

LEOFOIROR-OF

Miscellancons.

THE MANAGING WIFE.

"Yes. I managed pretty well didn't I?"

ceed your income ?" said his wife.

have saved instead of falling behind."

y. Still it seems to have taken all.

"I can't controvert your logic, Elizabeth, but I am afraid we shan't be able to save up anything this year. When I get my salary raised, it will be time enough

"Let me make a proposition to you," said Mrs. Newton. You say that one half of your income has been expended on articles of food. Are you willing to allow

You guarantee to pay all bills out of

"And relieve me of all care on that

"Then I will shift the responsibility upon you with pleasure. But I can tell you beforehand you wont be able to save

"Perhaps not. At any rate I will engage not to exceed it." "That's well. I shouldn't relish havstewn which has the protected of the and seemed to many that whatever contin-gencies might arise in the future, he would somehow be provided for. Now trust in Providence is a very proper feel-ing, but there is a good deal of truth in the old adage that God will help those who halp themestres and in properties who help themselves, and in proportion

Mrs. Newton, on the contrary, had been as they are disposed to help themselves.

me that sum for the purpose ?"

of food, five hundred dollars."

'Just half."

the house."

it ?"

" Yes."

point ?" "Yes."

much out of it.'

you half the money.

to think of that."

"Do you think it managing well to exlars.

dollars ?

E. B. HAWLEY, Proprietor.

ាន ភេ ដង់

MONTROSE, PA., WEDNESDAY APRIL 12, 1871.

VOLUME XXVIII, NUMBER 15.

Stortes about Parrola

39

Construction of the second se Second seco

wir Business Cards.

CROSSMON & BALDWIN,

J. D. VAIL, Source Artic Parsucal and Scattor, Has permanently Desired himself in Montrose, Pa., where he will prompt by stitud to all califs in his profession with which he may be favored. Office and residence west of the Court House, near Fitch & Waiton's affice. Montrose, February 8, 1871.

LAW OFFICE. PITCH & WATSON, Attorneys at Law, at the old offic of Bentley & Fitch, Montrose, Pa. L. P. FITCH. [Jan. 11, '71.] W. W. WATSON.

CHARLES N. STODDARD,

Dealer in Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps. Leather an Findings, Main Street, 1st door below Boyd's Store Work made to order, and repairing done neatly. Montrose, Jan. 1, 1870. LITTLES & BLAKESLEE, Attorneys and Convellors at Law. Office the one heretofore occupied by H. B. & G. P. Little, on Mair street, Montrose, Pa. [April 30, R. Little, GEO, F. LITTLE, E. L. DLARENSER

R. MCKENEIE. C. C. PAUBOT, W. H. MCCAIN MCKENZIE, FAUROT & CO.

Mealers in Dry Goods, Clothing, Ladies and Misses Ane Shoes. Also, agents for the great American Tes and Coffee Company. [Montrose, Pa., sp. 1, 70, LEWIS KNOLL.

SHAVING AND HAIR DERSSING. Shop in the new Postofice building, where he will be found ready to attend all who may want abything in his line. Nontrose, Pa. Oct. 13, 1869.

P. REYNOLDS.

AUCTIONEER-Sells Dry Goods, and Merchanize-ales altends at Vendues. All orders left at my house wil receive prompt attention. [Oct. 1, 1869-tf

O. M. HAWLEY.

DEALER in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, Hardware, Hats, Caps, Boota, Shoes, Ready Made Cloth-ing, Paints, Oils, etc., New Milford, Pa. [Sept. 8, '69. DR. S. W. DAYTON, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, tenders his services to the citizens of Great Bend and vicinity. Office at his residence, opposite Barnum House, G't Bend village. Sept. 1st, 1869.-11

LAW OFFICE.

CHAMBERLIN & McCOLLUM, Attorneys and Coun-sellors at Law. Office in the Brick Block over the Bank. [Montrose Ang. 4, 1869, A. CHAMBERLIN, J. B. McCOLLUM.

