

The Elections.

Our readers will excuse us for delaying our paper one day for the purpose of giving them some news as regards the late political contest. We are writing this article upon the back of a fac simile lithographic copy of the affidavit of Charles T. Yerkes, the convicted accomplice of John F. Hartman, who was lately pardoned from the state penitentiary, to dig the last ditch, in which to bury the political honor of the old Keystone State, so honestly and boldly defended by the Democratic and Liberal army of Reform, and we deem it at this time, the fitting parchment to record the victory of Simon Cameron and his satellites of the corrupt Ring. "Did might make right," we should have reason to be dismayed, but as many a former precedent shows, that the most valiant army has been temporarily repulsed by overpowering numbers and intriguing strategy, upon hard fought battle fields, and yet subsequently carried its colors in triumph through the enemy's city, therefore, with no less confidence in the justice of our cause, we shall stand by the flag of Reform, which we have hoisted, though we be the last man who is left to bear it aloft. Nobly have our Liberal allies in Susquehanna county stood by their convictions, and the depleted, exasperated and demoralized condition of the enemy, shows conclusively how effective has been our onset upon the Radical Ring.

With a vote much larger than that which Grant and Seymour received in 1868, when Grant came off with a victorious majority of about 1500, the Ring hold the field by a majority, on Governor, which from present appearances, cannot reach over 800, and on Sheriff, which will fall below 500, and with a poor prospect of electing a Representative in the district.

In the city of Montrose, where Liberal Republicans have been set upon by the most violent manner by the Grant bloodhounds, and even threatened with being ruined in their business, and abused with out stint yet we had THIRTY-NINE Liberals who could not be bought, coerced or bullied into stultifying their manhood, by voting to sustain the penitentiary gang.

The Radicals voted 34 negroes, who never had voted at a Governor election before, including one that was imported from Binghamton, and yet we reduced their majority about 20 from the last governor election. Old Bridgewater increased its majority 16. Susquehanna Depot is entitled to the banner. She gave 95 majority for Buckalew, which is a gain of 134 on the last governor election. Lenox decreased its majority 38, and there are many smaller gains in other townships, so that we go to press with only about 15 towns heard from, we have gained about 250.

In the state we believe with an exchange, that the Cherry Hill certificate of good character has been endorsed by the votes as counted, and the incoming governor is at liberty to call into his cabinet his former creditor, Evans, as secretary of the Commonwealth, and "Dear Yerkes" as his confidential adviser. The freemen, who are jealous for the honor of Pennsylvania, and who gathered around the upright statesman, Charles R. Buckalew, have been overborne by those who preferred party to purity, aided by repeaters and negroes imported from adjoining states. Philadelphia, under the skillful manipulation and unscrupulous management of a corrupting, has rolled in upon us from the east with a radical majority of over twenty thousand, whilst Allegheny answers from the west with nearly half as much. A few of our old staunch democratic counties, who never faltering but true as steel, send us rays of light which shine through the darkness which surrounds us.

Ho! For the Ring!

MONTROSE, Oct. 10, 10 o'clock, A. M.—Dispatches just received here, give the Cherry Hill candidate, J. F. Hartman, 32,000 majority in the State, and it may be made 40,000 if necessary. The Grant Post Masters are accessories through the country, even, stand aghast in view of the flood gates of corruption and fraud, that must sink the State of Pennsylvania into three years more of infamy at our State Capital, by a majority so apparently fraudulent upon the very face of it, that no honest man in either political party can have the heart to defend it. The same report gives Shoemaker 1,000 majority over Woodward in Luzerne and Buckalew less than 1,500 over Hartman.

David P. Lewis, the Grant candidate for Governor of Alabama, was a member of the secession convention, voted against, afterwards signing the ordinance of secession; and then member of the first Confederate Congress, voting supplies and active measures to carry on the war; then lieutenant-colonel of Roddy's First Cavalry Regiment. He is very "loyal" to Grant.

After the Reform Association have sent two members of "the Ring" to the Penitentiary, a third can be elected Governor of Pennsylvania, and a fourth re-elected to the United States Senate, what opinion will the world have of Pennsylvania?

Return of Horace Greeley from his Western Trip.

Horace Greeley reached New York on Saturday afternoon Sept. 28th, on his return from his trip through Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. An immense crowd was gathered at the Hoboken Ferry, foot of Barclay street to catch a glimpse of "Honest Horace." A large force of policemen were present and when Mr. Greeley alighted from the train he was with difficulty gain the carriage, which was waiting for him. Everybody cried "speech! speech!" but the carriage was rapidly whirled away from the ferry, leaving the crowd ungratified in that respect.

