Thomson.....J. B. Whitney.

A few of the above townships omitted to instruct their delegates whose name to present, and the Convention was obliged to select names for them. The motto to be adopted by the incoming Committee is "Across" and we would ask each member personally, Are you prepared to subscribe to it? If there is one that is not, let him so inform the chairman that his place may be filled by a Democrat of the "true tribe" one who is able and willing to buckle on the full armor, and wage an aggressive war for the "life" of republican institutions, the "liberty" of the people under a wise Constitution and the unflin-ing "pursuit" and final destruction of Radical "centralization," corruption, and wholesale plunder, and who will not retract until the last would be tyrant is an necessary virtue.

In pursuance of the above motto the members of the Committee are hereby notified to meet at the Office of the Montrose Democrat, on Wednesday, September 13, (the second day of the County Fair) at 2 p. m. for the purpose of a full and thorough organization and the transaction of such other business as may come before it.

E. B. HAWLEY, Chairman.

Very White.
 The editor of the Montrose Republican, last week made a very mild allusion to the "Evans fraud," and without having been instructed by "secret circulars" or otherwise from the chairman of the Radical State Central Committee, undoubtedly supposed the same tactics were to be adopted as heretofore in such cases, which was to say that the "Republican party is not to be blamed for the acts of its officers, we can't help it," and allow the culprit to escape with his booty, making a scape goat of him to shield those higher in office, giving a sort of a sham investigation of the affair to appease the wrath of an indignant people. But this week the readers will hunt in vain for the slightest allusion to the affair in his columns. What has produced the change so suddenly? A "secret circular" from the State Committee instructs the Radical press that silence on this affair is the only hope for salvation in October. It won't do even to denounce Evans, for in so doing they convict his accomplices, who comprise the whole Radical State government. An investigation of this affair will show that the $3,000,000 stolen in this State is but a drop in the bucket, as many of those war criminals in the first place had no legal foundation and were rejected at Washington for want of any foundation until a ring was formed to carry them by corrupt influences, composed of Radical politicians, bankers, and editors in every State, colluding with a "sweeping ring of Treasury clerks at Washington," off the honest tax paying voters of this Nation either Republican or Democrat, are started with this state of affairs let them vote in October for its continuance.

"Bill From the Coffee Pot."

The Democracy of this State are deeply obligated to the editor of the Montrose Republican for publishing the following earnest and high-toned appeal to the true men of the country, emanating, as he says, from the Hon. W. A. Wallace, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee:

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, CLEARFIELD, Pa., July 17th, 1872.
Sir—I address you as an earnest and active Democrat. The present contest is one of great importance, and its results will be potential upon the Presidential election of next year. The tide is in our favor, and the extravagance, misrule, and negroism of the enemy are silently but surely destroying them. Notwithstanding this, they possess the spoils and offices, and will make a desperate struggle to hold them.

The secret of success is attention to details. It is for you and those you call around you to work out these details in your locality.

*Get ready to poll every Democratic vote.
 If this be done, our majority will be very large. Now is the time to begin the work.
 Do not wait for your associates. Go at it yourself, and they will follow.*

Search every Democrat is registered.
 See that no fraudulent names are put on the lists. Mark down suspected names, and trace out the fraud. They will commit any fraud that will get them a vote, and then prate about honesty. Make out your lists of reliable Democrats, honest Radicals, and doubtful men. Go over these lists and compare them with the registry, and verify and correct them.— One will be a check upon the other.
 Bring influences to bear upon the doubtful men; use every fair argument to convert them. Set before them the characters and records of our candidates. Both are spotless and above attack. Give me the names of the doubtful men in your district, as far as you can, but do not neglect Democrats in order to attend to this. Let your great object be to poll every vote—make this the great end of all that you do.

*Ascertain at once who need to be naturalized, and give it attention now. Do not wait until September. The prudent man acts promptly if he wishes to obtain his object. This work can be done now quietly and effectively, and everything on our side made to move without jar or consideration. First, and then devote yourself to fighting your antagonists. Call to your aid the young men of the party. They are the best arm with which to strike.
 They will work with energy, and will be encouraged by your confidence.*

*Harmonize distractions, if any exist.
 Concentrate our people upon the vital issue of success, for in its wake will come power, good government, and the just rights of the people and of the States.*

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
 Chairman.

