On Sunday morning, after a sermon by Eld A. L. Post, two deacons were ordained. The church is small in the beginning, but prospects yromise a work for good, under the W. C. TILDEN.

Wedding Reception.

Wedding Receptions.

One of the most brilliant wedding receptions over given in Montrose, took place on Wednesday, Sept. 25th, on the occasion of the marriage of Mrs. Katharine E. Searle, the highly accomplished daughter of Leonard Searle, esq. to Gen. Wm. H. McCartney of New York (1909 Malkoon, of the New York World.)—The marriage service was performed in St. Paul's Caurch, by Rev. E. A. Warriner, in the most beautiful and impressive manner. The wedding march was played by the organist, Mr. Wm H. Cooper, assisted by Miss Fanny Beach. After the ceremonies at the church were ended, a large number of invited guests assembled at the truthy residence and tendered their congratantions to the brillal pair, and partook of a lararious and bountiful repast. The spacious rooms were handsomely festooned with evergrees and ornamented with flowers. The brilliant of the coils of the anaconda would be relaxed to the church were entered was dressed in a magnificent suit of heavy silk, made to order in Paris, and all the ladies appeared in cleant to court of the Episcopal church, were Rev. Suicide. About ten o'clock in the forenoon of Oct. 5th, John T. Perry, of Brooklyn township, was found dead in his son's barn, a little west of Mack's Corners. Mr. Perry was a highly repected citizen, and a worthy member of the Methodist Church, but for some time previous and been out of health and laboring under mental depression to such an extent, that those who knew him hardly regarded him as sane. But or two weeks previous to the tragic event that nded his life, the members of his family regarded him as improving, physically and mentally. Mr. Perry had been for many years a wagon maker at Brooklyn Centre, but the evening previous to his death had gone to the house of his son to stay. In the morning he ate a hearty breakfast, was cheerful in spirits and sociable in manner. Having a little business to transact with one of his customers living a half mile or ore back, he proposed to his son that he take the shot gun to kill some squirrels, which were numerous and troublesome in the field through which he was to pass, and his son entirely unsuspicious of anything wrong, gave him the An enterprising merchant of Lynn, Pa., on gun and ammunition, and soon after started Monday last shipped a load of merchandise by for Brooklyn Centre. Insurance Notice.

Insurance Notice,

The undersigned, out of no ill-feeling to anyone, published an official statement some weeks ago, of the impairments of the capital of several insurance companies, represented by some four agencies in this county, one of which was the Andes, of Cincinnati. At the instigation of the agents, or some other person, the President, J. B. Bennett, wrote a letter to the editor of the Republican, denying the statement, which was published in that paper. We now find the following statement published in the New York Times, Sept. 21st, 1872, which makes the Andes Insuranc Company $289,165 27 worse off than nothing. According so this statement parties in this county, and elsewhere, holding policies in this county and elsewhere, holding policies in this agency:

The North America Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, incorporated 1734, Franklin, of Philadelphia.

which necessitated its manufacture on an extensive scale. Soon the discovery was made that it was a grand specific for rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, earache, toothache, and other neighbors, and Coroner Halsey was summoned to hold an inquest.

A small strap was found attached to the trigger of the gun, through which a stick like a craftle finger was passed, by means of which arrangement the gun could be discharged by by pressing on the stick with one foot. The left hand was somewhat scorehed undoubtedly by holding the muzzle of the gun to the forehead, so as to make sure work. Death must have been instantaneous as the skull was broken in many pieces, and all the brains were blown out. Mr. Perry was sixty-three years of age, and leaves a widow and several children to mourn his untimely end, while the tragic event brings sadness and gloom to a large circle of friends and acquaintanee.

The report of the gun was heard by a neighbor, at work in his corn-field, but not by the women who were at work in the rear of the hans a stack by all odds, it is the best ariticle for improving the growth and leguty of the lair. improving the growth and beginty of the Jair, keeping it free from scurf and benderif, preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a rich gloss and endowing it with flexibility—that Toilet Chemistry has ever envolved from the vegitable kingdom.