In the evening a reception was given to Mr. Greeley at the Lincoln Club in Twenty-first street, when in response to repeated requests he addressed those present briefly and colloquially as follows:

Only a few words, gentlemen. If any good has resulted from my visit to the West the credit is to be laid entirely to our committee here, at whose suggestion I went, and without their concurring I should refuse to go. I was greatly pressed on every side to go out and see the people through the Central States of the Union. They said it was demagogic, and I cannot surely be accused of any personal interest in the election of Mr. Greeley. Our relations have never been of a friendly character. I have not had personal intercourse with Mr. Greeley, nor do I expect to have. I can only stand up and urge you to vote for him, as being a man who would subvert the best interests of his country by laying aside all personal pride, and who would unite the people of the land. [Applause.] I know that some have charged that at an early day his name was suggested by myself. I do not know the man who started this story. I only know that they do not seem to stand upon the strength of their own words, but qualify them with affidavits, which is a virtual admission that their words would not have been believed without them. Unfortunately, they were so foolish as to undertake to read Mr. Greeley's writing. [Laughter.] They made him say that he was in favor of pensioning the Rebel soldiers, but upon a more careful reading they found that Mr. Greeley had written that in 1864 Mr. Chase ought to have been nominated instead of myself. This is as near as they came to the truth in their other charges.

A well authenticated kn-klux case has at last been established in Carter county Missouri. The victims of the outrage were arrested in the middle of the night by men armed and disguised in the genuine kn-klux style, and the head of the visit-d family was removed from the house and subjected to a severe flogging. A part of the band were recognized by the victim, and in due time arrested. When the case came to trial, however, it was discovered that the person who was kn-kluxed was a Greeley man and the kn-kluxers in custody were all Grant men. The court came to the conclusion that the Enforcement act was never intended to apply to such cases as this, and the prisoners were at once discharged.

Postmaster-General Creswell, who has no time for business in Washington, none to prepare the postal card authorized by Congress, none to punish the misuse of the U. S. mails by substituting Grant for Greeley journals, none to hear complaints of Post-office mismanagement, none to note the forged franks, forged under the nose of his Department in Washington and elsewhere, and then through the mails—his busy on the stump in Ohio and Indiana. As he is out, let him tell what he knows of the Chopping frauds, by which the Government was plundered.

A MOVEMENT OF THE PEOPLE.—There is no disguising the fact that Horace Greeley's nomination was a movement of the people, and not of partisans. Grant's office-holders may grind out their absurd and loggish notes about leader's bargains, boiled over, and all such silly trash; but the incontrovertible fact looms out as clearly as the noon-day sun, that Horace Greeley's nomination was forced by the people, and not by party leaders. They bargained for him, and the bargain was that when elected he should use his influence and official power for the benefit of the whole people, and not of a clique or party. That was the bargain made, and we have confidence that the high contracting parties will fully redeem their pledges. That is all the "crow" that will be boiled, and it will be dashed up to Radical office-holders as a sweet morsel of consolation upon their inglorious exit from their positions.

Senator Morton's fifty negro colonists escaped the penalty due their offenses by means of legal technicalities. But the Morton managers will not escape so easily; they are convicted before the people of an outrageous attempt to subvert the popular will by fraud. We believe that this and other such crimes helped to swell the Liberal vote in Indiana Tuesday. It seems impossible that the citizens of a free North-West could vote to sustain a clique which stuffs ballot-boxes and colonizes Kentucky negroes in order to cheat themselves into a new lease of power.

Three men especially involved in the Credit Moblier: Henry Wilson, candidate for Vice-President, Glenn W. Scofield, elected Congressman-at-Large at the election in Pennsylvania, and Jas. G. Blaine, just fastened on Congress for two years more, unless convicted and expelled.

The trial of Tweed, Connolly and others have been again postponed.

It is rumored that $20,000,000 of legal tenders will soon be issued.

Why Democrats should support Greeley.

On last Thursday Governor Seymour, of New York, made a speech at Onondaga, in that State, to a large assemblage of Democrats and Liberals. Among other things he gave the following reasons why Democrats should vote for Horace Greeley:

