shall add, therefore, at present is, to beg

Business Curds.

H BURRITT.

Dealer in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Crockery, Hard-waie, Iron. Staves, Drugs, Olis, and Pelats, Bouts and Shoer, Hats and tapp, Furs, Buildo Robes, Gro-ceries, Provisions, &c. Sern-Minord, 1 s., Nov. 6, *22-4f.

EXCHANGE HOTEL A. McCBACKEN, where to inform the public the aving froiled the Exchange Hotel in Montrose, he now propared to accommodate the traveling publi-t Crat-Class ct/16 custrose, Aug. 23, 1872.

SHIPMAN & CASE,

laddle, Harness and Trunk makers. Shop in C. Rogers store Bullding, Brooklyn, Pa. Oak Harnesses, huav and light, made to onler. Brooklyfa, April 3, 1872—m6

M. D. SMITH laving located at Susquehanna Depot, Manufarturero, and dealer in light and heavy Harmerers, Coll ars, Whips Tranks, Saidles, &c. hoping, by strict artention to bust sees and fair dealing, to have a liberal share of patronage. March 6, 1872,—no10—m3.

BURNS & NICHOLS, BLEACH OF INCIDENCE OF INCIDENC

Peb. 21, 1572. DR. D. A. LATHROP, Administers Rustino Thennat Barne, at the Poot of Chestinat street. Call and consult in all Chroni

Chestual Street. Diseases. Montrese, Jan. 17, '72. - no3-1fa J. F. SHOEMAKER. Attorney at Law. Montroes. Pa. Office next door belo the Tarbell House, Public Avenne. Montrose, Jan. 17, 1872.—no3—ly.

C. E. BALDWIN,

ATTOMET and Counselon at Law, Great Bend, Penn artesnia. B. L. BALDWIN.

ATTORNET AT LAW, Monirose, Pa Office with James E. Carmalt, Req. Montrose, August 30, 1871. LOOMIS & LUSK. Attorgery at Law, Office No. 221 Lackarvana Avenue Scratton, Pa. Practice in the several Courts of Lu-gerne and Susquehanua Counties.

Beranton, a series and Sasquehanua F. E. Loonis. Wm, D. Lusk W. A. CROSHON.

Attorney at Law, Office at the Court House, in the Commissioner's Office. W. A. CROSENON. Mentroes, Sept. 6th, 1871.—tf. MCKENZIE, & CO.

salers to Dry Goods, Clothing, Ladies and Misses fire shoes. Usu, agents for the great American Tes and Coffee Company, [Montrose, July 17, 72]

DR. W. W. SMITH. switzer. Rooms at his dwelling, next door east of the Republican princing office. Office hours from 9 a. Montrose, May 3, 1871—16

THE BARGER-Ha! Ha!. Ha!! Can'ey Morria is the harher, who can shave your face to urder; Cuts brown, black and grizzlev hair, in bla-safire, last up stairs. There you will find him, over Gere's store, helow McKenzles—Just one down, Montrose, June 71871.

J. B. & A. H. McCOLLUM, Pa Montrose, May 10, 1871.

J. D. VAIL, PATRIC PUTSICES AND STREETON. Has permanently
ed himself in Montrose, Pa., where he will prompt end to all calls in his proferesion with which he may ouved. Office and residence west of the Court is, near Flich & Watson's office.

Möntrose, February 8, 1871.

LAW OFFICE. TCH & WATSON, Attorneys at Law, at the old office of Bentley & Fitch, Montrose, Pa.

F. Fitch. [Jan. 11, '71.] W. W. WATSON.

CHARLES N. STODDARD, ealer in Boots and Shoas, Hats and Caps, Leather Findings, Main Street, 1st door below Boyd's S Work made to order, and repairing done neatly. Montrose, Jan. 1, 1870.

LEWIS KNOLL,

§ SHAVING AND HAIR DRESSING.
Shep in the new Postoffice building, where he befound ready to attend all who may want anything in his line. Montrose Ps. Oct. 12, 1865.

