VOLUME XXIX, NUMBER 20.

Business Cards.

SHIPMAN & CASE. Saddle, Harness and Tronk makers. Shop in C. Rogers Store Building, Brooklyn, Pa. Oak Harnesses, heavy and light, male to order. Brooklyn, April 2, 1872.—m6 taving located at Jackson Center, Manufacturer o Dealer in Light and Heavy Harnesses. Collars, W Trunks, Saddles, &c. hoping, by strict attention to ness and fair dealing, to have a liberal sha Marth 6, 1873.-no10-m3.

RE. D. STRETTE

BURNS & NICHOLS. OBALARS in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Dye-stiffs, Paints, Oils, Varnish, Liquors, Spices Fance, rt.cles, Fatent Medicines, Perhumery and Toilet Ar-ticles. 13 Prescriptions carefully compounded— Brick Block, Mostrose, Pa.

DR. D. A. LATHROP, ters Electro Thermal Baths, at the Foot of our street. Call and consult in all Chronic

C. E. BALDWIN, ATTORNET and COUNSELOR AT LAW, Great Bend, Penn aylvania.

B. L. BALDWIN.

LOOMIS & LUSK. Law. Office No. 224 Lackawanna Avenue a. Practice in the acreral Courts of Lu-nsquehanna Counties.

W. A. CROSSMON. Attorney at Law, Office at the Court House, in the Commissioner's Office.

W A. CROSEMON.

Montrose, Sept. 6th, 1871.—tf.

MCKENZIE, & FAUROT. eslers in Dry Goods, Clothing, Ladies and Misses fas Shoes. Also, agents for the great American Tes and Coffee Company. [Montrose, Pa., sp. 1, 70,

DR. W. W. SMITH, EXTEST. Rooms at his dwelling, next door east of the Republican printing office. Office hours from 9 A. H. to 4 P. H. Montrose, May 3, 1871—tf

THE BARGER-Ha! Ha! Ha!! Charley Morris is the barber, who can share your face to order! Cuts brown, black and grizzley halt, in bis office, just up stairs. There you will find him, over Gere's store, below McKenzica—just one door. Montrose, June ?, 1871.—17 C. MORRIS.

J. B. & A. H. McCOLLUM. ATTORNEYS AT LAW Office over the Bank, Montre Pa. Montrose, May 10, 1871. J. D. VAIL.

copartic Parsician and Sumeron. Has permanently ated himself in Montrow, ha, where he will promptetient to all calisia the profession with which he may favored. Office and residence west of the Court use, near Fitch & Martine office.

Montrowe, February 8, 1871.

LAW OFFICE. FITCH & WATSON, Attorners at Law, at the old office of Bentley & Fitch, Montrose, Pa.
L. F. FITCH. [Jan. 11, 71.] W. W. WATSON.

CHARLES V. STODDARD, Dealer in Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps Leather a: Findings, Wain Street, 1st door below Royd's Stot Work made to order and repairing done neatly. Montrose, Jan. 1, 1870.

LEWIS KNOLL CHAVING AND HAIR DRESSING.

shop in the new Postoffice building, where he will be found ready to attend all who may want anything in his line. Montrose, Pa Oct. 13, 1869. DR. S. W. DAYTON, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, tenders his services to the citizens of Great Bend and vicinity. Office at his residence, opposite Barnum House, G't Bend village Sept. 1st, 1869.—If A. O. WARREN.

ATTORNEY A. LAW. Bounty, Back Pay. Pension and Exem on Claims attended to. Office C...or below Boyd's Store, Montrose.Ps. [Au. 1, '69 M. C. SUTTON. Auctioneer, and Insurance Agent.

Priendsville, Pa. C. S. GILBERT. Auotionoor.

Great Bend, Pa.

U. S. Auctionoor.

Aug. 1, 1859. Address, Brooklyn, Pa. JOHN GROVES, FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Montrose, Pa. Shop over Chandler's Store, All orders filled in first-rate style cutting done on short notice, and warranted to fit.

