Let Every Democrat Remember that the Election of His Neighbor is the Election of Himself.

Meets Tuesday, October 10th, 1892.

THE REGISTRY LAW. WHAT MUST BE DONE IN ORDER TO VOTE.

To the voters of Susquehanna county. Your attention is directed to the following explanation of the registry law.

Read it carefully, in order to ascertain what is your duty in the premises, and see that your names are placed upon the assessor's lists.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS. Will see that the Republican legislature has imposed additional duties upon them.

EXAMINE THE ASSESSOR'S LIST. One of which is posted on the house where the election is to be held, and the other is in the assessor's hands.

These lists should contain your name, and the names of all other qualified voters in the district; they should state if you are a house-keeper, the number of your house; the street it fronts on; your occupation; if you board, where and with home you board; if you work for another, your employer's name, and opposite your name should be written the word "voter."

If you have been naturalized, there will also appear the letter "N." If you have merely declared your intention to become a citizen, the letter "D."

If you are between twenty-one and twenty-two years old, the word "age."

If you have removed into the district since the last election, the letter "R" will appear opposite your name.

Make it your personal duty to see that your name is on the list.

Do not trust this matter to any one else. How to get registered. If you find your name is not on the list, go yourself to the assessor, and make your claim to be put on. He is bound to add your name. He cannot question your right. You need not discuss the matter with him, your claim is enough. Give him also your present residence, occupation, etc. He will mark "C. V." opposite your name.

ATTEND TO THIS AT ONCE. If you delay until ten days of the election, you may lose your vote.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS. You must show your "papers" to the assessor, in order to get your names registered.

If you intend to take out your "last papers" before the election, you must show your "first papers" to the assessor.

See that your names are on the list. Those of you who do not need to have "first papers" and intend to be naturalized before the election, should get naturalized first, immediately; and go to the assessor with your papers.

All naturalized citizens must take their "papers" with them to the polls, unless they have been voting for ten years in the same district.

You must take your "papers" with you, even if your name is on the list.

Do not forget this, or your enemies will deprive you of your vote.

TAXES. The law in relation to the payment of taxes is unchanged. If you have paid neither a state or county tax, assessed within two years, do it without any delay.

Take your last receipt with you to the polls.

Do not delay registering or paying your taxes; attend to the matter now, for fear something may prevent hereafter.

Gen. McCandless performed his military services on the battle-field. Dr. Stanton performed his as a medical director of an Ohio hospital. General McCandless was promoted because of his brave deeds as a soldier—Dr. Stanton because he was the "nephew of his uncle," the Secretary of War. General McCandless came out of the service with a maimed body and impaired health—Dr. Stanton with a good bank account and a whole skin.

The official returns in Kentucky give Governor Leslie 36,979 majority, and Carlisle for Lieutenant Governor, 39,627. A. J. James will be Secretary of State.

California has gone Republican.

A "BILL" FROM THE TEA-POT.

"Not one Republican paper in the State has shielded or even excused the apparent defalcation of Erans, the war claim agent. The State officers are unwilling to arrest and punish him if he is found to be guilty by the proper authority."

The above, which is the most brazen faced and flagrant of misrepresentations that ever has appeared in the Montrose Democrat, we copy from yesterday's issue. That the people may be apprized of the reliability of that organ when it says that "not one Republican paper in the State has shielded or even excused the defalcation of Erans," we copy the following from the leading journals of the State, who were near enough to the Capital to fully understand the workings of the "Ring" so as not to "sloperize" as the editor of the Republican did, and a few other "country" journals, before they received their instructions from the State Central Committee to be "whit."

THE MAMMOUTH STEAL. The Governor appointed Mr. George O. Erans who undertook the herculean task of auditing the accounts of the State Journal, at its residence at Mammouth.

"The supposed defalcations of Erans is no defalcation at all."—Pittsburg Gazette.

"The best and most efficacious answer to the unfounded, unjust and criminal allegations are that George O. Erans is even now at Harrisburg trying to settle all claims the State may have against him."—Phila. Inquirer.

When it became apparent that the little "tamper" was certain to "burst" the Radical "tea-pot," and scald all the hair and hide off from the whole Radical state government, unless something was done to give it a little vent, and after the trial, Erans had been given ample time to escape, undoubtedly, been assisted by his official confederates, and secreted by them, their slow "ung" was started in hot pursuit.