DB. S. W. DAYTON,

MENSICIAN & SURGEON, tenders his services to the citizens of Great Bend and vicinity. Office at his residence, opposite Barnum House, G'r, Bend village. Sept. 1st, 1869.—tf

A. O. WARREN,
ATTORNEY A. LAW. Bounty, Back Pay, Pension and Exem on Claims attended to. Office fr oor below Boyd's Store, Montree.Pr. [Au. 1. '69 M. C. SUTTON, Auctioneer, and Insurance Agent, Priendeville, Pa.

C. S. GILBERT, U. S. Auotioneor.

augl 694 Great Bend, Pa.

AMIELY, U. S. Auctionoof.
Auc. 1, 1803. Address, Brooklyn, Fa.

JOHN GROVES, FASHIONABLETALOR, Montrose, Pa. Shop ov Chandler's Store. All orders filled in dest-rate styl Cutting done on short notice, and warranted to fit.

W. W. SMITH, SABINET AND CHAIR MANUFACTURERS.—Foo of Main street, Montrose, Pa. lang. 1, 1869.

BILLINGS STROUD. HELLINGS STRUUD.

FIRE AND LIPE HISJARUE ACENT. AT beiners attended to promptly, on fair zerms. Office first door north of "Montrose Hutel," west story being account, Montrose, Pa. [Aug. 1.1863.] July 11, 1872.]

Billings STRUUD.

• ABEL TURRELL,

PALER in Drugs, Patent Medicines, Chemical Liquers, Paints, Oile, Dyortoffs, Varnishes, Win Olass, Groceries, Giass War, Wall and Window Pa ser, Stone-ware, Lumps, Korosepe, Machinery Oils Since, Groceries, Glass Ware, was all the per Stone-ware, Lumps, Keroene, Machinery Oth Trasses, Gunis, Aumandition, Knives, Speciacle Breacher, Range Goods, Joweitz, Perfu 177, &tabong 10ne of the most numerous, xtensive, as valuable collections of Goods in Masquelmina Consistency, Pa.

D. W. SEARLE, TTORNEY AT LAW, office over the Store of A Lathrop, in the Brick Block, Montrose, Pa. [and C

DR. W. L. RICHARDSON, HYSICIAN & HURGEON, tenders his profession services to the chizens of Montrose and vicinity, Office at his residence, on the corner cast of bayre Bros. Foundry. [Aug. 1, 1889.

HUNT BROTHERS, SCRANTON, PA.

Wholesale & Retall Dealers in HARDWARE, IRON, STEEL,

BUILDER'S HARDWARE.

DJILDER'S HARDWARE,

MINE RAIL, COUNTERSUNK & T. RAILSPIRES

CARRIAGOAD & HINING SUPPLICES.

CARRIAGE SPRINGS. AXLES, SKRING AND

BUXES, BOLTS. NUTS and WASHERS,

PLATED BANDS. MALLEABLE

IZONG MIDES. SPUE BOWS &c.

AWVILS. VICES, STOCKS and DIES, BELIOWS

HAWNES, SLEDGER, FILES, &c. &c.

GIECHAE AND MILES WS, BYTHING RUKING

TACKES TOCKS AND BELIOWS

FRENCH WINDOW GLASS, GRATHER & FINDINGS

SCRADO. MATCHES CALES.

SCRADO. MATCHES 1, 103. 17

Boet's Corner

TO AN EMPTY NEST FOUND AT MONTROSE.

Thou little nest deserted,
Where may thy tenants roam?
Why liest thou here neglected,
The relic of a home?

Here, o'er her tender offspring, Did the fond mother brood; Her patient task fulfilling Deep in the lonely wood. Here little hearts once nestled, Bentath the parent wing, She crailled and protected From every evil thing.

Blue was the sky above thee, Soft was the summer breeze, And gentle arms around thee Glose twined the sheltering trees. How warm the sunbeams woold thee, Hid 'neath a leafy bough! What little voices cheered thee, Poor nest! so empty now!

Still tender thoughts cling round thee, Fond memories of yore;
Yes, what the heart once cherished
Is dead for evermore.

M. F.

A PICTURE.

Tunovon heather, moss, and golden rod, We wandered in the summer weather, And, heeding scarce the way we trod, Were glad, because we were together.