W. W. SMITH, GABINET AND CHAIR MANUFACTURERS, -- FOO of Main street, Montroes, Pa. | Jaug. 1, 1869. STROUD & BROWN, IRE AND LIFE INSTANCE ACENTS. At business attended to promptly, on fair terms. Office first door north of "alontrose Hotel," west side of Public Aronne. Montrose, Pa. [Aug. 1, 1869.

BILLINGS STROUD. - - CHARLES L. BROWN ABEL TURRELL,

D. ALER in Drugs. Patent Medicince, Chemicals Liquors, Faints, Olis, by Stuffs, Varnishes, Win Wilsss, Grocerics, Glass Ware, Wall and Window Fa, per, Stone-ware, Lamps, Rerorenc, Machinery Olis, Trusses, Guns, Ammonition, Knives, Spectacles, Sarashes, Fancy Goods, Justify, Carly, D. W. SEARLE, TTORNEY AT LAW, office over the Store of A. Lathrop, in the Brick Block, Montrose, Pa. [aul & DR. W. L. RICHARDSON, HISICIAN & SURGEON, tenders his profession services to the citizens of Montrose and vicinity. Office at his residence, on the corner cast of Sayre Bros. Foundry.

[Aug. 1, 1869.

DR. E. L. GARDNER,

PUTSICIAN and SURGEON, Montrose, Pa. Give-especial attention to diseases of the Heart and Lungs and all Surgical diseases. Office over W. B. Dean.s Boards at Searle's Hotel. [Aug. 1, 1869.

HUNT BROTHERS, BCRANTON, PA Wholesale & Retail Dealers in

HARDWARE, IRON, STEEL, NAILS, SPIKES, SHOVELS BUILDER'S HARDWARE.

THIDER'S HARDWAILE,

MINE RAIL COUNTERSUME & T. BAIL SPIKES

CARRIAGE SPRINGS, ALLES, SKEINS AND BOXES, BOLTS, NOTS and WASHERS,

PLATED BANDS, MALLEABLE

FELLORS, GEATS, PUDIES, BOWS, de.

ANYLIS, VICES, STOCKS and DIES, BELLOWS
HAMMERS, SLEDGER, FILES, de. de.

CIRCULAR AND MILLSAWS, BRITING, PACKING TACKLE BLOCKS, PLASTER PARIS

CREENT, HAIR & GHINDSTONES.

PRENCH WINDOW GLASS, LEATHER & FINDINGS
FRENCH WINDOW GLASS, LEATHER & FINDINGS

LISTON, MATCH 21, 1823. 17

IMPROVED HUBBARD

PATRONIZE HOME MANUFACTURE! CHANGEABLE Speed and Double Drive Wheel. It holds the Great New York State National Premium ! Also the Great Ohio National Premippes, held at Mans.

An the Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia State Premiamesi Fremishes
The genting is simple, compact, removed antirely from the drive wheels, and enclosed in a nest case, in the canter of the machine, effectually securing it from geit and dust

Most poets sing of sweet sixteen,
As if that age would do;
I sing a sweeter, riper age—
Deligh full thirty two I
The age of beauty rounded out
As plump as any peach,
And quite as tempting too, when not
To far above our reach I I sing the age of wit and grace,

I sing the age of wit and grace,
And sweet, enchanting wiles;
Of faces sparkling o'er with mirth,
And full of dimpling smiles;
Of eyes that look into your own
As it they'd look you through;
And set you crazy by their depth
At charming thirty-two! Prescriptions carcium
Prescriptions carcium
Prescriptions
Anos Nichdis. Pob. 21; 2819.

I sing the graces of the mind
That years alone impart,
Or, what is more attractive still,
The graces of the heart;
The virtues that improve by age,
As generous wines will do,
That flash far less at sweet sixteen
Than sparkling thirty-two. eases. atrose, Jan. 17, 'T3.—no3—1f.

