On the 15th inst., a miner at the Barclay mines, by the name of John O Brien, was crushed to death instantiy by a fall of coal which had been left too long without being propped. On the 12th instant, in the same mine James Cantwell, a young married man, was blown to pieces in a most horrid manner by the explosion of a key of powder which ignited from a spark that dropped from lamp of deceased while in the act of filling his tin can. After suffering intense agony about three hours death came to the relief of the sufferer. The shock was felt in the mine a half a mile away, and was so severe that lights were suddenly extinguished -Bradford Argus.

Bleeting of the County Committee, Through inadvertancy the report of the meet ing of the County Committee was omitted in last week's issue.

The Committee met on Tuesday the 9th inst. A good number were present, considering the condition of the weather and an interesting meeting was the result. Matters of Important discussed and a unanimity of opinion menailed. After transacting other important ousiness, the following persons were named for delegates to State Convention. E. B.
