WOSTHOSE, PENNA! WEDNISDAY, MAY 8, 1812.

THE FIRST BOMBSHELL. The Cincinnati Convention, to which Radical politicians have been looking in almost breathless suspense, for some twoweeks past, met on Wednesday last and on Friday put "Massa" Horace Greeley in nomination for President, and Gratz Brown, of Missouri, for Vice-President, which has fallen like a wet blanket upon the "Gift-taker," and his office seeking brigade. All the "loil" Grant organs had their editorial drills all sharpened and the powder and safety fuse all purchased, as they supposed, to blow up and demolish the Cincinnati rock, which boded Radical shipwreck, by calling it a Democratic movement, in the interest of rebels and traitors, and that it was another attempt types of honesty, being driven by disgust by Jest Davis and his followers to inaugurate war, reinstate slavery and rebellion, and deluge our land with blood, and by this Radical oratorical climax, ther expected to draw tears from the old women and frighten the children back into the plundering brigade. But when this Convention proved to be a simon pure what can be the character of the official Republican outburst, and placed the father | banditti that remain ! " Good Lord delirof Radicalism at its mast head, showing er us!" conclusively that the corrupt house of Radicalism is divided against itself, they find their supply of amunition useless and their whole army is threatened with a panic. Our neighbor of the Mentrose Republican had an original editorial prepared which he had been keeping in type for a squelcher to the Cincinnati Candidate which consisted of the following powerful words, "Hurrah for Jeff Davis!" but when the news came that not only the political parent of Radicalism, but the patron "saint" of the editorial columns of the Republican was nominated, in his trepidation of mind he flew to his "forms" and added "('s bail)" making this powerful production read, "Hurrah for Jeff Davis ('s bail)." This was a master stroke of policy in the editor, for it would have been a pity to have had such a purely Radical idea and Radical combination lost to the world. We would edvise our neighbor, however, to prepare for a retreat, for in case Grant should decline before the Philadelphia Convention meets and that Convention should endorse "Jeff Davis ('s bail),"his position might be a little unpleasent. Such a turn of affairs is among the probabilities, for as we said a short time since, this plundering pack of Radical official hounds would not only adopt "Jeff. Davis ('s bail)" but Jeff. Davis also, provided it would continue their prospects of power to glut their official maws on a nation's life blood. Herace Greeley built and has kept in requir the Radical house of corruption, and by right of property we feel to grant; him the privilege to build additions, improve, repair, or even tour down; to abate the Mational nuisance, which he himself demakes all such official "whiffets" as Grant

Get Don overpower the demornized enemy, and the re-election of Grant. the banner of true Democracy shall again float from the nation's Capitol. Let not the last of nower tempt us to forsake principles, which would prove the same conree of corruption and inevitable destruction that is now demolishing the Radical Babel, but let us stand upon the true basis, "that I had wather be right than President," and the time is not far distant when truth must prevail.

A bill passed providing for the issue of applicate bonds in cases where the originals had been de-stroyed or defaced. At 5 P. M. the House adjourned.

SENATE, May 1 .- The following were passed by the Senate: Bill changing the time for holding the United States Courts for the Western districts of Wisconsin; bill repealing the provision of the Army Appropriation act of 1870, prohibiting promotions in the staff of the army; bill regulating elections in Washington and Idaho Territories. The Naval Appropriation bill was then taken up. Upon an amendment appropriating forty thousand dollars to make experiments in converting the smooth bore guns in the navy into rifled guns, a long discussion ensued. Messrs. Trambull and Stevenson charged the Kavy Department with extravagance Mr. Volmer, and his wife and five chil-dren, Volmer's mother and his wife's step and maladministration. The amendment was rejected. After further consideration father occupied a two-story building, was rejected. After further consideration which took fire. House -- In the House a hill was pass ed for the distribution of fifteen by breach-loading, rifles and two hundred thousand cartridges among the settlers of Gallatin valley and other exposed points in Montana, to enable them to repel Indian raids. The bill for the organization of the Indian territory of Oklahoma was postpened until next December. The follow-ing bills passed: For the removal of the Flathead and other Indians from the Bitter Root valley, Montana, to the regulation in Montana. To confirm to the Great and Little Osage Indians a reservation is the Indian Territory. The following bill was reported: To abolish the tribal relations of the Miami Indians in two years, alter which the individual members of the tribe are to be citizens of the United States. The House, at one o'clock, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Scoffeld in the chair, on the Tariff bill, and was ter about another. A certain presiding chiler, who was noted for being seldom up to time, seldom very animated, and seldom very brief, once kept a congregation waiting a long time for his appearance, and when at last he did come he preached to the bill. The debate was further continued by Mesers. Kellogg, of Connecticut, and Storm, both of whom favored tariff duties as against the internal revenue system. At 5 P. M. the House took a recess until 7:30 P. M., the evening session being for tariff debate. SENATE, May, 3.—The Senate recon
