THE LEGAL ASSOCIATION BILL. It will be seen by reference to our State Legislative report that a bill has been in- the code of "dicipline" in teaching "the troduced into the House by Mr. Beardslee for the repeal of the "disposition of fines ty. We notice by a Harrisburg correspondence of the Montrose Republicau, under date of February loth, that the bill had passed the-House. As it was not introstroduced until Friday, March 1st, the Republican has either misrepresented its correspondent or its readers are to 'be served with the carliest news. The bill was again brought up before the House on Tuesday, March 5, and was "laid aside" a proceedure which brought it immediately before that body for action, and undoubtedly it has passed, but we have not as yet seen any official authority for it. Our authority is the Legislative Journal, which is official and should be correct. These two items, of course, do not cov-notice. A grand daughter of Denn, and another girl, fre-quently anused themselves and others of the scholars by 'throwing kisses' to, or at the negro boy.: The tracher detected them at this, and re-proved them for it; but this did not deter them from repeating it. The teacher told them that if he caught them repeating the offence, he should make them kiss the negro boy was kissed, and a sensation article was manu-factored for the papers, reminding us of 'Great aches from illule toe-corns grow, 'Ac. Labor Beform, Ho !!

The Montrose Republican having read Horace Greeley out of the party proposes, we should think from its last issue, to assume the reins of party government it- "ban of the Grant dynasty" he could not self. It has nominated a labor reform ticket, as is a labor reform ticket, which will be under the "ban of the Grant dynasty," and similar to its "Civil Service

Boss Grant and his "hands" having got the hides off from Learly all of the laboring taxpayers, would, in four years more have time to lan them, and Wilson being a shoemaker could make them up into boots and shoes, which would be a splended "job." and the "High Tariff policy" to protect them would complete the monopoly. Perhaps the editor of the Republican has been promised a pair of boots for his share in the work. We think, however, that the Mr. Greeley that if Grant, and his satelleather is all tanned, and the boots and lites, would not attempt to smother invesshoes ready made to set this possa up in tigation, but rather. conrt it, the prenext
