Accidents.

-On the 23d of September, a man named Grant Van Duzen, was returning from Susquchanna on a freight train. When near the Summit he imposed off and running by the side of the train, when he stumbled and fell beneath the cars, the wheels of which cut his leg off below the knee and passed over a portion of his right foot.

-An accident occurred on the evening of Sept. 28th, at Great Bend, resulting in the death of Rufus Raymond, telegraph operator at that place for the D., L. & W. Railway. Mr Raymond was riding upon the stirrup of a locomotive and upon arriving at the junction jumped off on the eastern bound track just as a freight train came up, and he was crushed to death beneath the wheels.

The Grand Fall Baces.

The entries have closed for the fall races the Binghamton Driving Park, with a list of sixty-five entries, comprising in each class borses among the best in the United States. There are eight purses, aggregating $10,000, making four days' races, commencing October 18, and ending October 21. On the first day there is a 2:50 race, with eight entries, and a 2:50 class, with nine entries; on the second day purse for 2:34 horses, with twelve entries, and a 2:27 with five entries, including the famous mare 10th. None Such and Harry Harley, winner of the $20,000 purse at Buffalo. The third day is that of the 2:40 class with ten entries, and of the great race between Bashaw, American Girl, Lucy, Hotspur and Mountain Boy. On the last day, will be the 2:32 race with ten entries. and the 2:28 race with six entries, including the celebrated winners, Derby, Prince and Colonel Russell.

Several distinguished visitors from New York are expected to witness the great race; among them Commodore Vanderbilt, who rarely fails to witness a contest in which Mountain Boy is engaged: A committee has been appointed by the Association, to receive and entertain the Commodare and other visitors, consisting of Wm. H. Elv. Sherman D. Phelps, Walton Dwight and Wm. E. Taylor; also, another committee to look after the wants of strangers nu able to find accompdations at the hotels. REAPING AND MOWING MACHINES.

The Committee reported as follows:
The Meadw King Mower, manufactured by Gregg, Pyfer & Co., Trumansburg, N. Y., and exhibited by A. H. Gregg, Ithaca, N. Y., is deserving of especial mention, it being very simple and evidently very durable and strong, it being composed almost entirety of iron and steel. The novel device by which the cutter bar is raised from a horizontal position, allowing the knives and the pitman remain in the same line, and always run with equal ease at any angle, ii certainly a novel and valuable improvement in mowing machines. The manner also of getting the side druft is a good feature.

Royal Insurance Company. In another column we print in full the official report of the business of the Royal Insurance Company for the year 1869. In the fire department the year has been one of extraordinary success, the business having, with a single exception, yielded the largest surplus yet announced as the result of a year's operation, since the establishment of the office. To this gratifying result, however, it does not appear that the State contributed anything, "the American Department being the only important one can Department being the only important on that shows a small adverse balance." The premiants for the period gold at 117) were $2.838,03, and the losses, $1,709,510, making net profit after reinsurance reserve, we presume, of the department, including interest, $457.201.

This is certainly a very handsome result on the fire business for 1869, but the Directors rightly anti-pate a less favorable result for 1870.

The failure of the Albert Life, soon, after the publiccation of the Royal's annual report for paintcration of the Royal's annual report for 1850 occasional unprecedented excitenent and distrust in England. The office was a large one, and confidence had very generally been reposed in it. This failure, as is usual in such cases, was followed by a rumor of the weakness of other offices, which further intensited the alarm. To reassure the public, so far as its life policies were concerned, the directors of the policies were concerned, the directors of the Royal wisely resolved to procure two independent valuations. One was made by Mr. Samuel Brown, one of the most experienced actuaries of the day, and by an another officer of the company. Although in the one case each poli-cy was valued separately, and, in the other they were grouped in classes according to ages, the two valuations were nerly identical. The timely and judicious publication of this result, with a full statement of the mode in which the com pany's funds were employed, entirely restored public confidence, so far as the Royal was con-cerned, and the result was a large increase of the 5 life business during the following seven months of the financial year.

The amount of prfit accruing to the share-holders in the life department for 1869 is $479, 348. Total income from life premiums, after deducting reinsurances, $1,248,507. After paying all claims, annuities, and expenses of evo description the amount added to the life funds oescription the amount nades of the line lands for the year is $778,839. A dividend of 3s, per 10 share and a bonus of 4s, per share, and on the present occasion a further divided of 3s, per 15 share from the life profits, together 10s, per 10 share, free of income tax, was ordered and de-ared.

Of all the English Insurance Companies transacting business in America the Royal is entitled to the distinctive merit of having always afforded our Insurance Department the fullest of all its assets, liabilities, &c. The officers never deemed it necessary to conceal anything, nor probably had they anything needing concealment. The returns of the Royal have always been full, frank and satisfactory, whilst the Agents representing the Company in our American cities have also been distinguished for their cheerful conformity with all the local rules and regulations, and the harmony they maintained regulations, and the harmony mey maintained with the officers of local companies. The Royal has always been well received and respected by American Lunderwriters, and well received and fully ments the confidence reposed in it everywhere.—New York Underwriter, Aug. 1870.