"We are frequently asked by political opponents how Democrats can support Horace Greeley, who has so many years opposed to us, and who has so frequently and violently assailed our organization. We might parry this question by pointing to differences which once existed between their party and its present leaders. They have denounced us as men laboring to keep alive the elements opposed to the perpetuity of our nation, but now when we are in a spirit of patriotism are willing to make sacrifices in our feelings with the hope of uniting the country, they meet us again with the cry that we are acting in opposition to the traditions of a great and honorable party. I do not suppose that any answer which I shall give can satisfy those opposed to us, but I propose to meet this question squarely, to vindicate ourselves in the eyes of the people of our country, and to satisfy our own minds that we are acting for the benefit of the whole country. If our object was merely a political scheme to elect Horace Greeley, I will admit that it would be inconsistent and unworthy of us; but if, on the other hand, the present condition of the country is such as to demand the sacrifice of our opinions and old affiliations, then it is an honorable thing to lay our sympathies on the side of "that" I cannot surely be accused of any personal interest in the election of Mr. Greeley. Our relations have never been of a friendly character. I have not had personal intercourse with Mr. Greeley, nor do I expect to have. I can only stand up and urge you to vote for him, as being a man who would subvert the best interests of his country by laying aside all personal pride, and who would unite the people of the land. [Applause.] I know that some have charged that at an early day his name was suggested by myself. I do not know the man who started this story. I only know that they do not seem to stand upon the strength of their own words, but qualify them with affidavits, which is a virtual admission that their words would not have been believed without them. Large Liberal Gains in Ohio. Columbus, Oct. 9.—Midnight.—Returns come in slowly. About 200 voting precincts have been heard from. The cities are largely in our favor and contrary districts somewhat against us. So far we are about 10,000 ahead on net gains; but we can't tell how the State will go. Hurd, Liberal, is probably elected in the 11th District. Toledo gives him 1,300 majority, against 1,664 last year. Sioane, Liberal, is probably elected in the 13th District. Sandusky gives him 632, a gain of 600 last year. We carry also the 1st and 12th Districts. Cleveland gives us a gain of 1,800, and Cincinnati about 5,000. Franklin County gives a gain of about 1,000. This kind of vote clear through would carry the State against us by a small majority. R. BURKERTHOFF, Chairman Liberal State Committee.

Triumph of the Ring. At this hour the most probable estimate of Hartman's majority in Pennsylvania is 40,000. This is a great point, and is far above 10,000 which we have far exceeded. We are about 10,000 ahead on net gains; but we can't tell how the State will go. Hurd, Liberal, is probably elected in the 11th District. Toledo gives him 1,300 majority, against 1,664 last year. Sioane, Liberal, is probably elected in the 13th District. Sandusky gives him 632, a gain of 600 last year. We carry also the 1st and 12th Districts. Cleveland gives us a gain of 1,800, and Cincinnati about 5,000. Franklin County gives a gain of about 1,000. This kind of vote clear through would carry the State against us by a small majority. R. BURKERTHOFF, Chairman Liberal State Committee.

Political Riot in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—A serious riot occurred here this evening. As two Greeley Ward Clubs were marching up Broadway, through that part of the city known as Bucktown, the procession reached Fifth-st., and was met by a gang of negroes armed with muskets and bayonets. They commenced the work of slaughter. The Greeley men, to our surprise, at once broke ranks and scattered like sheep. Many of them fleeing up Broadway as close to the houses as they could get, to escape the bullets of the blacks, who continued the firing for some distance. The alarm bells were sounded to bring the police to the scene, and large crowds from all parts of the city rushed to the battle ground, prominently either by curiosity or bent on mischief. The blacks kept in close order, and refused to render their arms to the police, although they were finally induced to enter their arms, where they now are. They will allow no one access to them. It is impossible to get an accurate list of the casualties to-night. No deaths are yet reported, but five men, all white, are known to be wounded, one quite seriously in the thigh, another in the knee, another in the arm, one in the hand. Crowds of excited people were gathered in the neighborhood until a later hour, threatening vengeance upon the heads of the perpetrators of this most unwarrantable outrage. Bad blood is circulating to-night, and trouble may follow to-morrow.

The daughter of one of Grant's Post-masters lost her—her bustle in the crush to see Greeley as he passed through one of our northern Pennsylvania towns last week. It was found, and proved to be a Tribune.

It is rumored that $20,000,000 of legal tenders will soon be issued.

A Liberal Victory in Connecticut.

Hartford, Oct. 7.—The following is from the office of The Hartford Times: The Liberal party has gained largely in the local town elections in Connecticut, to-day. We gain 201 an Meriden; we carry Danbury by 250, last Spring Republican town of 85; the old staunch Republican town of Brookline gave the Greeley ticket by 14; New-Canaan Liberal for the first time in 15 years; Middletown by 300; Waterbury by 500; Andover again; Bristol, Windsor Locks, Ridgefield, New-Milford Liberal, and old Suffield by 76. Towns which have been invariably Liberal for nearly twenty years have now elected the Greeley ticket. The State is largely Liberal. Even that Gibraltar of Reactionaries, the Town of Windham, goes Liberal, and Vernon's 3,000 Grant Republican majority is cut down to 201, and Manchester's 121 is cut down to 19. In Hartford, Mr. Stillman, the salaries and managing town officer, was on both tickets, as were also several other important officers, so that little interest was manifested, and a light vote polled, each party giving about an equal number of votes.