J. F. SHOEMAKER. Attorney at Law, Montrose, Pa. Office next door b the Tarbell Itouse, Public Avenue, Montrose, Jan. 17, 1873.—no3—ly.

AT LAW, Montros alt. Esq. ., August 60, 1871. tf.

I sing of Cupid open-eved,
Not blind and bandaged too,
Who, when he wings his brightest shaft,
Aims well at thirty-two. I sing of woman's crowning dress—
The virtues that she wears
With more becoming grace and art
As she improves in years;
I sing the sweetest, ripest age
That man e'er had in view
When seeking happiness for life—
The age of thirty-two. WM. D. LUSK.

I sing the sweetest time of life
For beauty held in store,
And doubly sweet as "sweet sixteen,"
As two and two make four;
The fact is, figures cannot the,
And this plain truth is true,
Exactly two times sweet sixteen
Makes one sweet thirty-two!

Makes one sweet thirty-two:
I sing the glorious honey moon
'That lasts from year to year,
And always grows more honey sweet
As Autumn leaves appear;
I sing the heart that's always young,
Whatever time may do
To nip its fragrance in the bud
At glorious thirty-two.

I sing of beauty unadorned,
Of native grace and art;
Of love that wins and captivates
The mind as well as heart;

Boct's Corner.

DELIGHTFUL THIRTY-TWO.

BY R. W. WRIGHT.

I sing the little archer boy,
With eyes as rogaish bright
As when he left the skies above
And closed the gates of light;
When Qenus bandaged both his eyes,
And bade the boy adieu.
Lest he should find a heaven on earth
In charms of thirty-two.

sing, in fine, the Paphian queen, Whose charlot drawn by doves, White-wing'd and pure would ever seem
To typify our loves,
Loves that approved by Heaven's own law,
And all that Heaven holds true,
Shall make our sweethearts and our wives Both one at thirty-two!

Let England sing "God save our King," Or "Queen," as it may be; I sing a nobler sentiment For pround America! God save our sweethearts and our wives All loving, good and true,
And we will keep our "honor bright"
For them at—thirty two!

-Fine Art for April.

BIS CHOICE. It alu't so much how you get there, So long as you're there at last, One can't be squeamish traveling, If he wants to travel fast, Life is so short at its longest pull, So rough in its smoothest part, It stands a fellow to know the ropes Before he makes a start,

Now, I got stuck in the first day's march, And I've staid stock up to date;
You think I'd better be getting ahead,
Than giving advice—eh, mate?
But there you're wrong, for the man who falls
Has scented the pitfall out;
And so to my failure, the people say
There isn't a ghost of a doubt.

Fve seen a fortune before my eyes,
But mud lay thick between;
And leaving the mud, I left the prize
For those less nice than keen.
Folks turned their becks as they waded through,
And groaned as they splashed about,
But changed their tune as they neared the shore,
And cheered as they waded out.

What if they hadn't got out? why, then
They'd have sunk in the mire, of course,
And the voice of the world would have change
And croaked till the air was hoarse. [again
What should I chose, could I live once more?
Well, there you've got me, Dick;
For the clean highway is a barron place,
And mud—well, mud will stick.

But if what we miss when we travel here, We get when we journey there, think, were I to live over again, I'd take path that's bar or when it comes to the settling day, When kinds and sorts are clubbed. think—though here you must judge for your rather be filed than scrubbed.

Brevities and Witicisms.

—A modest traveling agent requested in Iowa pastor to recommend his gas burners from the pulpit.

-Mra Franklin, of St. Louis carved her

—A New York reporter mournfully speaks of having seen "some of the love-liest ear-rings in the dirtiest ears imagin-

Miscellaucous.

OUR OLD HOME.

BY SUE.

When father died mother became low spirited that she did not take any in terest in anything about the place. "Do as you like, girls," was her reply to every question we asked her. I become so discouraged that I did not care what really became of us. Father left us but a few acres of badly tilled land, and a house as old as the hills—the old cottage he was born in.

