Brnops of the Treasurer's Report. WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 4 .- The Sec. retary of the Treasury in his report says the revenues and receipts show the time has arrived when a considerable reduction in the taxes can be made and yet leave fifty million dollars annually for the reducon of the debt, including the sinking fund. He adheres to the conviction that the annual payment should not be less than fifty millions. Large as the revenues to individuals and where relief is desiraof the luture. The power to negotiate louns at low interest is derived from the exhibition of an honest purpose to main-tain the public faith. The amount of that derived from stamps on spirits, to-bacco, and malt liquors. These will fur-sish one hundred and ten millions dollars, a reduction of sixteen millions. The re-duction of Custom revenue should be within twenty millions. He recommends a reduction of duty on salt, bituminous coal, raw hides and skins, and the removal'of all daties on certain articles used in the arts, manufactured and not produced in this country. Also a moderate reduc-tion upon those articles whose cost will be reduced by these changes. He recomshares and molties to persons officially connected with the government, and suggests that Hie balance of the currency, under the act of July 12th, 1871, be left too distribution as it now stands.

A Word to Girls.

The woman who is indifferent to her looks is. po true woman. God meant woman to be attractive, to look well, to please, and it is one of her duties to carry out this intention of her Maker. But that dress is to do it all, and to suffice is more than we believe. Just because we do. love to see girls look well, as well as to live to some purpose, we would urge upon them such a course of reading and study as will confir such charms as no modesty can supply. A well known author once wrote a very pretty essay on the power of education to beautify. That it absolutely chiseled the features; that he had seen many a clumsy nose and thick pair of lips so modified by thought, awakened and active sentiment, as to be unrecognizable. And he put it on the ground that we so often see people nely and unattractive in youth, bloom in middle life into a softened Indian summer of good looks and mellow tones.
