The Montrose Democrat.

Congressional Delegation.

In the Congressional delegation, the Democrats gain Myers in the Sixteenth district open in the Seventeenth, Kober in the Twenty-first and Mitchell in the Twenty-fourth, and that event the military has been called into requisition to attempt the disarmament of Philadelphia, and also a new Second district. This is a brilliant record for democracy. Every manner of combination has been manifested that could be devised to defeat the Democratic ticket in only blot with which it is stained is the defeat of Mr. McClellum for Congress and of Hon. George B. Woodward for President Judge in the Luzerne district. Mr. McClellum was a worthy and able candidate, and has distinguished himself in his profession. Mr. Woodward is a gentleman of the highest character and attainments, and has been a faithful and able judge in the Luzerne district. But these defeats are not to be deplored. Democracy is not dependent upon any individual for success. The triumph of principles is more glorious than the success of men.