A. & D. R. LATHROP, DEALERS in Dry Goods. Groceries, crockery and giasware table and pocket cutlery. Paints, oils, dyo stuffs, Hats, boots and shock, odining the lasher, Perfasarry Sc. Brick Back, adjusting the Bank, Montrose. [Accust], 1969 - U A. Larmor, D. R. Latamor, A. O. WARREN,

ATTORNEY A' LAW, Bonnty, Back Pay, Pension and Exem. on Claims attended to. Office fr-oor below Boyd's Store, Montrore.Ps. [Au. 1, '6

M. C. SUTTON. Auctioneer, and Insurance Agent aul 601/ Friendsville, Pa.

C, S, GILBERT, Auctioneer. T. S. Great, Bend, Pa. aug1 69t1

Brooklyn, Pa

AMI ELY, U. S. Auctioncor. Aug. 1, 1869. Address, Bro

JOHN GROVES,

FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Montrose, Pa. Shop or Chandler's Store. All orders filled in first-rate styl Usuting done on short notice, and warranted to St. Shop

W. W. SMITH.

CABINET AND CHAIR MANUPACTURERS,- Foc of Main street, Montrowe, Pa. Jaug. 1, 1869. H. BURRIT!,

DEALER in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Crocker, Hardware, Iron, Stores, Drugw, Olis, and Paini Bootsand Shoes, Rats & Caps, Furs, Bufalo Robe Groceries, Provisions, G.C., New Millord, Pa. DR. E. P. HINES, reasonatly located at Friendsville for the pur of practicing medicine and surgery in all its hose. He may be found at the Jackson House, hours from 8 s. m., to 8, p. m., disville, Fa., Aug. 1. 1895. pose e branch Office i Friend

Lort's Corner. Bad Language, BY P. J. M'GREELY. I know not what others may think, To no one I feel the least grudge, I hate none for what they my drink, But a man by his language I judge. Whenever I hear a man use Words that are vulgar or vain, That moment I think he'll abuse

W. 1 . C

Jan Starl

The manhood he ought to maintain If a man will himself so degrade As to utter the language of sin, I cast them obscure in the shade. For his base heart is rotten within, If he values not a good name On him I can never depend. To a'd me in winning fair fame.

Nor make him a dear bosom friend. The evil that springs from the tongue Is worse than a scorpion's bite,

It poisons the mind of the young, And the miden's day darkens at night. slanders the husband and wife, It injures the body and soul, It breeds all contention and strife

And spreads scandal from pole to pole. In my own native home-Inshowen

I heard it in days long gone by, That man's by his company known, And his words indicate his mind's eye, For words emanate from the brain Combined with the thoughts of the heart. The tongue follows on the train,

And for good or for ill takes a part nodest words surely defile The tongue that expresses them, 'tis true The mouth and the lips must be vile Which aid in pronouncing them, too. For them there can be no defense, As they tend to corrupt a pure mind,

Nor should they, on any pretense, Be spoken at all by mankind. St. James' Epistle doth say

That the man who in words don't offend Is perfect; and this I will pray To heaven his soul may ascend We should try to obtain that reward By words edifying to all, And keep on the tongue a strict guard, Lest Satan might tempt us to fall. My Cross of Moss,

A tiny cross Of soft moss, And that is all ! And yet it hath a voice and speaks to me Of patient faith and holy victory; Faith that could triumph in Gethsemane

And for our sins a sinless sufferer be Upon the cross. A little cross.

Of velvet moss; And that is all, Yet when I've left my darlings with the dead, I've seen His beacon-cross through tears and said:

What grief IIE bore! I will be comforted, And bear my cross. Oh, tiny cross, Of forest moss ! THAT is not all!