Indinapolis, Oct. 9.—2 a. m. The returns still indicate the same average gain and loss. The Legislative ticket is all uncertain, but the State Committee are assured that the Liberals are in the ascendant in the doubtful districts. At this late hour no returns have been received from the city ward. This is a great point, upon which the State will, to a certain extent, hinge. The gain so far reported for Hendricks assures him a majority which can't be counted lower than 3,000, through the Morton Ring now boast that they mean to have 2,000 majority to-morrow. It can hardly happen, however, as the vote was so scattered in this city, and the usual process of counting is impossible. Nothing in the form of an absolutely accurate count need be expected before to-morrow afternoon.

Presentations. A gold watch, chain and cross, valued at $24, were presented to Rev. J. A. McCake, at St. Andrews Church, Cascade street, on Sunday Oct. 6th, 1872. Presented on behalf of the Committee by Daniel Cullane.

ADDRESS. REVEREND FATHER:—I have the distinguished honor of being selected by a committee of St. Andrews Congregation, to present you, with its pastor, with this address of commendation. It is a very inadequate idea of the estimation in which your great zeal, untiring exertions, and excessive labors are appreciated; not only in the erection and dedication of our church to the service of Almighty God, but also in your ministry and prompt attendance at all meetings and seasons to our spiritual necessities when required. Accept it, therefore, Reverend Father, in the spirit with which it is tendered, and may its index mark out for you many years of increasing prosperity, health and happiness.

REPLY. GENTLEMEN:—The presentation of your splendid gift completely surprises me, and at this moment so overwhelmed do I feel with gratitude that I cannot express myself in words commensurate with my feelings. But I have no conceit that I accept your gift gratefully in the spirit in which it has been tendered, and let the years (as you remark) its dial may mark for me, be few or many, prosperous or otherwise, this mark of your regard will be ever cherished and constantly act as a monitor to remind me of my grateful affections toward you.

—The "Publican" ticket has a large class of adherents in some portions of New York, but some of them are straight-out, a good deal of the time. —Senator Davis, of West Virginia, in a letter, considers that State for Greeley by from 8,000 to 12,000 majority. —Gen. Logan is a determined optimist. He says the people will turn out to see and hear Greeley, but it don't mean anything. Of course not. No more than one of his Grant speeches plastered on the top of his treasonable record. —Joseph W. Howe, who distinguished himself by devotion to the cause of reform in New York, has written a powerful letter to his former Republican associates in Massachusetts, advocating the Liberal movement and the election of Mr. Greeley.

—Her. E. E. Hale disclaims the authorship of the article in the last number of Old and New, entitled "Person and President." We half suspected it was written by the office boy. But the writer had caught a few of Mr. Hale's quips and quarks. —Wonderful exodus of negro voters from the District of Columbia, Virginia and Kentucky, to Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Half the negroes of Covington, Ky., are on the wrong side of the river. Grantism is wonderfully peripatetic in its influence. —Senator Schurz gave a powerful address to the Germans in New York city on Tuesday evening. He has no idea of helping to make a second Louis Napoleon of Grant, and no desire for a Union in which one-half shall be pinned to the other by bayonets. And that was where the applause came in.

—The clerks in the Departments at Washington complain terribly of their visitations. They have been called upon and personally required to pay their assessments toward carrying on the campaign. It is like squeezing blood out of turnips, but the blood has to come nevertheless. —Mr. A. T. Stewart does not share the admiration for Mr. Boutwell's financial policy that some of the Administrationists profess. He says he never could ascertain what Mr. Boutwell's policy is. He thinks Mr. Greeley's election will not affect the finances unfavorably, and agrees with him in the policy of freeing tariff legislation from the party whip, and leaving it to the representations of the people.

—At the Women's Grant Meeting in Boston last week, James F. Clark said that if there was anything that could induce him to vote for Mr. Greeley for President, it would be the abuse he has received; and for Mr. Sumner as governor of Massachusetts, it would be the extraordinary manner in which he has been vilified and his great record apparently forgotten. And doubtless a good many other men feel in the same way, only more so.

—The poet Whittier well says that "no colored man with any self-respect or sense of gratitude can listen complacently to personal abuse of such men as Horace Greeley, Charles Sumner, Henry Wilson or Salmon P. Chase. There have been your friends when friendship cost something." In striking contrast this to the passionate pugilism of Wendell Phillips, who tells colored men to arm and defend themselves from their best friends with powder and ball.

—Hon. E. W. Bird is spoken of as the probable nominee of the Liberals and Democrats of Massachusetts for the Governorship. He is an able, sterling man, of incorruptible integrity, nonpartisan as a post, and solid enough to hitch to in any emergency. He ought to be elected, but for once in her history Massachusetts has gone back on her record and has forgotten herself. She will come to her senses by and bye.
