Hug me closer, closer, mother, Put your arms about me tight ; I am cold and tired, mother, And I feel so strange to-night ! Something hurts me here, dear mother, Like a stone aponing-press, in ? O. I wonder, wonder, mother, Why it is I cannot rest.

All the day while you were working, As I lay upon my bed, I was trying to be patient, And to think of what you said-Bow the kind and blessed Jesus Loves his lambs to watch and keep, And I'd wish he'd come and take me In his arms, that I might sleep.

Just before the lamp was lighted, Just before the children came, While the room was very quiet. Theard some one call my name All at once the window opened-In a field were lambs and sheen : Some from out a brook were drinking,

Some were lying fast asleep. But Loould not see the Savious Though Listrained my cycle to see ? And I wompered if he saw me," Would he speak to such as me In a moment L was looking On a world so bright and fair, And they seemed so happy there. They were singing, O, how sweetly ! Sweeter songs I never heard ; They were singing sweeter, mother, Than our little darling bird ; nd while I my breath was holding, And I knew it must be Jestis, When he said, "Come here, my child."
