THE IN THE GREAT PLATTE VALLEY, Many writers on agriculture are now of the opinion that sheep are as profitable stock as can be kept upon a farm. The old notion that sheep are a scourge on a farm, is giving place to its opposite, that they are a renovator and a blessing, and particularly profitable to a poor farm. A writer in the Southern Farm Homo; snys: "I think I know a first-rate reno-vator will pay for itself, by its own in-crease, in one year, and leave the good it does the land for clear profit." "The writer goes on to say that he was a Southern rebel—came home "dead broke," to a small worn-out farm. He bought in the fall of one year, ten ewes, for $20, put them into a small field, full of nothing but briers and weeds. They soon ate up all the briers and trampled down the weeds.