I'll have these for my daily guard and guide, And learn of thee to conquer sin and pride! Thou shalt speak of Jesus crucified, And all the h rden of life's woes l'l "Well Elizabeth, have you kept within your allowance?" asked her husband at rours in rouse in the not found of the said his wife, guietly. Mr. Newton gazed at his wife in pro-

Ezra Newton had just finished looking over his yearly accounts, "Well," asked his wife, looking up, "how do you come "I find," said her husband, "that my expenses during the last year have been thirty-seven cents over a thousand dol-"And your income has been a thousand

"What's thirty-seven cents?" asked Mr. Newton, lightly. "Not much to be sure, but still something. It seems to me that we ought to

" But how can we save on this salary, Elizebth ? We haven't lived extravagant-"Perhaps there is something in which we might retrench. Suppose you men-tion some of your items." Her husband did not think to inquire how she had succeded, supposing, as be-fore, that it could be but a very small furnish the next generation its men of en-"The most important are house rent, one hundred and fifty dollars, and articles

"Yes, and you'll admit that we can't retrench there, Elizabeth. I like to live well. I had enough of poor board before I married. Now, I mean to live as well as I can."

Still we ought to be saving up something against a rainy day, Ezra." "That would be something like carryng an umbrella when the sun shines." "Still it is well to have an umbrella in which he considered desirable.

As before Mrs. Newton merely said that | be easily improved by recognition, and by As before hirs. Newton merely said that she had saved something without specify-ing the amount.

six hundred dollars.

Mr. Newton, on the contrary, in spite and when their success is known, in what-of his increased salary, was no better off at the end of the third year than before. If ashionables will be glad to receive them His expenses had increased by a hundred dollars, though he would have found it difficult to tell in what way his comfort or happiness had been increased there-by. In suite of his carelessness in report to

In spite of his carelessness in regard to rejoice to see that companions chosen his own affairs, Mr. Newton was an excellent man in regard to business, and make and the positions to win, are thos his services were valuable to his employer. to whom a well-bred woman can generally They accordingly increased his salary with safety entrust her happiness and "That's well. I shouldn't relish hav-ing additional bills to pay. As I am paid every month, I will at each payment hand to his wife for the custom of assigning one half fore, and this had become such a habit The different characters of the husband that he never thought to inquire whether and wife may be judged from the conversion she found it necessary to employ the sight. He lived chiefly for the present, all this time Mr. Newton lived in the and seemed to fancy that whatever continsame hired house for which he had paid an annual rent of one hundred and fifty dollars. Latterly, however, he had be-come dissatisfied with it. It had passed still fed with fresh discoveries, and kept an annual rent of one hundred and fifty

Courtship.

There are so many circumstances, per-About this time a block of excellent tectly nameless, to communicate to the newly married man the fact that it is not am. However he had a piece of good news It is not the sons of the rich who will, as $10 more than I paid him, and I want penses, it is no more than fair that 1 in twenty-nee years, will control the na-should do so now. That will give you a better chance to save up a part of it than before. Indeed, I don't know how you have succeeded in saving anything thus far.

Two Hoper's Men.

the first source was increased six hun-dred dollars, but her expenses were not proportionally increased at all; so that her savings for the third year swelled the aggregate sum in the saving's bank to with indifference or contempt, but those with indifference or contempt, but those x hundred dollars. Mr. Newton, on the contrary, in spite and when their success is known, in what-herself.

to his wife for the same purpose as hereto Addison, Cobbett, George Alexander Stevens, and Bulwer, respectively, have furnished the lollowing maxims, by an observance of which much may be effect, happy lot in marinagend maintaining a into the hands of a new landlord, who alive by a new perpetual succession of was not disposed to keep it in the repair miracles rising to its view-Addison.

haven't you." "What is it for ?" said Mr. W.

"But this estate certainly holds such a note against me."

note against me." "I can't help it,—we've none now." Very soon Mr. Wakefield explained the mystery, and fears rolled down the aston-ished man's face as h elearned the note had hown hurned.—a witness to the wonderful the note had committed himself, and had better apologize, called out, "Sorry I spoke." the overpowering effect on the congrega-tion may be more easily imagined than tion may be more easily imagined than footed Quaker, one of the worthy first set described. tlers of Lewiston. Such men will do for any age,--the more the better.