We publish by way of contrast the following, a secret circular, a copy of which has been sent to every Radical office holder in Pennsylvania, and as one good turn deserves another we would request the editor of the Republican to give it the benefit of his circulation, because if he does not publish the whole truth the people will read the Democrat, and see the "Eastern district."

UNION REP. STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA,
 August 11, 1872.

Sir: The great Republican Party, which has so successfully administered the affairs of the National Government, and a majority of the State Governments during the past year, enters upon the present campaign in the State of Pennsylvania with the confidence that his glorious work in the past has been endorsed by every sincere lover of his State and country. Our party must, in the present struggle for political supremacy throughout the States, add another victory to the many already won, and make Pennsylvania as unqualifiedly Republican in the coming Presidential contest of 1872.

Every effort will be made by the Democratic party to gain control of the House of Representatives, which, under the appointment of Bill passed by the Legislature of '71, gives the Republican party a majority of six members. This majority must be maintained. A Democratic ascendency in both Houses of the Legislature may cause defeat in the campaign of 1872. We ask for your aid, sympathy and active co-operation in the labor and movements which the State Committee proposes to inaugurate during the present canvass.

We, therefore, respectfully solicit from you fifty dollars, and five per cent. on yearly compensation of employees, as a contribution for the use of the Committee. All the funds will be judiciously expended for organizations, documents and meetings.

The remittance should be made by check, money order, or registered letter, and addressed to Gen. Henry H. Bingham, Treasurer U. R. S. C. C., Philadelphia, Pa. Approved.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.

We ask no better exposition of the secret workings of the two political organizations than the above, each emanating from the highest authority in the State.
 The one, Hon. W. A. Wallace, urging honest labor and inciting vigilance to prevent fraud "without money and without guile" willing to rely upon the purity of Democratic principles alone for success.
 The other Mr. Russell Errett, having nothing to present but a chapter of fraud, corruption and tyranny on the part of Radicalism, is forced to the same diabolical tactics that has maintained its power for a long time past, which is nothing less than the most rotten corruption brought about by the base use of money. No wonder that so many of the Radical officials become "defuncts" and steal the people's money, when they are called upon by the rules of their "order" to hand over a large portion of their legitimate salaries to the corruption fund by which to maintain power. It is the policy of the organization, and we should think, from the universal action which governs every office holder almost from the least to the greatest, that it is one of their "by laws" to steal from the people so that, as in the "Geary Evans Fraud," no one can give evidence against another without criminalizing himself, and thus our country to-day is cursed with a thoroughly-organized band of official bandi- ts.

We repeat the question of last week, to those who aided, undoubtedly honestly, in placing our government at the mercy of these plunderers. Are you satisfied?
 You who are not in office, are not called upon by "private circulars" to contribute to this corruption fund, but the tax gatherer politely invites you to "stand and deliver" and through him you furnish every dollar as a large portion of these taxes go to pay this horde of useless officials and through them into the corruption fund.

John Covode, chairman of the Radical State committee in 1869, boasted that he paid twenty-seven thousand dollars to carry the county of Luzerne for Gov.
 Geary. Do you want to be told where this money came from? Did John W.
 Geary pay this out of his own pocket when the aggregate salary for his whole term of office will amount to but $15,000?
 Can the voters of Susquehanna county, who are groaning under the burdens of taxation and hard times, be longer deceived as to their source, when office holders, acknowledged poor at the onset, can pay three times their salary to purchase their election, and in a year's time can count their income by hundreds of thousands? If such is the case we fear for their sanity. To all such we must say "they are joined to their idols let them alone."

"Syndicate."
 The word "Syndicate" has been naturalized in this country by that learned financier, Jay Cooke, who employed an essayist during the war to prove a national debt a national blessing. Many definitions have been given to the word by the enlightened press of this country. Like Burke's definitions of a conspiracy, a "con" "to breathe" and "a spire" "together" "Syndicate" means in the original Sausage "to plunder together," as nearly as we can get at it after consulting Max Muller, George O. Evans, and other distinguished philologists. We have a number of Syndicates in this country.
 The largest is that of Jay Cooke and Company, who have succeeded in hearing many millions by exercising their sharp wits on a patient people.