Is there a man, woman or child in the Keystone State who cannot plainly see through the miserable gauze with which Radicalism has attempted to envelope this fraud? If they were not implicated or interested in delaying investigation to shield party criminality, and save its disastrous effects upon the coming election, there would be no necessity for a requisition upon the State of New York for the delivery of Erans, for all honest men know that the authorities at Harrisburg have known all the while and still know to-day where this Erans is, and could have brought him to justice had they so desired. If the people are satisfied with this style, let them continue it, if not vote for McCandless, that the state accounts, so nicely manipulated by the "Ring," must pass under the eyes of the Auditor-General who is not fainting by the influences of a dishonest Radical clique.

Another "Tea-Pot" Bill. We do not see that Gen. Hoffman or any other Democratic officer in New York State or city has taken any steps whatever to arrest or punish the rogues who have, as is well known, plundered the city of millions in the most bare and flagrant manner. There is the difference between the Republican officers of Pennsylvania and the Democratic officers of New York—Montrose Republican.

The above is another splendid "Bill," not of gross ignorance, but a deliberate and intended misrepresentation from the latest issue of the "Republican" when its readers, who read any other newspaper are aware that the committee of Seventy, appointed by the Iowa meeting in New York, have certainly afforded an example of prompt and vigorous action. They have carried out the purpose of their appointment, and already the men accused of a breach of official duty are brought into the Courts; where they must answer the charges made against them. Let them have justice—no more, no less. It is not from the Democratic party that they will get any sympathy, unless they can deserve it, by a vindication of themselves from the charge of "robbing the people."

Judge Barnard has already imposed an injunction upon the city authorities so that no further action of the officers can jeopardize the people's rights.

Judge Barnard, in conversation after his decision, said: "My duty was so clear that I could not escape it. The responsibility of my decision, affecting, as it so seriously does, the government of our city, is with the men who have stolen the money of the tax-payers. It does not rest on the administrators of the law. They have no alternative but to do what they believe to be their sworn duty. The theory that Mr. Connolly is only partly responsible is absurd. The whole responsibility for the signing of the warrants falls upon him. The Mayor certainly commiserated them, but I do not believe the Mayor, by an exercise of human endurance or mental vigilance, can sustain anything like a thorough supervision of the controller's accounts any more than President Grant can exercise a thorough supervision over the accounts of the National Treasury. The executive must give a certain allowance of rope to his subordinates."

In reply to a query of the reporter, "Can this perpetual injunction be in any way dissolved?" Judge Barnard replied: "It can; but not till the General term of the Supreme Court, which meets in December, but practically the people have already got every remedy the law can grant."

Reporter.—Is there any possible escape for the city authorities from the legal effect of this injunction?

Judge Barnard.—None whatever; the law courts have completely stopped any possibility of further hearings. When the present crisis is passed, the city government will go on as usual, but it will have been punished.

All we have to say to the editor of the Republican, is to keep his "tea-pot" boiling, for all that he pours out of it shows clearly that he has no defense for the criminality of his own State officials, but craves "Amnesty" in hopes to divert the eyes of the people from their all important duty of arresting the Radical thieves at Harrisburg. The New York thieves will be taken care of by the honest people of that state, our interest is at home first.

How the Money Goes.

SOMETHING FOR TAX-PAYERS TO CONSIDER.

$1,000,000 of the people's money stolen from the steamer Gladys Hays.

$2,225,000 missing while Secretary Bontwell was Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

$3,000,000 missing through U.S. Treasurer Spinner.

$19,000,000 missing in the Post Office Department.

$3,000,000 missing out of account of sale of arms, vessels and munitions of war.

$1,000,000 missing on account of sale of iron clads to Peru.

$20,000,000 missing on account of collectors of Internal Revenue.

During the past two years the receipts from customs, internal revenues, and other sources aggregated $800,000,000. Of this sum about $200,000,000 has been appropriated to the payment of the national debt, while the "expenses of the government" were estimated at $300,000,000—leaving a balance of $400,000,000 unaccounted for.

Is it any wonder that Republican office-holders can afford to keep expensive carriages, dozens of expensive horses, liveried servants, and houses worth hundreds of thousands of dollars? Is it any wonder that all the leading men of the Republican party are living in a style far beyond their income from their salaries, and yet making money? Is it any wonder that millions in civil life become bankrupt in endeavoring to live in the same style as government officials who are supposed to receive salaries of $8,000 a year?

