnic was held about a mile from Friendsville borough, on the 4th of July. They assembled on the grounds early in the morning, and began with true patriotism to celebrate the day of their National Independence. The day was most favorable. All kinds of refreshments graced the table. After dinner, good music was furnished for those who wished to "trip the light fantastic toe."

Everything passed off pleasantly. All went home satisfied that they had a good time. E.J.

Luzerne County.

Items from the Democrat, July 21st.

—Our townsman, R. H. McKune, Esq., will present his name to the Convention, as a candidate for Congress. Mr. McKune is a young man, but he possesses ability that will adorn this position, and we hope he may be the lucky man. Luzerne would have no reason to blush for the acts of her Representatives.

—The fact that the Councils appointed our young townsman, Fred. W. Gunster, Esq., in the place of E. N. Willard, Esq., resigned, gives more general satisfaction.

—About three o'clock on Sunday morning, July 9th, Alva Van Fleet, Esq., breathed his last, at his residence, near Benton Center, aged 62 years.

—Andrew Hawley, a laborer in No. 2 shaft of the Pennsylvania Co.'s Works, near Dunmore, on Saturday, was badly injured by a shot.

—About eleven o'clock Friday night, a bright light was seen in the direction of Providence, and the alarm of fire was generally sounded.

This morning, we are informed the fire was at Dickson, and was occasioned by the burning of a large barn, owned by Mr. John Kelly, of that place.

The building was filled with hay, straw, and other combustible material, and it burned rapidly and brilliantly, lighting up high objects in this city.

The entire contents of the building, consisting of three valuable horses, wagons, sleighs, harness, &c., were all burned.

—Mr. Kelly had no insurance upon the building or contents, and the loss falls heavily upon an honest, industrious citizen, and in common with all who know him, we sympathize with him in his loss.

—Thomas Brown, working in the quarry near this city, had one of his hands badly crushed by a big piece of rock. Dr. Up De Graff amputated several of his fingers.

—Michael Regan, Esq., one of the rising young lawyers and politicians of the county, will submit his claims to the Convention, as a candidate for District Attorney. Mr. R. is a gentleman of excellent ability, strict business habits, and a Democrat who always stands by the ticket.

—Two matches have been made between the owners of horses in this city, that will attract a good deal of attention in the sporting circles. Mr. U. G. Schoonmaker, has matched his horse, "Ben," for a purse of $200, against Geo. W. Rands "Harry Rand" and "Starlight." One race will take place on Saturday next, and the other on the Saturday following.

Binghamton Items.

—The admission to the races of the Binghamton Driving Park Association next week, will be fifty cents each day.

—The corner stone of the new Baptist Church was laid last Tuesday afternoon. A large concourse of people were assembled.

—An alarm of fire about 9 o'clock, Wednesday evening, was occasioned by a lamp accidentally tipping over on a bed in the house of Elmore Andrus, Esq., near the upper end of Chenango street. The fire was quickly extinguished.

—A small house in the fifth ward, belonging to John Galloway, and occupied by a Mr. Wilbur, was burned on last Thursday morning. It was insured for $500, which will fully cover the loss. Mr. Wilbur and family were away from home.

—A paper is being circulated among the property holders on Washington street, between Court and Hawley streets, petitioning the Common Council to have said street paved. We learn that the project is meeting with good success.

—An interesting suit took place yesterday afternoon before S. W. Rogers, Esq., Justice of Peace. John VanImburg and Lucy McElroy, of Port Crane, had been arrested for selling liquor without a license. Eleven witnesses were called in behalf of the people, and none for the defence. No evidence was elicited against them and they were discharged.

—A suit was yesterday commenced by Hon. Ausburn Birdsall against Wm. R. Osborn, Esq., late Treasurer of the Inebriate Asylum, to get possession of the funds which he is holding in his possession, by order of the Land Commissioners. As the State defends, on the part of Mr. Osborn, who is in the right, too, it will go bad for the "Asylum Ring."

—The census having been completed in all but two wards, from an estimate founded upon the number of voters in those Wards the population of our city is 13,100.—Bing. Leader.

The Odd Fellows.

The 19th and 20th insts. were gala days with the Odd Fellows of Montrose and vicinity, on account of a visit from the Grand Master and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

A carriage in waiting for them at Montrose Depot on their arrival on Tuesday forenoon soon brought them from the hot, dusty thoroughfare of travel, to our shady, quiet village, the charming beauty of which elicited such expressions of admiration as often greet our ears from the dwellers in the cities who visit us in midsummer.

