-Within the last seventy-five years, France has been three times a republic, three times an Imperial monarchy under the Bonapartes, three times a Bourbon kingdom, once a Constitutional monarchy under Louis Philippe, and once a military Dictatorship under Cavaignac. But even that statement does not show all the changes in the form of government within the period named. Consuls, Emperors, Presidents, Kings, National Assemblies, Provisional Republics and Dictators have played hide and seek with France during three-quarters of a centu-

A Story is related of a boy who was watching his school-fellows as they snowballed an old gentleman's windows.
The old gentleman rushed out of his house, determined if possible to inflict some severe corporeal punishment on the offender, saying when he caught the boy, "now, you rascal, I'll thrash you within an inch of your life!" Accordingly, he an inch of your life!" Accordingly, he head him when the boy immed iately commenced laughing, and continned until the old gentleman stopped him, with the exclamation: "Boy, what are you laughing at?" "Well," said the boy, "I'm laughing because you are awfully sold; I aiu't the boy!"

There is a structure which everybody is building, young and old, each one for himself. It is called oharacter, and in every act of life is a stone. If day by day we be careful to build our lives with pure. noble, upright deeds, at the eud we will stands a fair temple, honored by God and man. But as one leak will sink a ship, and one flaw break a chain, so one mean, dishonorable, untruthful act or word, will forever leave its influence on our characters. Then let the several deeds unite to form a day, and one by one the days grow into noble years, and the years as they slowly pass, will rise at last a beautiful edifice, enduring forever to our praise.

Modern Praying.

A Cape Cod elergyman one Sabbath day prayed most earnestly for rain. He entreated the Lord to "uncork the bottles of heaven and send down the refreshing showers." The drouth had lasted through August and a part of September. Tues day morning the line storm began, and Floar, Salt, Butter, Pork, Lard, Ham, Salt Fish, Tallow continued with great violence till Friday Candlas, Crackers, Cheese, Coffee, Spices, Coffee, Spi flooding the country and sweeping of bridges in all directions. Saturday night and all other articles usually kept in a first class it set into rain again, and Sabbath morning it was still pouring down. This time the prayer was as follows; "O Lord, we recently took occasion to entreat thee to uncork the bottles of heaven and send; down the refreshing showers, but we did not mean that the corks should be thrown away."—Another is told of "Parson Howe," of Milton, Conn. On a similar occasion, if not during the same drouth. petitioned for relief in these words: "O ord, we want rain very much. The rye is suffering prodigiously. Of Corn, we shall not have half a crop. As for the potatoes, it is all up with them; and there's the grass of Deacon Comstock's, it is as red as a fox's tail."

An Indian Tradition.

It is a standing tradition of the Niagara Indians, shared to a great extent now by the white people in the vicinity of the Falls, that the "Great Spirit" or Thunderer of Waters must have annually four victims sacrificed to his power. Curiously enough, a year seldom passes during which at least four persons are not drowned either in the falls or the whirpool below. This year an old man of more than 70 years stepped into the breakers above the Falls, and losing his hold, was swept over the frightful cataract. At De Vaux College, a student, daring his companious to wade into the whirlpool, was sucked into its terriffic eddies, and instantly disappeared, to be seen no more. A few days after wards a drunken father ad-ventured, with his two children and a reprobate companion into a boat above. the rapids, and in their drunken orgics the little ones were thrown out and drowned, though the two drunken wreatches escaped. So far, therefore, the Indians believe implicitly in the four-fold sacrifice, and each year's disasters confirm their

ADVICE BY BILLINGS.—The wise and gifted Josh Billings tenders all whom it may concern the following advice: Don't court for munny, nor buty, nor relashuns; those are just about like the ile refinin business—liable to go out of order and and bust at any minit. Court a gal for luv for the luv you bare—for the virchu and biziness there is in her, for a wife and a mother; cort her as you would a farm, for the site, and the perfection of the stile; court her as if she want fule and you another; cort her in the kitchen over the wash-tub as well as at the pianer; court her in this way young man, and if you don't git a wife the fault won't be in the Two French peasants discussing the Continental war when one attempted the Continental war when one attempted to explain to the other the nature of telegraph. After repeatedly failing, he was struck with a brilliant notion and exelaimed: "Imagine that the telegraph is an immense long dog—so long that its man immense long dog—so long that its head is at Vienna and its tail at Paris,—and it will bark at Vienna. Do you understand now, stupid, what telegraph is like?" "Oh, yes" replied the other, "I have an idea now what telegraph must be.