Is it any wonder that Republican "State Agents" who have failed in gift enterprises, can amass $200,000 to $300,000 in four years in doing business for the State, or that Republican State officers are afraid to prosecute such agents for embezzlement?

$300,000,000 missing in two years! $20,000,000 known to have been stolen, and $20,000,000 more of internal revenue missing under very suspicious circumstances!

Is it any wonder that business is dull, and that tax-payers are complaining?

Is it any wonder that honest men are leaving the Republican party and rallying under the banner of the Democracy?

$100 IS.

This is the whole amount of tonnage tax paid by the Northern Central railway company for the year 1889, as shown by the report of Auditor General Hartranft.

Much is said of the great amount of revenue poured into the treasury by the rich and powerful railroad corporations of the State. Some of them, indeed, do pay large taxes which they collect again from the people in charges on local freights.

But the contribution of the Northern Central in 1889 was one hundred dollars and eighteen cents!

It becomes apparent enough now why there is so much anxiety on the part of the ring to make Doctor Stanton auditor general? He, too, would steal the tonnage of the Northern Central at one hundred dollars and eighteen cents, and might possibly, by the persuasion of Mr. Quay, be induced to let other corporations in on the same favorable terms. It will never do to elect William McCandless to the office of auditor general. He would not prove so accommodating—Harrisburg Patriot.

Eulogy on Surgeon Stanton.

The celebrated wit, Hon. J. Prester Knott, of Kentucky, has been making a speech descriptive of a Radical candidate in that State, which was surely intended for our Dr. Stanton—the hero who never saw service—who is now the Radical candidate for Auditor General of Pennsylvania. We therefore correct, says the Bloomburg Columbian, some extracts from the speech with the case of Dr. Stanton, as will be found below. Our reason for being so particular in giving the public some information in regard to the history of the Radical candidate, is that his supporters refuse to do it. The public want light, and light they shall have.

What deeds of prowess Dr. Stanton might have won upon the glory field, what heroisms of slaughtered rebels might have come down beneath the blinding edge of his trenchant blade, had he ever succeeded in meeting his country's need "upon the perilous ridge of battle," the pen of history will never tell, for ere he had an opportunity to quench his blazing brain in the blood of traitors, he was called from the path of martial glory to the more arduous duties of a contract surgeon.

Now we much needed his services in the hospital, and he was not in all the length and breadth of the Commonwealth, Point Breeze to Erie, who was capable of discharging the distinguished functions of contract surgeon, yet I cannot but deplore the inexorable necessity which compelled him to quit the tented field and bid farewell forever to "all the pomp and circumstance of glorious war."

In fact I consider the absence of Dr. Stanton from the army as the direct calamity that could have befallen our beloved country under the circumstances, for I am satisfied that had the Confederate leaders been convinced that there was no other means of escaping a direct conflict with Dr. Stanton upon the open field, they would have laid down their arms at once.

But when Lee, Johnson, and Beauregard ascertained that he was not with the Federal forces they plucked up fresh courage and determined to prosecute the war to the bitter end.

It can, however, be said of Dr. Stanton, as it can of but few military heroes of equal prowess and renown, that when his tear-dimmed eye rested upon the warlike forms of our soldiers, he had the proud satisfaction of knowing that he never let them into danger in his life.

But while I could dwell forever with increasing raptures upon his delightful triumph, I could not withhold a fitting tribute to his equally brilliant and extraordinary career as a politician.

Endowed by nature with a genius capable of grasping in a single grasp every theory of governmental science, his public life has been a perfect political kaleidoscope, exhibiting every conceivable variety of combination, every principle and tenet of every party that has had an existence on the continent, except the Democratic party, from the hour of his birth to the present moment.

For back in the days of his college youth he was instrumental in the exemplification of the old line Whig party when either the godlike Webster or the immortal Clay, in 1850 the instrument involved, and beheld all the resplendent glories of Know-Nothingism in all the gorgeous sheen of its thousand glittering spangles.

Endly Frightened.

The friends of the defaulter Erans in Philadelphia, are highly scared at the prospect of the ensuing election, and are resorting to all means to avoid defeat.

The Washington Patriot tells us that in order to prop-up their sinking cause, they are asking the aid of the Federal Government, with that end in view, Representative Harmer, of the Fifth Congressional