Mary Ann kept her spirits in a hopeful state. She said as long as we had mother left, and a shelter for her head, we all might be thankful, and go about our duties cheerfully. Mary Ann was differ-ent from the most of us—she was like the Morgans, mother's family.

"But this old place will never pay a farm hand, and Jennie is too small to help much," feeling as I spoke, rather hopelessly. "How were we to live?" I asked was small, only sixty acres, not much like the lost one. Sam Jay bought it, and we felt it had fullen into good hands. He would be kind to the stock, which went with the place.

The last week in March we moved to the old home on the hill. It had stood empty for years. Once in a while father used it for corn and grain, when the har-vest was plentiful; it had been a sort of a store house for a long time. I managed the inside of the house, and soon had it in good order. The rooms looked cheerful. Mother brightened up, when everything was fixed. The memory of her early wedded life clustered around its bearth.

"I am not going out again to day, and will change my dress. Would you like to have me sing to you, mother?" she said, cheerfully.

She said, pointing to different parts of the sitting room—she was growing rather queer—"Your father sat there the night John came horse from college. How proud we were of John. There is where the table stood on which they placed his coffin the day he was buried. And there was Nedde's cradle—little baby Ned, who fell from the door-sill younger summer, said Mary Am Leving the seeds and roots would grow with the smallest amount of work; and together they studied how to make the farm pay the best. The first year was a perfect success. Mary Ann cleared from her oats hay and corn, nearly five hundred dollars. Jamie was kept at school. Mother was cared for like a lady, and we felt comfortably Sam Jay spent long winter eve-nings at our house, reading books and pa-pers with Mary Ann.

So the spring came round again and we had our hands full. "Doing the chores" fell upon me; the burden of milking the

The operation can be changed instantly from a high speed to one a third alover, without stor, then adapting itself to bad places and then the arrow of the stant mattines."

Some one has challenged Weston to one attent inherical. It is depend something and the world. An account of eatent inherical, it is depend something and the world. An account of eatent inherical to a to operate the proof of the proof o when his name was mentioned.

There was a gay party down to the Jay mansion; Sam's two sisters were home from a boarding school. They brought a mansion; Sam's two sisters were home from a boarding school. They brought a number of their schoolmates with them. Sam had forsaken us—we thought. He had not been to see us for three weeks. Mary Ann saw him riding every day with a dark-eyed girl from the city, and once they passed the field where Mary was weeding corn. He lifted his hat gracefully, but the beauty by his side laughed sneeringly, saying, "What rustio beauty is that?"

The counterfeit wines for which Cette, in the South of France, is principally noted. And the south of France, is principally noted, and sheary, port, Manderia, Malaga. Cyprus and Lisbon—the last a kind of sweet sherry. It also exports a large quantity of what is termed Burgandy Port, principally to the United States. Cette likewise produces counterfeit twines for which Cette, in the South of France, is principally noted. The south of France, is principally as the sout a frightened tone; "you do look dread-fully, Mary Ann."

"No, dear mother, I am only weary;

pulling weeds in the hot sun gave me a dreadful headache." I thought of Sam, and that he had given her the headache-heart and head both.

She knew mother was troubled, and

Abuse of Mothers-in-Law.

-Mra Franklin, of St. Louis carved her husband with a butcher knife because he did not vote the Democratic ticked.

-The California Legislature has passed a bill that "religion shall neither be taught nor practical in the public schools."

-Newburyport hells was so indis.

-Newburyport hells was so indis.

-A Newburyport hells was so indis.

-A newbury whole race of mothers-in-law. We think the joke has been carried too far, and that —A Newburyport belle was so indiscreet as to swear audibly because her foot became entangled in a rebellious "skeleton."

