A Hint to Ball-Goers.

When you find a newspaper on a ball-room floor it is not always proper to pick it up and wonder where it came from and ask unnecessary guestion concerning the peculiarity of the folds A young man did that not long since, and he couldn't get another girl to dance with him during the evening. Accidents will happen in such a bustling throng of people as are generally congregated upon a ball-room floor.

Improvements.

We are enabled to announce 'to 'the public, that there has been a portable picture gallery and a portable blacksmith shop erected upon a portion of the "burnt district" in our boro., and we add (not without some trepidation of mind, however, for fear of its being premature) that a the bondage of the Israelites and smote all the however, for fear of its being premature) that a portable wagon shop is soon to be creeted. Seminary Building Injured. in the late gale, says the Binghamton Repub-tican, a large part of the "Home" building, on Chestnut street, was blown off. The tin is rin ped up, and rolled into a great body. As the building is not occupied or open, we are not aware of the extent of the damage; but an exposure of the kind will be sure to result in large injury, if it is not at once attended to. The persons in charge of the premises are not probably aware of the facts.

Another Narrow-Guage. The Oxford Press says, there has been considerable talk in that town recently of the construction of a narrow-guage tailroad from the coal regions above Reading, to Middletown, on the Delaware railroad, and thence to the Dela- of thorough education and a liberal support of ware bay, via Lancaster, Quarryville, Oxford, Lewisville and Elston. Dead or Dying.

Dead or Dying. Where the hair is naturally dry, you may be sure that it is dying; and unless artificially vitallized, it will soon be as dead as leaves in November. Feed the withering fibers and stim-ulate the torpid scaling with Lrox's KATHAIROS, and the evil, which must otherwise soon culmi-nate in baldness, will be speedily remedied. It is absolutely necessary for the health of the bsain, that it be kept moderately moist with a preparation capable of nourishing and Invigor-ating it. Lrox's KATHAIROS fulfills these con-ditions, and is the only article that actually puts are different the theory which the natural nourishment has censed to pass. (Tbis pure and harmless weightibe preparation is absorbed by the skin of the head to the roots of the hair, and passes into the filaments by the force of capillary attraction.

A Word to Young Men.

One of the meanest things a young man can do, and it is not at all of uncommon occurrence, is to monopolize the time and attention of a definite object, and to the exclusion of other gentlemen, who supposing him to have matri-monial intentions, absent themselves from her society. This selfish "dogin, the manger" war of proceeding should be discontenanced and forbidden, by all pairents and guandings. It prevents the reception of eligible offers of mar-ringe, and fastens upon the young lady, when the sequaintance is finally dissolved, the many who abig and unmerited appellation of "flur."