Masonic Relies.

The Madison (Indianna) Courier of Saturday last has the following interesting tem :

Said a gentleman to a dealer, who was asking a high price for a parrot. "This is a handsome bird, but he talks very little." "I think the more," answered Poll immediately, and was bought without further chaffering. The following outrageous libel has been published by a western paper: Item: The work of digging up the corner stone under the old Masonic Hall, on West street, was commenced this morning, and the contents disclosed. The stone was originally laid in 1821, and consequently bas been published by a western paper: A literary society in Peinsýlvania wrote to Horace Greeky to lecture for them next winter. When the reply came, no-body could read the handwriting, and it has been buried for nearly fifty verts. It mis confidently believe then the memory's the we hall, together with its contents of an hieroglyphics from the tomb of Che-But few persons are now living who were ject of his jecture. But the letter was present at the original laying of this submitted to an expert, who, spent two stone; but two stood upon the ground weeks in translating it with the following this morning to see it excerted that were result:

New Yong.-Dedr Sir !-- I am vaccipresent when the corner stone was laid--Mr. D. Blackmore, Jr., and James E. Lew-is not Fishing shad all the while at Limes The contents of the stone, as reme but I wrote a line to fetch her fo designed to sell or let them as he might have an opportunity. They were more modern and much better arranged than modern and much better arranged than the one in which Mr. Newton now lived, and he felt a strong desire to move in one of them. He mentioned it to his wife one morning. "What is the rent, Ezra?" inquired his ed and enlightened state - Callett usband in countenance in this his alter-d and enlightened state.—Cobbett. Courtship is as the bowling green turf, scription: "This Corner Stone of Union -A poor fellow, whose name was George King, lying in prison under sen-tence of death, in King George's reign, sent his Majesty the following simply bat earn-Courtship is as the bowling green turf, all galloping around and sweet-hearting. a sunshine holliday in summer time; but when once through matrimony's turnpike the weather becomes wintry, and some husbands are seized with a cold, anguish fit, to which the faculty give the name of udifierence G. A. Stovens. Possession, like all earthly blessings, carries its own principle of corruption. "This Corner Stone of Union Lodge, No. 2, held at Madison, was kid by John Sheets, Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Indianna, MMMMMDCCCXXII, agreeable to ancient form and usage." The inscription is repeated in Lativ. Up-on the opposite side is the name, "C. J. est petition for pardon : George King to King George Sends his humble petition. Hopfing King George will pity Poor George King's condition. And if King George to George King Will grant a long day. George King for King George Forever will pray. Arizona, and more than he asked for the land." "Yes," said Mr. Davis, " that is true but it makes no difference,—it's worth $40 more than I paid him, and I want that note destroyed."

However he had a piece of good news to communicate. His salary had been raised from a thousand to twelve hundred dollars. He added, "As I before allowed yon one half my income for household ex-penses, it is no more than fair that I should do so now. That will give you a better chance to save up a part of it than before. Indeed, I don't know how you have sneeded in suving envything thas

Not long alterwarks air. A of whom the pasture was bought, called on Mr. Wakefield. "You've got something against me, haven't you."

"What is it for?" said Mr. W. "I gave a note to Mr. Davis for $40, money borrowed of him, and I want to pay it." "I've no such note," said Mr. W. "But this estate certainly hold. For some time he maintained a decorous silence, but at length, instead of "Amen," on the came with "Cheer, boys, Cheer." On this the butler was directed to remove