Some very fine rose bushes and a up their cause. The mother-in-law of the box of rare flower-seeds were sent us from stage is not always nor often that lady in the city, and caused Mary Ann to pay real life. The land is full of good mothers are gard to horticulture. I knew ers-in-law, and they greatly output her small broad language. some extra regard to horticulture. I knew ers-in-law, and they greatly ontnumber. Sam gave the seeds and wondered if her the bad, whether they be the maternal small brown hands had not opened a parent of wife and husband. It is very wound in his heart. He was very kind to wrong to treat all as cross-grained old —A man in Oregon has sued to recover us all, I believe; he managed to find a hard, meddlesome busy-bodies, domestic man to do all the hardest work. He did tyrants, or mischievous disturbers of the senting his wife strong and healthy when not like to see Mary Ann's hands sun-family peace, because a few bad examples she has turned out sickly and prevish. burnt and blistered. She was so merry have been found. Let each in his circle out of seven divorces granted recently by the Supreme Court in Boston, five of the wives were named Mary, and four of the husbands named John.

—A Southern paper our credulity with this: "A Florida negro aic two passions of dried apples on a begin at the town pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with the two pamp, and burst."

—A Southern paper our credulity with two of nature and life—her kindly feel—with those who seem only to have been found. Let each in his circle as eleady advance in American iron for mothers-in-laws who make themselves, burst and fifty cents for twelve lines."

—Children will ask queer questions, advance in copper, brass and other means of which the revolution has suddenly deprived her, and their day and generation through advance in copper, brass and other means of which the revolution has suddenly deprived her, and their day and generation through advance in copper, brass and other means of which the revolution has suddenly deprived her, and their day advance in American iron for mothers-in-laws who make themselves, bust over the list of acquaintance think over the list of acquaintance in American iron for advance, or editions of acquaintance think over the list of acquaintance in American iron for advance, or editions of the steady advance in American iron for the treatment of a steady advance in American iron for mothers of themselves, bust of acquaintance think over the list of acquaintance think over the list of acquaintance in American iron for themselves, bust of a beautiful as it was touching.

Sam was a gentleman of refinement and mental cultivation. His manly qualities most worthy and a mest necessary class invested him with a wonderful charm, of ladies should cease. If there be skele-

-Subscribe for the DEMOCRAT.

Counterfeit Wines.

The counterfeit wines for which Cette, but a sneeringly, saying, "What rustic beauty is that?"

Mary Ann heard her ask this in a haugaty tone.

"She is beautiful, but not rustic; she is a queen among women," was his gay reply.

Mary Ann heard this answer, and felt differment the weeping. She finished her work bete the tore tea, and came to the house looking as if she had seen a spirit. She was as lent; trade produces considerably more lessly. "How were we to live?" I asked of her.

"I shall farm it myself. You take care of the house and keep mother from freting, and I will see to the farm," said Mary Ann cheerfully.

"It was getting along in March, and were so confused about father's death, and the loss of our dear homestead, which went to pay father's debts. The old home was year John died. I don't think father went to pay father's debts. The old home was year John died. I don't think father bost one. Sam Jay bonght it, and we felt it had fallen into good hands. He would be kind to the stock, which went was very pround also moderate amount of Maderia. The moderate amount of Maderia. The moderate amount of Maderia. The moderate amount of Maderia amount of Maderia. The moderate amount of Maderia. The wines of an intermediate quality are reserved for Russia, Sweden and, the north served for Russia, Sweden and, the north work of Europe York receiving what no other nation, save perhaps some of the South American States, would admit.—N. Y. Standard.

Mysterious Mrs, Mason.

Donn Piatt gives in the Washington Capital a glimpse at the mysterous lady who has figured in the French arms sale who has figured in the French arms sale business. He says "she has been commented upon and inquired about in the liveliest manner. She gives a color of romance to the dark transaction that pipues our iosity to the furthest extent. Mrs. Mason is now in Washington. Many will remember a tall, well-formed lady, with a tive to it, the qualifications shall be related to the firm of the property of the

she went about it in good earnest too.
Soon the farm buildings and yards were in splendid order, the fences whitewashed,
"Sing The dearest spot on earth to is said to have inspired the resolution and she ornamented the garden with shrubs and flowers. Sam Jay allowed her to take all the plants she loved best from his garden. They were hers and he would not deprive her of them, Hesenth his hired man to plow up the five acres lot, and came up lumself to help her tog-dress the west field and the lower meadows. She displayed a wonderful lot of thrifft, the neighbors said. We had three cows and fifty-eight hens, and by good management, I made the cows and fifty-eight hens, and by good management, I made the cows and hers provide food for the family. We had pork and beef left from last year.