Then there is the Syndicate of Mackey, Quay and Company in Pennsylvania.
 This financial firm has been very successful in the employment of the unexpended balance in the State treasury. By a skillful use of the funds they have been enabled to control the legislature for a number of years, and to corrupt popular representation at the very fountain. While engaged in this laudable and patriotic public work they have not neglected their own private and personal interests.

The last Syndicate which has made its appearance is that of George O. Evans and Company. Though in operation for but a few years, its success has been most brilliant. Starting out without capital, with no credit but an "unimpaired" resolution of a radical legislature, and with no qualifications but check and the prehensile power of grab, they have succeeded in gathering together more than a quarter of a million of the money of the people of Pennsylvania. The solicitor for the firm is the Hon. P. C. Brewster, Attorney General of the Commonwealth. Principal office in the executive building, Harrisburg. A branch has been opened in the Philadelphia Custom House.—Harrisburg Patriot.

The Fall Elections.
 This Fall the States of California, Maine, Texas, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey and Wisconsin, and the Territories of New Mexico and Wyoming, hold general elections and choose different officers. California votes, on the 6th, for Governor, State officers and Members of Congress.
 Governor Haight is the Democratic candidate for Governor, and Newton Booth the Radical candidate. Wyoming elects a Territorial Legislature, September 5.
 The Maine election for Governor and Legislature takes place September 11.
 Perhaps the present Governor, the Radical candidate for Governor, and C. P.
 Kimball is his Democratic competitor.
 The election in New Mexico, for Delegate to Congress, September 11. Texas votes for four members of Congress, October 4.
 The Democratic candidates are: In the First district, W. S. Herndon; Second district, J. C. Conner; Third district, D. C. Giddings; Fourth district, John Hancock. The Radical candidates are not yet nominated. Pennsylvania elects an Auditor, Surveyor General and members of the Legislature, October 10. On the same day, Ohio elects a Governor, State officers and members of the Legislature; and on the same day, Iowa chooses State officers and a Legislature. Maryland elects State officers and a Legislature, November 7. On the same day, Massachusetts elects a Governor, State officers and a Legislature; also, Mississippi elects a Legislature; Minnesota elects a Governor, State officers and a Legislature; and Illinois elects a member of Congress at large.

A Fire in the Hear!

The Democrats of Northampton county, at a late meeting, passed the following:

Resolved, That while the indefatigable attention of the President of the United States to horses, dogs, brother-in-laws, cousins, and to his domestic animals and family in general, is worthy of the warmest gratitude from these lucky recipients of his bounty, yet his gross neglect of all public business, merits at the same time, the sharpest reprobation of the government of his family and live stock, but a trust for the whole people, and that an Executive who only visits the seat of government when called there by sickness in his stable is not needed at the seat of government at all. And so we mean to put him out.

A Negro in Ky, has been lynched for violating a little white girl. Here is a chance for Grant's Ku-Klux law.

The Special Agent Larceny.

The further this Evans matter is discussed the more humiliating to official honesty does it appear. Although there is no question that over a quarter million of the public funds have been stolen, yet no sort of attempt is made to bring either of the guilty parties to justice.

In fact it would seem that they are to be protected, if indeed not canonized as political saints, who have passed through blessed martyrdom. This sort of princely seems to be taking the place of all others with the leaders of the Radical party. Let a man steal a million of dollars, and the Democratic press refer to the fact, and demand that he be made to disgorge, and forthwith the Radical press write him into a patriot of spotless purity, breathing an atmosphere of balm and spices, and sorely persecuted by a malignant world.

Take "Colonel" William H. Gibson, of Ohio, for instance. He took three quarters of a million dollars out of the Treasury of that State. After a long delay he was tried and a Radical Governor pardon-ed him out of the penitentiary. Because he was persecuted and convicted for his crimes, his Radical compatriots declared he had been proscribed in the cellar, and he was brought out for Congressmen, and today he is stumping Ohio, the trusted leader of the Radical party, boasting that the Radical leaders have stolen themselves rich, consequently there is no danger of them stealing any more.

The ad interim Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Mr. J. M. Boutwell's declamation as a defaulter, while defaulter, everywhere are being promoted to higher offices, and the wreckers of government vessels are taken into the confidence of the administration.

With this universal rule, starting from the President, can we reasonably expect to see Mr. George O. Evans made to disgorge the hundreds of thousands he has stolen, or permitted others to steal?
 We will much more likely see him painted as a rare political saint, jubilant in the midst of his martyrdom—than repentant and pining as a convicted sinner.