STROUD & BROWN,	Bengath His cross.	brought up in a family which was com-
FIRE AND LIFE INSTRANCE AGENTS. AL' basiness attended to prumpily, on fair terms. Office first door north of 'Nontrose Hotel," west alde n'	At Her Feet.	pelled to be economical, and although she was not disposed to deny herself com-
first door north of 'Montrose Hotel," west alde of Public Avenue, Montrose, Pa. [Aug. 1, 1853.		forts, yet she felt that it was desirable to
BILLINGS STROUD, CRARLES L. REOWN.	Softly the shadows rise and fall Athwart the slowly darkening wall	procure them at a fair price.
WM. D. LUSK,	Lit by the fire's faint rays:	The time at which this conversation
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Montrose, Ph. Office oppo- site the Tarbell House, near the Court House.	The maiden reclines in the old arm chair,	took place was at the commencement of the second year of their married life.
Asg. 1, 1869tf	At her fect the lover is kneeling there	The first step which Mrs. Newton took,
DR. W. W. SMITH,	Nor doth ever his face upraise.	on accepting the charge of the household
DENTIST. Beorgs over Boyd & Corwin's Hard wars Mere. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mentrese, Aug. 1, 1552tf	The flickering fire dimly burns,	expenses, was to institute the practice of paying cash for all articles that
ABEL TURRELL,	Her dreamy eyes on him she turns, While the shadows fold them round;	came under her department. She accordingly called on the butcher and in-
DEALER in Drugs, Fatoni Medicines, Chemicais Liquers, Fainta, Olia, Dro Stoffs, Varnishes, Win . w Glass, Grocerics, Glass Ware, Wall and Window Pa, per, Stome-ware, Lamps, Ecrosene, Machinery Olis, Transes, Gans, Ammunition, Knives, Speciacles Branhes, Fancy Goods, Jeweiry, Perfa,, Associations, and Branhes Pancy Goods, Jeweiry, Perfa,, Associations, and Science State State and State State State State State State State State Sta	Nor yet through all the moments fleet,	quired : "How often have you been in the habit per, Stone-ware, Lamps, Acrosche, Machinery Olis, Trasses, Gans, Ammunition, Knives, Speciacles	Doth lift his eyes from the ground.	of presenting your bills, Mr. Williams?"
Brashes, Fancy Goods, Jewerry, Ferta (1), ac. being fone of the most numerous, extensive, and	From the fast setting gloam the shadows have	"Once in six months," was the reply.
yainable collections of Goods in Susquehanna Co	Nor moon or stars their radiance shed [fied, On maiden or lover true.	"And I suppose you sometimes have bad bills?"
D. W. SEABLE,	But list-'tis her voice-how dreamy and slow !	"Yes, one-third of my profits, on an ATTORNEY AT LAW. office over the Store of A. Lathrop, in the Brick Block, Montrose, Pa. [aul'@	" Tis time dear boy, I think, to go,	average, are swept off by them."
DR. W. L. BICHARDSON,	If you've finished tying that shoe."	"And you could afford, I suppose to sell somewhat cheaper for ready money?"
prevention & STIRGRON, tenders his professiona	Brevities and Witicisms.	"Yes and I would be glad if all my office at his residence, on the corner cast of Sayre &	Dittitity and Artititymp.	enstomers would give me a chance to do
Bros. Foundry. [Aug. 1, 100.	-Should great aunts be called giants?	"I will set them an example then,"
DR. E. L. GARDNER, PHYSICIAN and SURGEON, Montrose, Pa. Giver	What rings are not circular? Her-	said Mrs. Newton. "Hereafter whatever especial attention to diseases of the licart and Longa and all Surgical diseases. Office over W. B.		articles shall be purchased of you will be Deet.s Boarie at Searie & Hotel. [hot	Song of seeds" Put me in my little bed."	paid for on the spot, and we shall expect you to sell as reasonably as you can."
BURNS & NICHOLS, DELIGRS in Drugf, Medicines, Chemicals, Dye-	-A sovereign remedy-Twenty shil-	This arrangement was also made with
DEAL & BS in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Dye- staffs, Paints, Olin, Varnish, Liquors, Spices, Fancy st. cics, Patent Modicines, Perfutiely and Toilet Ar-	lings.	others, who it is scarcely needful to say, were very glad to enter into the arrange-