We got on finely. Vines and climbing roses rendered our back kitchen one of the pleasantest rooms in the house. Sam Jay used to sit there and talk for heart with Men and to sit there and talk for heart with Men and the lower management, I made the cows and fifty vight hens, and by good management, I made the cover and the plants had been duly published, between a house of the pleasant strooms in the house. Sam Jay used to sit there and talk for heart with Men and the lower management, I made the cover and here it in the control of the pleasantest rooms in the house. Sam Jay used to sit there and talk for here. and beef left from last year.

We got on finely. Vines and climbing roses rendered our back kitchen one of the pleasantest rooms in the house. Sam Jay used to sit there and talk for hours with Mary Ann about the farm, and what with Mary Ann about the farm with Mary Ann about He opened his arms and strange into them, and was aithful heart. Brother Sam ing, now.

He opened his arms and the law provides a penalty of $1,500 kept two of these blood-thirsty insects against the minister solemnizing the marriage of a minor under that age, though eighteen years is the legal age for women of the proves that they have not loss flesh or declinerable to the contraction of the proves that they have not loss flesh or declinerable to the contraction of the contraction of the proves that they have not loss flesh or declinerable to the contraction of the proves that they have not loss flesh or declinerable to the contraction of the provides a penalty of $1,500 kept two of these blood-thirsty insects and they have not loss flesh or declinerable that age, though the provides a penalty of $1,500 kept two of these blood-thirsty insects and they have not loss flesh or declinerable that age, though the provides a penalty of $1,500 kept two of these blood-thirsty insects and they have not loss flesh or declinerable that age, though the provides a penalty of $1,500 kept two of these blood-thirsty insects and they have not loss flesh or declinerable that the points in th eighteen years is the legal age for women ed in vigor, which proves that they have or irls contracting marriage. A mar- no occasion whatever to disturb our slum-The Richmond Inquirer has the follow- form at the clerk's office in Ellicott's City, blood of our people. ing sensible suggestions in reference to but the priest, when forbidden by the guardian to celebrate the marriage, would husband proposes to leave early this morning for New York where it is supposed they will be made happy .- Ballimore Sun. It is estimated that Sweden and Norway will not produce more than a

A grocer had a pound of sugar re-turned with a note stating "too much sand for table use, and not enough for building purposes."

The Elehis of Some Women

We have in mind two among the most agrecable women we have ever met, both in manners and general cultivation, who in manners and general cultivation, who are fitted personally to adorn any drawing-room, and who can converse intelligently on any subject which may be broached there, but who are not in general society, in the town where they live, simply because one of them is a dressmaker and the other milliner. Both device this cracia was to read the contract of the contract o vote their evenings to reading and study; in the n they travel, they hear the best music, and case, $5. d is a queen among women," was his gray reply.

Mary Ann heard this answer, and felt like weeping. She finished her work belie weeping. She finished her work belie that there is little doubt that this fraudulent trade produces considerably more than half a million gallons annually. The her, for I knew she had seen Sam Jay riding by with a lady, and knew Mary Ann thought more of him than was good for the peace of her soul.

Mother saw how ill she looked, and remarked about it. Mother was very pround and fond of Mary Ann. She resembled John, who was mother's idol while he lived. Jamie and lived.

by Mrs. Jones, who never speaks to you in the shop except to give an order? Or do you even care much for her kinder and more thoughtful neighbor, whom you also here we have you have not here you the ways like to serve, because of her gentle ways, when she urges you to come to these sociables and "get acquainted," and never would think of asking you to her house for that purpose, no matter how unexcep-tionable your English and your dress?