In the afternoon very many brethren of the Order availed themselves of the opportunity of paying their respects to the Grand Lodge officers, who in the evening attended the regular meeting of Montrose Lodge for the purpose of making a formal and friendly visit.

The hall presented an unusually fine appearance, the wood work having just been handsomely grained, while many long needed repairs of room and furniture had been completed, and an elegant but substantial carpet covered the floor.

With these internal improvements, an additional chandelier, and abundant decorations of flowers and evergreens, displaying the taste and skill of the ladies, combined to render the room more attractive and pleasant than ever before. Promptly at the hour of opening a large number of the Lodge and delegations from several other Lodges were present. Soon the Grand Lodge officers were announced and received with appropriate honors.

The chairs having been surrendered to them, Grand Master J. B. Springer announced the object of their visit, and after brief remarks called upon Grand Secretary J. B. Nicholson, (who is also Past Grand Sire, the highest official position in the Order) to give instructions in the unwritten work of the Order, and explain the hidden mysteries and deep significance thereof.—This was done by him in a most masterly manner, he being thoroughly familiar with the entire subject, and having had a large experience in exemplifying it. His eloquent address was listened to with intense interest by the brethren within the hall, and possibly by some outside, for the windows were open, and the earnest tones of the speaker could be heard at considerable distance.

On the following morning the Grand Lodge officers were escorted in carriages around the town and shown all points of interest. In the afternoon a special meeting of St. John Encampment was held, which was similar in character to that of the previous evening.

The grand event of all, however, was the meeting of the Mary Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 7, in the evening, at which were present most of the brethren of the Order, accompanied as far as practicable by their wives. Additional floral and other decorations, with the presence in full force of the Daughters of Rebekah, rendered the scene within the hall one of beauty hitherto unequalled in our midst.

The Grand Master opened the exercises of the occasion, after which this beautiful degree (of which Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Vice President of the United States is the author) was by Past Grand Sire Nicholson in a most impressive manner conferred upon several candidates. At the conclusion of these ceremonies, the Past Grand Sire addressed the audience on the subject of Odd Fellowship in general, and the degree of Rebekah in particular. Those who have ever heard him, uniformly speak in the highest terms of his earnest eloquence; and those who have not, in the estimation of this writer have missed a great treat.

The Lodge being duly closed, all present remained a while longer for the transaction of other business, which, if of less importance, was engaged in with no less zest and interest.

The Refreshment Degree was then and there conferred upon all present. The ceremonies of this degree vary somewhat upon different occasions, and it is making no improper divulgence to the uninitiated, that each candidate was required as best he or she might, to thaw out a generous dish of Bro. Fletcher's excellent ice cream, and eat their fill of cakes from Mr. Morse's first class bakery. This was all accomplished in the most deliberate and sociable manner, and to the apparent gratification and satisfaction of all concerned.

At the conclusion of these ceremonies the Past Grand Sire declared that he had forgotten to impart any instructions in regard to this degree, but after a careful observation of the manner in which the ceremonies were conducted, he was satisfied none were needed.

Having thus enjoyed a pleasant, happy, long to be remembered evening, the assembly between 10 and 11 o'clock dispersed, and each was soon seeking the embrace of the sleepy god.

On Thursday morning the Grand Lodge officers, under an escort of brethren of Starucca Lodge, proceeded to Susquehanna.

This is the first visit of Grand Lodge officers to Montrose Lodge, now in the twenty-fifth year of its existence, since it was organized.

Sublime and Beautiful.

Never during our sojourn on this mundane sphere have we witnessed so grand and beautiful a spectacle as the brilliant sunset scene on Sunday evening last. A remarkably bright rainbow spanned the eastern sky and the whole Heavens was resplendent with rainbow tints in all their variegated forms, interspersed with transparent clouds tinged with every conceivable shade of color, presenting such a scene of grandeur and sublimity as to make all human efforts, sink into the merest insignificance, by comparison with the perfect skill of the Omnipotent Artist of nature.

Poison Prescription.

In cases of persons being poisoned by what is commonly called the poison ivy, but technically termed the Poison Oak, Dr. A. Livezy of Lumberville, strongly recommends a saturated tincture of lobella, (lobelia inflata) as a local application in this affection. He applies it by means of linen or muslin cloths, and believes that it arrests inflamation.

TURNER'S TIC DOULOUREUX OR Universal Neuralgia PILL

A SAFE, CERTAIN AND Speedy Cure FOR Neuralgia AND ALL NERVOUS DISEASES. Its Effects are Magical.