Our neighbors of the Irish patch undertook yesterday to read us a family and claimed that nearly all the Radical papers in the State had taken ground against the defalcation. Exactly the reverse is true. The Radical press of the State, with a rare unanimity have either defended the Evans robbery as an honest transaction, or by deliberate silence, tried to hide the truth from their readers. It is not now and then that a Radical paper has had the nerve to come out against this wholesale piracy.

The phase of the matter is one that strikes thinking men in the Republican party very forcibly. The fact that their party organs dare not expose the doings of corrupt officials, is convincing proof, at least, that their transactions will not bear the full light of day. We have a full investigation of the matter, that the true state of the case may be arrived at and published.

Who is afraid of the investigation?
 Is it Governor Geary?
 Is it Auditor General Hartnuff?
 Is it Treasurer Mackey?

Or is it the Judicial State Committee that spent a portion of the stolen funds to carry the State elections?
 We have put these questions categori-cally, and we would like to have a categorical answer. We would like to know of those distinguished gentlemen are smiting together in fear over the matter.
 Let them stand up and then we can tell who they are.

If, on the contrary, the whole theft is to be covered up, let the whole truth be told. They will then hit upon a plan for the investigation of the public affairs that will prove eminently successful.—Pittsburg Post.

Hartnuff and the Evans Syndicate.

The Cameron ring of the republican party is especially anxious to clear the Auditor General's skirts of any blame in connection with the scandalous Evans affair. As we have no such desire, but wish to take an impartial view of this necessary transaction, we ask a candid public to consider the following points, and to decide accordingly:

Auditor General Hartnuff was in office in the year 1867, when a republican legislature passed the unjustifiable law authorizing the appointment of an agent to collect the general government war claims of not more than $5 per centum, with an allowance of not more than $5 per centum compensation to said agent. General Hartnuff has pretended to exercise the duties of Auditor General from that day to this present period. He was then officially bound to know the existence of the law, and from its phrasology and provisions could not but know that he was the creation of a big job for some one of his own party.

When Evans was appointed General Hartnuff could not have been ignorant of the fact, and knowing that fact, it was his duty to examine the bond filed in his department of the State, where he would have found the contract by which Evans was bound to make a semi-annual report of his doings to the Auditor-General and the State Treasurer. Now will General Hartnuff pretend to deny that he was ignorant of these facts, down to the day when the Bulletin made the first disclosure? Until he categorically answers this question, we will take it for granted that he was not ignorant of all the details connected with George O. Evans' appointment to the agency above referred to. While Auditor General Hartnuff cannot pretend that he was ignorant of the very great amount of the war claims of Pennsylvania against the general government, and knowing this, was it not his imperative duty to keep a watchful eye upon the proceedings of Evans? And when the latter failed to make to him his semi-annual report, was it not the duty of General Hartnuff to inquire immediately into the cause of the agent's neglect to comply with his obligations, which was well calculated to excite the suspicions of a vigilant officer? For appearances, however, that not only at the expiration of six months, when the first report was due but ever since then, including a space of four years, the Auditor General has been quite silent, indifferent, and inactive in regard to the doings of the State agent entrusted with the collection of several millions of dollars. General Hartnuff must have been in total ignorance of Evans' transactions, which is incredible, or else knowing in whole or in part, what those transactions were, how can he now stand at the bar of public opinion with uplifted hand and plead not guilty to the indictment of gross and unjustifiable neglect of duty or corrupt collusion. Let the Auditor General choose.
 Either horn of the dilemma will impale him and leave him absolutely unable to fill the important office he now occupies.—Harrisburg Patriot.

The Hudson Trunk Mystery.

Last Saturday about 2.30 p. m., a trunk was delivered at the Hudson River depot, for transportation to Chicago. In moving the trunk about the lid became loosened and a nauseous stench was noticed to proceed from it. Upon opening the trunk, a horrible sight presented itself. In the bottom of the trunk was the body of a young woman apparently about 18 years of age, and was unusually beautiful, with features and a complexion of extraordinary clearness. Her long auburn hair lying in heavy tresses over her shoulders, her hands, though small and slender, showed that she had labored. No cuts or marks of violence were found upon her body.