Our rule is not so revolutionary as it the sitting room—she was growing rathther querer—"Your father sat there the night John came home from college.

How proud we were of John. There is where the table stood on which they place this coffinithe day he was buried. And there was Nedde's cradle—little baby Ned, who fell from the door-sill yonder, and rolled down the stone steps on his head, breaking his neck."

You see she was bound to gather up all the sad events in her life, and hold them in view like monrning garments.

The departure of the snow revealed an nusightly array of, refuse lumber round the house, broken carts and wagons, which (ather had thought to good to cut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards, which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards,
which (ather had thought to good to
tut
up. A pile of stumps and old boards, whose rugged and ugity proportions effectually warded off the best view of the fine manision in the valley, was Mary Ann's first attack. She was bound to have a clean door-yard and surroundings, and she went about it it in good earnest too.
Soon the farm buildings and yards were

Soon the farm buildings and yards were

Wath shall I sing, mother;?" she said

Wath shall I sing, mother;?" she said

Wath shall I sing, mother;?" she said

Wath shall I sing mother you sing, that head, brain a mamment, and and moment, and the radevents in her life, and one will be reve see fell of see.

"I'll change my devent in a mamment, and she was hound to gather up all title said event sin her life, and one will have devented in the ways, but evidently pos-

she went about it in good earnest too.
Soon the farm buildings and yards were in splendid order, the fences whitewashed, and the doors which had hung on one hinge gracefully hung on two; windows were mended, and, lastly, she obtained paint and brushes, and actually painted the honse and outbuildings. People passing would wonder what power had transformed the old place. Instead of the wood colored house, broken fences and ansightly sheds, we had a new white cottage, with plain, substantial fences inclosing a clean

"What shall I sing, mother," she said smilling, mother, "she said to have inspired the resolution with the Cuban cause, and she "Sing The dearest spot on earth to me," said mother; "And then if you will draw up by General Dyer, authorizing three battle of Ramilies, Marshal Villeroy's wig was found among the captured buggage. Of course it was a magnificent peruke, and the Duke of Marky and could frequently be seen in earning the sale of arms. She was the confidential and adviser of Generals Gordon and Ryan and could frequently be seen in earning would wonder what power had transformed the old place. Instead of the wood colored house, broken fences and ansightly but one. She sang "Home, ly sheds, we had a new white cottage, with plain, substantial fences inclosing a clean "Mother was weeping softly behind her Marriage Postponed.

"Marriage Postponed.

"After the battle of Ramilies, Marshal Connection with the Cuban cause, and she "Villeroy's wig was found among the capture drawn up by General Dyer, authorizing three duggage. Of course it was a magnificent peruke, and the Duke of Marking and adviser of Generals Gordon and Ryan and could frequently be seen in earning the sale of arms. She was the confidential and adviser of Generals Gordon and Ryan and could frequently be seen in earning the sale of arms. She was the confidential and adviser of Generals Gordon and Ryan and could frequently be seen in earning the sale of arms. She was the confidential and adviser of Generals Gordon and Ryan and could frequ

-The story is told of a negro who was this subject:

"It is the fashion just now, both on the stage and through the press, to denounce, abuse, or make 'game' of the law, and the stage and through the press, to denounce, abuse, or make 'game' of the whole race of mothers-in-law. We think Religious the content of the subject to come to Baltimore for combattle here. In the called their "upsettin sins."

Bruadian to celebrate the marriage, would not in the grow who was not income to reach the marriage, would not in the grow who was not income to relevant the marriage, would not in the grow who was not income the risk or sanction an implied by the present the marriage, would not in the grow who was not income the risk or sanction an implied by the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the marriage, would not income the stage and through the present the stage and the stage an

An editor and his wife were walking out in the bright moonlight one evening. Like all editor' swives, she was of an exceeding poetic nature, and said to her mate, "Notice that moon; how bright and calm and beautiful!" "Couldn' think of noticing it," replied the editor, "for-any half supply of iron for the present year.