It is an unfailing remedy in all cases of Neuralgia Facealle, often effecting a perfect cure in less than twenty-four hours, from the use of no more than two or three pills.

No other form of Neuralgia or Nervous Disease has failed to yield to this wonderful remedial agent.

Even in the severest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general nervous derangements,—of many years standing—affecting the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at the utmost, always affords the most astonishing relief, and very rarely fails to produce a complete and permanent cure.

It contains no drugs or other materials in the slightest degree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and can always be used with perfect safety.

It has long been in constant use by many of our most eminent physicians, who gives it their unanimous and unqualified approval. The following among many of our best citizens testify to its wonderful efficacy:

"having used Dr. Turner's Tic Douloureux or Universal Neuralgia Pill personally—and in numerous neuralgia—I have found it, without an exception, to accomplish all, the proprietors have claimed.

J. R. DILLINGHM, Dentist.
15 Winter Street, Boston, Feb, 18th, 1867."

Mr. J. M. H. Stout, for many years an apothecary in this city, and for three years during the war, in the Hospital Department under the U. S. Government, thus speaks of it:

"I have known Dr Turner's Tic Douloureux or Universal Neuralgia Pill for twenty years. I have sold it and used it personally, and I have never known of a case where it did not give relief. Customers have told me they would not be without it if each pill cost 10 dollars I think it the most reliable and valuable remedy for neuralgia and nervous diseases in the world."

Messrs Turner & Co.:

For a long time a member of my family has suffered severely with Neuralgia. The pain was almost unendurable. We tried various medicines without success. A few months since, we began the use of your Pill. It has proved perfectly successful, and no traces of the disease remain. I can gladly recommend your remedy to all sufferers from Neuralgia.

Respectfully yours, F. W. PELTON.

THE O'REILLY VEGETABLE CATHARTIC PILLS

Dr. Lommines Vegetable Catholicon Pills, A Positive Cure for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Piles, Headache, Dizziness, Nervousness, Jaundice, Dysentery, Colic, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Ulcers, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Irregularities, Fever and Ague, Worms, Impurities of the Blood, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Bowels.

Mild, Certain, Safe and Efficient.

It at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing at any time or any circumstances the slightest injury to any of them.

The most complete and uniform success has for many years attended its use in France and in some portions of the United States; and it is now offered to the general public with the most absolute conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it.

It is harmless in the extreme at all times and under all circumstances; and is unequaled by any remedy yet known to the world where a purgative is indicated.

It produces little or no pain in its operation leaves the organs entirely free from irritation, and never in the slightest degree overtaxes or excites the nervous system.

In bilious diseases, Indigestion and Dyspepsia it is invaluable.

It is the grand purifier of the blood, and hence cannot fail to eradicate from the system Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker and Cutaneous Eruptions generally. Irregular or want of appetite, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Colic pains, Diarrhœa, Waterbrash, Sour and Bitter Stomach and Dizziness and faintness of the same; impure breath, dizziness, sympathetic, nervous or sick Headache, Rheumatism, Gout and Inflammations of all forms—these and all hindred can always be wholly cured or greatly relieved by this mild yet powerful remedy.

General Debility with its inseparable companionments—mental and physical—such as green sickness, lassitude of mind and body, drowsiness, indisposition to exertion, weakness of the limbs, feelings of discouragement, despondency and distrust—all disappear under its magic influence.

It regulates and invigorates the bowels; is a sure antidote to obstinate costiveness and piles; gives renewed vigor to the stomach; evokes the action of the liver; dissipates the yellow dye of Jaundice and eradicates from the skin bilious spots or mould-moth and freckles.

It excites the Kidneys to renewed vigorous and healthy action; and is certain to bring prompt relief in all cases of Diorrhœa and Dysentary.

It is eminently effectual in the cure of all diseases of children, however infantile, especially for colic, worms and irritation and fretfulness while teething.

As a dinner pill or digester, it is second to none other taken with the food. It operates as a general alterative whereeby the entire impaired organism is stimulated to renewed energy and to a healthy vigor and vitality. It is extensively used by the Faculty as a convenient and thorough cathartic, having no other action than the one intended. ☞ Sent by mail on receipt of price and postage, viz:

PAIN KILLER PERRY DAVIS & SON PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1840 1870

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

THIRTY YEARS is certain'y a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a SURE and EFFECTIVE remedy.
