No States are counted here in the Democratic column except those which have voted against the administration.

The Democratic party will enter the next Presidential contest under quite different auspices from those which attended it in the elections of 1864 and 1868.— Harmony, moderation, and the choice of a good candidate alone are needed. Admonished by the lessons of the past, there will be no repetition of the defeat in 1868.

From the result of the late election the one great object for which the blood and treasure of the nation have been expended under the present party in power crops out, in the clear demonstration that negro equality alone has saved the utter defeat of the Radical party, at this time, and that all the sympathy of the corrupt leaders of that party has been hypocritically expended for the sole purpose of enabling them to hold their death-like grip the Democrats carrying every Congressional District in the State. upon the nation.

In proof of this fact we have only to look at the elections during the year 1870 to find that nowhere has Radicalism succeeded except by the overpowering accretion of their negro allies, and that to-day the mark of Cain upon the corrupt leaders of their party, at the ballot box, and convicted them of proving traitors to our jointy on joint ballot. national prosperity for the merest mercenary motives and the greed of power. We ask the sons of the Revolutionary Fathers to look at the "dark" picture which

All these Doctrines or Principles, it will be seen, are against the Centralized Government to which, under a Radical Administration, the nation is drifting. Centralized Government was a failure can party is the best judge of its own afwhen attempted under the Colonies, and fairs, and it knows, or ut least should greater failure, if possible, under the Confederation. The latter's offense is, that during the late Gubernational contest in Missouri he was mainly instrumental in securing the election of Gratz Brown over McClurg. At least, he threw his influence in favor of the former, while the administration was equally demonstrative in support of the latter. The political opponents of Senator Schurz have endeavored to misrepresent the issues of the Missouri canvass, and to prove that he betrayed his party. The real issues of that contest

In making this canvass I have been assailed by all the combined weight of a national and State administration. The edict has gone forth to the officeholders that their heads would be in the barrel before the moonlight if they dared to say their souls were their own, and vote as freemen. The levy of black mail on their slender salaries has been ruthlessly carried on. Let me say, then, that if this fight should go with us, I shall claim all over the nation that it is the verdict of a free people, that power shall come from beneath and not stations and several other buildings at lescend from above; that the civil service shall be purged of the partisanship that breeds measureless corruption, and be Declaration of Independence, and declare not merely that every man is born free and equal, but that every man shall live and die free and equal in this our Re-

Adulterated Wines.

Wine drinkers may prepare themselves from this time forward for the exercise of all their skill in detecting fictitious compounds. The war in France has desolated the principal champagne districts. Military and foraging operations have been largely carried on in the vineyard country. The prices of the foreign wines have already in some instances doubled. The margin of profit is immensely increased in the manufacture of spurious articles, the basis of which is produced by chemical processes. The most innocent of the spurious campounds are California wines, more or less "decocted," and the most harmless deception in the trade is the simple relabelling of California wines, and putting them up in packages resem-bling the foreign. But the California bling the foreign. But the California wines will not be, it is supposed, sufficient to supply the market. DENTISTRY.

All those in want of false Teeth or other dental work should call at the office of the subscribers, who are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line on short notice.

Particular aftention paid to making full and partial acts of teeth on gold, silver, or aluminum plate; also on Weston's cast composition; the two latter preferable to any of the cheaper substances now used for dental plates.

Teeth of young persons regulated, and made to grow in sureral share. natural shape.

The advantage of having work done by permanently lo-tated and responsible parties, must be sparent to all.
All work warranted. Please call and examine speci-nens of plate work at our office, over Boyd& Co's hard-mens of plate work at our office, over Boyd& Co's hard-W. W. SMITH & BROTHER.

A Body and Mind Disease.-The stomach and the brain are too intimately silled for the one to suffer without the other, so that dyspepsia and despondency are insenerable. It may be added, too, that irrita of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by tion of the stomach is aimost invariably accompanied by irritation of the tamper.

The invigorating and tranquillizing operation of Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully doveloped in cases of indigestion. The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging. A mild glow provades the system, the chronic uneasiness in "the region of the stomach is lessened, and the nervious restiness which consistents the disease is abated. This improvement stomach is lessened, and the nervious restliness which canaracterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not translent. It is not succeeded by the reinru of the old symptems with superadded force, as is always the case when namedicated stimunants are given for the complaint. Each done seems to impart a permanent. Secasion of healthful invigoration. But this is not all. The sperient and antibillious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues. If there is an overflow of bille the secretion is soon brought within proper limits, and if the bilenting of the properties of the preparation are some brought within proper limits, and if the bilenting of the control of the secretion is soon brought within proper limits, and if the bilenting of the discharging organ is equally an interpretation of the discharging organ is equally an interpretation of the discharging organ is equally an interpretation of the discharge of the secretion of the liver and the secretion of the liver, coughts, and colds the best season when sudden spells of raw, upplessant weather are apt to check the natural perspiration and produce congestion of the liver, coughts, and colds. The best safeguard against all diseases is bodily vigor, and this the great Vegetable Restorative essentially promotes.