This condition of affairs abroad has caused and fifty cents for twelve lines."

building purposes."

analored with the same lady. A friend out with that implement the heresiss asked her which of the two suitors she complained of, when the clergyman prointended to favor. She replied that "it nounced a hasty benediction, and, assiscannot walk, sixteen nails and cannot was difficult for her to tell, as they were scratch?" A yard stick,

Varieties.

-An English physician has been vaccinated 477 times, to prove to objecting people that there was no donger in it,

-An oysters contains as much nour ishment as a slice of roast beef, and this is the reason why they are recommend for invalids.

—A Gate City lawyer included in his bill against his client: "To waking up in the night and thinking about your of amber and will, in a few moths, com-pletely supersede the tortoise shell jewel-ry, which has held its own for an unus-ually long time,

-Edwin Forrest remains in quite ill health, but with favorable symtoms of recovery. A considerable time must elapse, however, before he can resume the —A Missouri women recently eloped, leaving the following note to comfort the heart of her husband: "Dear William good-bye; do not mourn for the children, because none of them are yours."

-The merchants of Charlestown have presented Lydia Thompson with a mammoth bale of cotton, weighing over 1,400 pounds, bound by blue ribbons, "as a testimonial to worth and virtue." At its market value in Charleston the cotton would bring over $280.

-Ex-Queen Isabella of Spain has been defeated in a lawsuit at Paris, the action having been brought against her to re-cover 161,000 froncs by M. M. Mellerio, jeweller of that city, who had sold and delivered to her goods of that value in the years 1866, 1867 and 1868. -Nothing is of more value to a busi ness man than an understanding of the peculiarities of human nature. A confectioner at the west has made a haudsoms fortune in a very short period by the simple process of keeping a parrot in his store which screams out " pretty creature! pretty crature!" to every lody that comes in. —A gentleman once once visited the State Library of New Hampshire, wishing to counsel Jefferson's "Notes." The li-brarian, who was elected to his office because he was "of use to the party," fum-bled about the shelves for some tme, and then said to the applicant. "I cannot find them, and I presume Mr. Jefferson took them up before he died." -A characteristic ancedote is related A characteristic ancedote is related of an out-at-elbows poet, who, by some freak of fortune coming into possession of a 85 bill, called to a lad and said: "Johnny, my boy, take this William, and get it changed." "What do you mean by calling it William?" inquired the wonderful lad. "Why, Johnny," replied the poet, "I am not sufficiently familiar with to take the libraty of colling it Will."

it to take the liberty of calling it Bill."

styles, which I will trim with more taste and sell lower than any milliner in the city. Opium eaters are getting to trouble-some to apothecaries. We published sta-tistics few days ago showing that on an average every drug store in the city had three customers. A peculiar case has just transpired. The heorine is a single lady of an exceedingly "uncertain age." She says she is nervous and has bad dreams, and nothing but morphia will relieve her. She were out the patience of five different druggists, since the small quantity they allowed her each time obliged her to call often. For the last fortnight she has been pestering her sixth victim. Day before pestering she preferred her usual request, and his good nature broke down. "Can't let you have any," was the curt reply. "Why not?" she asked, with a feigned surprise. "No matter why; I won't." "But doctor what also can I do for me "But, doctor, what else can I do for my poor nerves in such a state?" "Get married," was the cruel rejoinder; and the opium eater vanished.—[N. Y. Com. Adv.

-Late London papers contain the aunouncement of the Princess Pierre Na. poleon Bonaparte, who has opened a mil-iner shop in Bond street. The reason for very intently at another of the teachers, a gentleman with a heavy moustache.

After a long and carnest look, she turned to me with: "Teacher, Teacher! has ventured to differ with the pastor in regard to certain theological tenets. Being capostulated with by the sexton, he pro
—A doctor and a millitary officer became duced a knife and was proceeding to point