Record of the Past and Present.

It will be remembered yet by many, that a corner stone was laid by the Masons and citizens of Brooklyn, at the former building of the Universalist church, in that place, the 22nd of July, 1824. Ebenezer Gere, Esq., addressed the July, 1824. Ebenezer Gere, Esq., addressed the Masons on the occasion. The metalic plate for use, was furnished by a Mr. — Hartshorn, then living in Montrose. The record put on this plate at that time, reads as follows: (I will here say as it may not be generally known, the same society are about erecting a new church, down in the village and while removing some of the foundation stones from the old church, the plate above referred to was also removed, and plate above saferred to was also removed, and found on examination, to have been taken out there, namely, July 23nd, and having laid in the corner just 48 years.) Let us now turn to the

Thus endeth the Records on the metalli plate, and my introduction. After the order and people arrive at the new foundation, the following in substance took place. First, ode by the choir, then reading of an address for the ecasion, by Ansel Sterling. A tin box having been prepared was now neatly comented in the under stone by the Master Mason, and filled with past and present records. Records of the Society in former years, likenesses of old and distinguished members. Also photographs of ew and younger members, periodicals of the day, etc., etc. The corner stone was now placed over the box and contents by the officer in charge, and Past Grand, E. S. Kent, P. H. Tiffany and C. F. Perigo, assisted by their wives, (In the Rebecca Degree,) strew over the corner the water, wheat and flowers. By the N. G. Ansel Sterling, it was declared there to remain forever. The choir now sang a beautiful ode, and a few remarks made by Rev. N.Doolittle, of Factoryville, completed the business of the day.
