A Mississippi Romance.

The arrest of Aaron Burr, at the mouth of Cole's Creek, by order of Cowles Meade, Acting Governor of Mississippi Territory, and his arraignment in the old town of Washington on the charge of treason, the self-possession, ability and tact he exhibited, and the favorable impression he made upon the community are all well remembered historical incidents. He was discharged on giving bonds for his appearance, and his principal bondsman was Col. Benijah Osmun, a native of New Jersey, and the comrade of Burr in the revolutionary war. He was an old bachelor of handsome fortune, a high-toned Federalist in politics, retained his military habits, and was held in high esteem. Col. Osmun was one of the most successful planters in the territory—was the first who commenced to improve our breed of horses, and was renowned for his table and his wines.

His beautiful estate extended to the Half-Way Hill. His land, on his death, were purchased by the late Gerard Brandon, and were given to his sons-in-law, Col. James Smith and William Stanton, two of our most valuable citizens, now deceased. Here Col. Burr resided some two weeks after his discharge, receiving the visits of influential sympathizers, but passing his afternoons in the woods. The Half-Way Hill, then clothed with majestic trees, was his favorite resort. But its refreshing shade and charming prospects were not the only attraction. There lived, at that time, near the summit of the hill, in a little vine-covered cottage, a widow lady Virginia, whose small farm and two or three slaves were the only remains of a large fortune. Her husband had converted his property into money, and on his way to this Territory had been robbed and murdered by the notorious Joseph Thompson Hare, a more blood-thirsty villian even than the celebrated Mason. She had but one child, Madeline, who must still be remembered by a few of our oldest inhabitants, as a miracle of beauty. In form and feature, in grace and modesty, she was all that the old masters have pictured of the divine Madonna, or that artists have dreamed of human loveliness. Those that saw her loved her, yet she was never conscious of the sentiment until she listened to Aaron Burr.

The family were Catholics, and there Colonel Burr went to meet, by appointment, one of his numerous agents and correspondents, the Abbe Viel, a Jesuit priest of remarkable ability. He was born in New Orleans in 1739, studied at Paris, and became member of the Congregation of Oratory. At the dissolution of that body by the French Government he returned to Louisiana, and exercised the priestly function in the parish of Attackapas. He subsequently returned to France. It is probably that Col. Burr, in his projected invasion of Mexico, contemplated securing the influence of the religious orders, and for that purpose had opened a correspondence with the Abbe, and met him by appointment in this secluded place.

At length, after canvassing his situation, with Col. Osmun and six other confidential friends, Col. Burr determined to forfeit his bond and make his way to Pensacola. One stormy night in February, 1807, he set forth, mounted on the favorite horse of his host, and attended by Jerry, a faithful groom, who had orders to go as far as Pearl river. Urgent as the necessity for the expedition, Col. Burr halted till daylight at the widow's cottage, pleading with the beautiful Madeline to be the companion of his flight. He promished marriage, fortune, high position, and even hinted at imperial honors, not realizing even then, a fugitive and branded traitor, the crushing downfall that impended over him. The maiden had given him her heart, she had listened to his witchery night after night, and loved him with all the fervor of her Southern nature. She would have followed him to the end of the earth, and to the scaffold, and her aged mother would have freely given her to the most captivating man, for they looked upon him as a demi-god—but, as with most of our Southern women, virtue and propriety were stronger than prepossession and passion, and the entreaties of the accomplished libertine were firmly rejected. Baffled and disappointed he was compelled to proceed, but promised to return, and carried with him the covenant and pledge of the beautiful Madeline. She was wooed by many a lover.

The young and gallant master of the large plantation in Second Creek at St. Catharines strove in vain for her hand. Fortunes and the homage of devoted hearts were laid at her feet; but the maid of the Half-Way Hill remained true to her absent love, the more so because of the rumors that reached her of his misfortunes and guilt. She lived on the recollection of his manly beauty, and the shades he had most effected were her constant haunts. At length when he fled from the United States pursued by Mr. Jefferson and the remorseless agents that swam around power and authority—when he had been driven from England—and an outcast in Paris, shivering with cold and starving for bread—he seems to have felt, for the first time, the utter hopelessness of his fortunes. And then he wrote to Madeline, and in a few formal words released her from her promise, stating that he would never return to the United States; he advised her to enter a convent should she survive her mother. A year or two after this she went to Havana with Mrs. W., a highly respectable lady, who then owned the property where Mrs. St. John Elliott now resides. Her extreme beauty, her grace and elegance, produced the greatest enthusiasm. The hotel where they put up was besieged. If she appeared upon the balcony a dozen cavaliers were waiting to salute her. When her volante was seen on the Pasco or the Plaza de Armas, it was escorted by the grandees of the Island. She was feted by the Governor General, serenades and balls followed in rapid succession, and the daily homage to her never ceased until the evening bells sounded the Angelus.

Without surrendering her heart, or carried away by universal admiration, she returned to the cottage on the Half-Way Hill. She was followed there by Mr. K., an English gentleman, the head of the largest commercial house in Havana, and to him on his second visit, she gave her hand.

The vine-covered cottage, its trellises and borders, have crumbled into dust. The country lover and innocent maiden are long since dead. But the old hill still lifts its aged brow, wrinkled all over with traditions. A favorite lookout of the Natchez in the time of war—the scene of a daring conspiracy against the Spanish authority—the rendezvous of lovers—the hiding place of brigands, and depot of their blood-stained treasures—mute, but faithful witnesses of the past.—Cut Glairborne in the Natchez Democrat.

PAIN KILLER

Proctor

1840 1870

The "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the great medicine of the world, for there is no portion of the globe into which it has not found its way, and been largely used and highly prized. However, there is no clime to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of a considerable variety of diseases, it is a speedy and safe remedy for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, wounds and various other injuries, as well as for dysentery, diarrhœa, and bowel complaints generally, it is admirably situated for every race of men on the face of the globe.

It is a very significant fact, that notwithstanding the long period of years the "Pain Killer" has been before the world, it has never lost one whit of its popular ity, but on the contrary, the call for it has steadily increased from its first discovery, and to no previous time has the demand for it been so great, or the quantity made here so large, as it is to-day.

Another significant fact is, that nowhere has the Pain Killer ever been in higher repute, or been more generally used by families and individuals, than it has been here at home, where it was first discovered and introduced. That the Pain Killer will continue to be, what we have styled it, THE GREAT REMEDY OF THE WORLD, there can not be the shadow of a doubt.—Providence Advertiser.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Lanzuor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

As occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels miserably well, often finds a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

YOUNG AMERICAN

LINIMENT

In offering this Liniment to the public, as we do in full confidence, that it must supercede all others now in use, as an internal remedy, for the cure of all diseases in the reach of that class of medicines, we can safely assert, without the least fear of contradiction, that it stands unrivaled in the list of medical compounds externally applied for the cure of disease. Feeling therefore that it is unnecessary to puff a remedy so eminently wonderful in its effects, so mysteriously infallible in its powers of relief, causing the deaf to hear; the blind to see, the nerve drawn and cripp'ed rheumatic to walk erect and revolve again in the power and vigor of manhood, this preparation is offered to the public on its own merits, and claims no volcanic origin or essential oils of the Arabian deserts; but on the contrary is what its imports, and is a rare combination of the powers of North American products.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Cures diseases arising from imprudence, habits of dissipation, etc., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinate thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the Urethra allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of disease, and expelling all poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of powerful astringents, been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

USE HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all affections or diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price, One Dollar and Fifty Cents per Bottle.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors Doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

$1000 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Head ache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