Banila Aronna above Scarle's Hotel, Montrose, Pa	-Good life-preservers in a battlefield, a muscular pair of legs.	ment. Ready money is the great support
A. B. BURNS, ANON NICHOLA. Aug. 1, 1969.	-When is a black dog not a black dog?	of trade, and a cash customer is worth
DR. E. L. HANDBICK,	When it's a grey-hound.	two who purchase on credit. Fortunately Mrs. Newton had a small
PHTBICIAN & SURGEON, respectfully tenders his professional services to the citizen of Priendsville	When is a dog's tail like a carriage-	supply of money by her which lasted till
Boards at J. Hosford's. Aug. 1, 1869.	when it's a wag in, of course. —Why is a jailer like a player on a pi-	the first monthly installment from her
PROF. MOBBIS,	ano? Because he fingers the keys.	husband became due. Thus she was en- abled to carry out her cash plan from the
The Hayil Barbar, returns his thanks for the kind pat- ronage that has enabled him to get the best rest-ha i ha i I hav'nt time to tell the whole story, but come	-Why is a wounded man like an old	beginning.
and see for yourseves EP at the Old Stand, No loud	pair of boots? He wants healing.	Another plan which occurred to her as likely to save expense, was to purchase langhing allowed in the shop. [April 12, 1870.	Why is a mean man like a barefooted man, because both ought to be booted.	articles in large quantities. She had soon
HUNT BROTHERS, SCRANTON, PA.	-The oldest volumes are volumes of	saved enough from the money allowed her
SCRANTON, PA. Wholesale & Retail Dealers in	water.	to do this. For example, instead of buy- ing sugar a few pounds at a time, she pur-
HARDWARE, IRON, STEEL,	-Early grass-blades and jack-knives are alike, because the spring brings out	chased a barrel, and so succeeded in sav-
NAILS, SPIKES, SHOVELS,	their blades.	ing a cent or more on the pound. This, perhaps amounted to but a trifle in the
BUILDER'S HARDWARE,	-The inside of everything is unintel-	course of a year, but the same system
BUILDERS COUNTERSUNE & T BALL SPIKES	ligible because we can't make it out.	carfied out in regard to other articles
BAILEGAD & BINING SUPPLIES.	-An inexperienced farmer tried to make corned beef by giving his oxen	yielded a result which was by no means a
BOIES, BOLTS, NUTS and WASHEES, PLATED BANDS. MALLRABLE IDONS, HUBS, SPOKES,	whisky.	There were other ways in which a care-
	-A Comment-"Speech is silver, but	ful housekeeper is able to limit expense
ANVILS, VICES, STOCKS and DIRS, BELLOWS HAMMERS, SLEDGES, FILES, &c. &c. CINCULAR AND MILL SAWS, BELTING, PACKING	silence is golden." Hence the expression, "hush money."	which Mrs. Newton did not overlook. With an object in view she was clways on
TACKLE BLOCKS, PLASTER PARIS CEMENT, HAIB & GRINDSTONES,	-Where ought the milk of human	the lookout to prevent waste, and to get
FRENCH WINDOW GLASS, LEATHER & FINDINGS FAIRBANK'S SCALES.	kindness to be found? Within the pale	the full value of what ever was expended.
craaton, March 94, 1868. 17	of the church.	The result was beyond her anticipa-
Agricultural College, of Pennsylvania.	-Whence does a cock learn the time to sound "his shrill clarion? From his	At the close of the year, on examining
THIS INSTITUTION will reopen for the	crow-nometer, of course.	her bank book-for she had regularly de-
SPRING TERM OF 24 WEEKS,	-Is it proof of an economical dispo-	posited whatever money she had not oc-
On Friday, February 10, 1871,	sition if s young lady indulges in tight	casion to use in one of the these institu- tions she found that she had one hund-
For geneal Circular, catalogue and other in- formation, Address,		red and fifty dollars besides reimbursing
THOS. H. BURROWS, President.	mending stockings? Because her hands	herself for the money during the first
Jap. 25, 1870tf. Centre Co., Pa.	are where her feet ought to be.	month, and having enough to last anoth-