The supposed author of this horrible crime is in the hands of the police. His name is Dr. Jacob Rosenzweig, a physician doing business at No. 687 Second avenue. He is a German Pole, by birth, and has been in this country several years.
 The missing trunkman turned up yesterday. His name is Pickett, and it was through him that the murder was hatched down.

The house of Rosenzweig was thoroughly searched on Wednesday and some cast off pieces of linen found in the cellar, which may serve as important links in the evidence. The servant girl confessed to the knowledge of a previous abortion and murder committed by the doctor, and Rosenzweig upon being questioned admitted that the story was true. The District Attorney thinks that the evidence against the accused is overwhelming.

The latest account says the remains of the dead girl have been identified as those of Miss Alice A. Bowlsby, of Patterson, N. J., and a third search of Dr. Rosenzweig's house in Second avenue, revealed the missing links in the chain of evidence against the accused. A handkerchief was found in the trunk, with the name of Miss Bowlsby upon it.

New York, August 30.—Another examination was made to day at the house of Dr. Rosenzweig, and resulted in the discovery of important letters, blank death and still birth certificates and a long list of prescriptions. A man who gave his name as Foster, and who said he lived in Sixteenth street, Brooklyn, called on Warden Brennan to-day with his servant girl, who had lived with him some months ago. The woman who accompanied him also recognized the body. The report that the murdered girl was a niece of the Doctor's is not confirmed.

The case of Rosenzweig is now a federal indictment. The number of abortions in the City of both sexes is known to be large, one newspaper having business advertisements of no less than twelve of these practitioners. The city press is demanding a general cleaning out of these establishments by the police. It is believed that the indignation of the public will result in securing some action in this direction by the properly constituted authorities.

Rosenzweig told a Times reporter in an interview some time ago that he would attend to an ordinary case for $200, and that he had facilities for furnishing marriages and burial certificates the same as Madame Mesmer and the others had. This much, he said, in the belief that reporter came in good faith to solicit his services; but when he learned that he was only a newspaper man in quest of a full knowledge, he raved and went on like a maniac so that the reporter was in peril of his life.

One very important fact, possibly new to the majority of the public, is brought distinctly out by the interview, namely, that Rosenzweig and many others like him have means for whitewashing soiled reputations committed to their care, as well as a sort of legal blind for committing the remains of their butchered victims to the grave without the intervention of a coroner's jury or a proper certificate of death from natural causes.

THE MYSTERY UNRAVELED.

NEW YORK, August 30.—The body of the young woman found in a trunk at the Hudson River Railroad Depot on Saturday has been identified as Alice Bowlsby, aged 22, of West street, Patterson, New Jersey. Two days ago Dr. Kinney, of Patterson, called at Bellevue Hospital and said that Miss Bowlsby was missing since the Wednesday previous; that she had a vaccination scar on the left arm below the elbow, a mole on the right side of the neck, and a scar under the right side of the lower jaw, caused by an ulcerated tooth. The body was examined and the marks indicated found. The dentist who cared for Miss Bowlsby's teeth also identified the body from the position of the teeth and work done to them.

Inspector Walling made an investigation and learned that Miss Bowlsby left the house of her agent in Newark on Wednesday last to visit this city, and return in the evening to Patterson, and has not been seen alive by her friends since. She was five months advanced in pregnancy, which her family knew, but it is not known that they were aware that she intended visiting an abortionist. Her physician and family desire to keep the previous history of the case from the public, but the Coroner will demand a full exposition.

Jane Johnson, arrested as servant in the family of Dr. Rosenzweig's house says she was a patient and expects soon to be confined too Rosenzweig is becoming alarmed.
 He is aware of the mass of testimony accumulating and it is thought he may yet give details of the terrible story. It is supposed the fatal assumption was performed on the woman Wednesday, and that she died on Friday night of peritonitis.

Garters.

The Richmond Enquirer says: Some New England lady, Mrs. Daniels, we believe—another of the Daniels comto judgment—has invented a new fangled apparatus for keeping the ladies stockings up, which is to supersede the time honored and knightly garter. It may do well enough for those ladies who lack sufficient rotundity of limb, but our Virginia beauties are not deficient in any of the qualities that go to make up the perfect mould of form, and can keep their garters on and stockings up without resorting to any new inventions. What will the Yankees ask us to surrender next? The garter is an old and cherished institution
