

Justice at Last.

The McClure-Gray contested election... The Philadelphia Inquirer, the committee, after a protracted and diligent hearing of the case, having awarded the seat to Colonel McClure.

Behind Schurz, Sumner and Trumbull, on the one hand, had Morton, Conkling and Carpenter, on the other, stand the people, who make and unmake parties, and who accomplish reforms as they are needed.

Ordination of a Deaconess. The ceremony of admitting a deaconess into the Episcopal Church was made the occasion of a special service recently in Brooklyn.

Facts Well Stated.

Referring to the try of the Grant leaders and the Grant newspapers against Trumbull, Sumner and Sumner, the Chicago Tribune (Rep.) turns the tables upon the Administration toadies by telling such truths as the following:

Those who are denouncing Schurz, Trumbull, and Sumner, are trying to run the Republican party upon their paucity of Kukluxism, and the very vanishing animosities of a war which ended seven years ago, at the same time resisting every reform and every investigation of abuses.

Applying the Law to Legislators. On Friday the 15th inst., some of the members of the Legislature who voted to prohibit the sale of liquor on Election day, took advantage of their free passes and ran down to Philadelphia.

A Modest Demand. Thirty millions of dollars are asked for to support the army of the United States for the current year, and this too, in face of the fact that for the last year of the war, 1865, Congress gave for the army $1,030,600,400 and for the navy, $122,617,434.

Mastery of Inactivity. The Mobile Register after noticing the mutterings of the Western Democratic press in regard to the inactivity of the chairman of the Democratic National Committee, proceeds to say: "For our part, we haven't the slightest reason to doubt the perfect integrity of Mr. Belmont."

How New Hampshire Indorsed Grant. Of course, says the Manchester Union, it is understood that New Hampshire was bought up.

Death in a Hording-House. Brooklyn, New York has a genuine sensation. It is more interesting because it is mysterious. In Raymond St., Colonel J. C. Jack, a lawyer of some local repute, was found dead in a hording-house.

Beginning to See It.

The N. Y. Evening Post is getting alarmed at the unconstitutional legislation enacted by Congress, and the hold it has upon the Supreme Court as packed by General Grant.

Row-Geary. The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin (Radical) this concludes a leader on Geary's explanation of the Evans business.

Senator March 25. A bill for the relief of certain officers of the war passed. The Committee on Public Buildings reported adversely on the petition for the erection of Public Buildings in Philadelphia.

Proposed Civil Service Reform. The Louisville Courier-Journal suggests that the following be included among the questions to be put to aspirants for service in the civil branch of the government by the proposed board of examining pedagogues:

1. Who is your candidate for the presidency? 2. How much of your salary as postmaster do you think you could contribute to secure his re-election? 3. Can you swear that you are physically strong enough to vote like a man, and in his behalf from now until the polls close?

Senate, March 26. The bill granting the right of way to the Mobile and Grand Trunk Railroad Company was passed. The bill to provide for the irrigation of Bear River valley in Utah Territory, was discussed.

House, In the House, the bill authorizing for the depot of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, between Pennsylvania avenue and the canal, came up, and nearly the whole day was consumed in filibustering, without any result.

Senate, March 27. An appropriation was made from the contingent fund of the Army Investigation Committee. The House amendments to the St. Croix and Bayfield Railroad bill were rejected.

House, March 27. An appropriation was made from the contingent fund of the Army Investigation Committee. The House amendments to the St. Croix and Bayfield Railroad bill were rejected.

sons in number, were found to be sick, and one lady, a Mrs. Norton, aged fifty years, was found lying dead on the floor of her room.