her department. She ac-lled on the butcher and inen have you been in the habit g your bills, Mr. Williams?" six months," was the reply. ippose you sometimes hav -third of my profits, on an wept off by them." could afford. I suppose to it cheaper for ready money? would be glad if all my ould give me a chance to do t them an example then," wton. "Hereafter whateve be purchased of you will be he spot, and we shall expect reasonably as you can." gement was also made with t is scarcely needful to say, d to enter into the arrange v money is the great suppor a cash customer is worth chase on credit. v Mrs. Newton had a small ney by her which lasted till y out her cash plan from the from the money allowed her For example, instead of buyw pounds at a time, she purel and so succeeded in savmore on the pound. This, year, but the same system other ways in which a care per is able to limit expense was beyond her anticipae of the year, on examining ok-for she had regularly de asked. ever money she had not oc- "Ye

"The corner one would be preferable, on account of the side windows." "Yes, and they have a large yard besides. I think we must hire one of them I gness I'll engage one tt-day; you know our year is out next week." engaging one.' For what reason." " I should like to examine the house." "Very well, I suppose to-morrow will be sufficiently early. Soon after breakfast Mrs. Newton called readily complied with; Mrs. Newten was quite delighted with all the arrangements, and expressed her satisfaction. she inquired. " Either," said the owner. "The rent is, I understand, two hundred and twenty dollars." "Yes, I consider the corner house worth at least twenty-five dollars more than the rest? And what do you charge for the house ame due. Thus she was en-with subducd cagerness. " Four thousand dollars cash, was the reply; and that is but a small advance an which occurred to her as upon the cost." "Very well, I will buy it of you;" add-rge quantities. She had soon the manual bar which it is the to man to make the source of the source anted to but a trifle in the in a week." year, but the same system "Then the honse is yours. But your in regard to other articles husband said nothing of his intention, and in fact I did not know—" Newton did not overlook to prevent waste, and to get e of what ever was expended. Newton invi-to prevent waste, and to get ted her husband to take a walk, but with-out specifying the direction.

"What did I understand you to my?" asked the Squire, scarcely believing his The story runs that the sor, an energeic "I repeated, that I will buy this house at your price and pay you the money with-"That he had the money to invest, I suppose you would say. Meither does he know it, and I must ask you not to tell "They soon stood in front of the house which he desired to live in?" "Wouldn't you like to go in ?" she "Yes It's a pity we haven't got the in one of the these institu-und that she had one hund-dollars besides 'reimbursing' forthwith walked up the steps and pro-marriage-hence the term. he money during the first ceeded to open the door. aving chough to last anoth-Bent ?" asked the busband.

"What is the rent, Ezra?" inquired his as to institute the practice cash for all articles that her department. She ac-"Two hundred and twenty-five dollars if the corner house; two hundred for either of the others."

Possession, like all earthly blessings, on the opposite side carries its own principle of corruption. Jefferis, engraver. Please wait Ezra till to-morrow before | The deadliest foe to love is not change, nor misfortune, nor wrath, nor anything that flows from passion or emanates from fortune—the deadliest foe to it is custom ! With custom die away the delusions and the mysteries which encircle it.

With all passion the soul demands something unexpressed, some vague recess block, and intimated her desire to be shown the corner house. The request he leaves nothing to romance, and often but is reported as yielding at the rate of 1800 little to respect. The whole character is bared before us like a plain, and the heart's eye grows wearied with the same-"Are these houses for sale or to let?" ness of the survey. And to wearinest succeeds distaste, and to distaste one of the Proteous-aversion ; so that the passion we would make the prest of the treasures. fritters down to very instance of the commonest of proverbs, and "out of the familiarity cometh, indeed, contempt."-Bulwer.

An Unnatural Father.

The latest thing out is the elopement of a Philadelphia gentleman with his son's wife. The case occurred in Allegheny for three miles, and a number of other when the case occurred in Anegheny a few evenings ago, and if reported correctly is as cool a piece of diabolism as one can find now-a-days, even when we are not surprised by tolerably bad transactions. ceins, equally rich, had been found. were to be commenced in a few weeks. yong man, recently married and settled in ing as it has been for the last six months. Allegheny. His wife was handsome, and The lowest level contains exceedingly on a visit to the young couple, the old rich ores, which are hauled to the mill gentleman was so enchanted by her that he planned an elopement, to which she unassorted. he planned an elopement, to which she assented. The father returned a few days sent that a new body of decomposed ord ago, and on going home to supper May has been found, which is said to be rich-ago, and on going home to supper May has been found, which is said to be rich-and December told the tele of their loves er than any similar or ever found in and declared their intention of going off Arizona. We are sorry to be at the same time intogether. The son of course was thunformed that the Apaches have of late derstruck and went out to seek means for the prevention of the design. When he shown increasing activity in the middle returned the old gentleman and young portions of the Territory. But perhaps this lady had gone. It was afterwards discov- is necessary to stimulate more vigorous lady had gone. It was afterwards discov- is necessary to stimulate more vigorous ered that the father had disposed of his action on the part of the military auproperty in Philadelphia, and took ten thorities, and to rid the country thousand dollars in cash with him; leaver of these pests - Eng. Journal. thorities, and to rid the country the sooning his family well provided for.

-Young ladies had better be fast asleep than "fast awake,"

Ĩ,

Such a post was not to be hanged. His Advices from this territory continue favoruble. The excitement in regard to the new silver mines in the vicinity of the Bradshaw mountain is reported on the in-crease. A lot of ore, weighed 500 pounds, and here the proster form of the silver of the s Majesty acknowledge the wit by return-ing a full and free pardon.

Several Sundays ago a collection was about to be taken up in one of our cliurches, and in the absence of the regu-lar collectors, a frisky young man, volum-teered his scriptes, and handled his hat ounces of silver per ton, and we are assured at the same time that the ore was with great industry and success. When he got near the door, he was about to go taken from the ledge by a miner who is unable to select good ores simply because he did not know them. About one hun out, with his hat fall. of money, on his head, when the minister said, solemply : dred men were in the new district, according to the latest advices, and several "Young man, if you leave here with that large parties were fifting out to go there immediately. A town has been laid out man, however, left in a hurry, and, as he near the vein on a creek, and several of shut the door behind him, a worthy old the merchants of Prescott contemplated hachelor, with s voice in F sharp, who removing their business to the new mines had put a dollar in the hat signed out to It was confidentially expected that the dis. | the minister: "Well, if he min't gone trict would contain a population of 5000 carly in the spring. It should be men-tioned that the "Tiger," had been traced for three miles and when the Judge said to him : 'Sir-I am sorry to see you in a condi-tion which is a disgrace to yourself and family, the Court, and the profession to From the Sacramento district, near Fort Mohave, regular shipments of ore which you belong." The reproof elicited the following col-

The news from the Vulture is as flatterloquy

Did your honor speak to me?

'I did, sir, I said that in my opinion, you disgrace yourself and family, the Court, and the profession to which you belong, by your conduct. 'May i i please your Honor, I have been an attorney in in in this court for 80 on rears, and neurily in the to the your your fifteen years, and permit me to say, your Honor, that this is the first correct opinion I ever knew you to give bysza c

A Masonic apron, made by Mad-ame LaFayette, and sent over to this country as a present to General Washington, is now in Masonio Hall, Philadelphia. General' Washington's own Masonio regalin, which he wore, belongs to Washing-

A vinegar hearted old bachelor mays he always looks under the head of mare riages for "news of the week." risges for "news of the week."

A contemporary says, "The first young man, to a modest girl." No, printers were Titans." There are a good John," and she, "bat you can have mell many "tight uns" among them still.