And, when the noonday sun was high. A purple rock gave shelter cool, Were hidden from the summer sky. And flecked with shadows by a pool. It seemed a jewel, bright yet dim;

Wet ferns half strove to cover it; Enticed by thyme, about the brim The wild bees murmured over it. "And this is the wishing well," she cried,
"Where they who drink a boon may crave,"
And kneeling there the spell she tried;
And though she smilen, her eyes were grave

Small hands together lightly pressed From the cool spring she lifted up; And half in earnest half in jest, She offered me the rasy cup.

And in the pool her shadow came-A picture ne'er to be forgot— Sweet eyes and falling hair, in frame Of fox-glove and forget-me-not.

Feminine Names and their Meaning

Francis is truly fair.
Bertha is purely bright.
Clara is rlear to see,
Lucy is a star of light. Felicis is happy as happy can be; Catharine is pure, Barbara from afar, Mabel is very fair Henrietta is a star, Margaret is a pearl thrown up from the sea Muriel is sweetest myrrh.

Agaith as very good.

Agaith as very good.

Bridget is shining here,
Matilds is a lady of honor true;
Susan is a lify.

Cella cim of sight,

Jane a graceful willow,
Bentrice gives delight,
Elizabeth an oath, pure as morning dew.

Sophie is wisdom, Lettie is joy, Edeline a princess, Julia a jewel joy. Rebecca is fulthful as the lighs of day; Constance is resolute, Grace is favor meet, Charlotte is nobility.

Harriet an oder sweet, Abigail is joyful as the robin's lay.

Sarah is a lady, Lucinda is constant Jemima sounds in air Lydia is well.

Caroline is noble-spirted and brave; Cornelia a harmony, Priscilla ancient of days, Selina a nightingale where branches

Moonlight.

Moonlight, moonlight,
Brightly, brightly streaming
O'er the earth at midnight
When the world is dreaming!
Strange-like shadows making While your course you're taking
Oh! tis worth while awaking
When your rays are beaming!

Moonlight, moonlight,
O'er the waves dancing,
Edging waves with gold bright
As they come advancing—
Lonely sallors cheering,
Who, the dark night fearing,

Love your light endearing. Friendly and entrancing Moonlight, moonlight, Moonlight, moonlight,
O'er the tree-tops stealing !
Making woodlands seem bright,
Elfin dells revealing—
That the travier wanty.
No more thinks it deary,
For a land of fairy
'Tis now to him seeming!

Moonlight, moonlight,
Sadly, sadly, falling
In the churchyard, where right
Seems the most appalling!
And while stars are peeping.
O'er the graves you're creeping—
To watch o'er those there sleeping
Seem to be your calling

Seem to be your calling. Moonlight, moonlight.
Through my window shining,
Making all near my sight
Rich with silver lining!
Such strange thoughts you're telling Me, while near me dwelling—
Thoughts with joy o'erswelling,
Thoughts that cause repining.

Grevities and Witticisms

An editor who was going a courting said "he was going to press." England makes $3,500,000 worth of her old rags into paper yearly.

PAPER houses are being made practica NAILS, SPIKES, SHOVELS, ble, habitable and comfortable. ATHERS, Ga, has a paper named the Cat, with the motto "I can scratch."

"TRANSACTION in Hair" is the heading given by a Detroit editor to an account of a street fight.
A Kansas man who went to a circus

PLATED BANDS, MALEABLE
FOUNDS, HOUSE, SPOKES,
FOUNDS, SPOKES,
FOUNDS, SPOKES,
GAMMERIS, SIEDUES, PLES, e. 2c.
GAMMERIS, SIEDUE

Managing a Man.

NELLIE DAVIS was the prettiest, best sweetest, and dearest little girl in Hills-dale, and when Tom. Carter fell head over heels in love with her, no one blamed him in the least.

And when the parson gave consent and they went to house-keeping in a cozy little birds dest of a house, on the south side of the town, everybody prophesied all sorts of happiness for the pretty bride. And truth to tell Nellie Curter was very happy.

It is a pretty thing to go to housekeeping for the first time, with everything spick and span, new and shiny, and if you love very much for a companion it is still pleasanter.

Now Nellie did love that great blub-bering Tom. Carter with all her might and main, and there was only one thing to disturb her peace. She was the very pink of tidiness and Tom. was the most Nellie, demurely. careless fellow alive.

He kept his person neat and nice, but he kept his personal belongings anything "Well, then, I'll make a bargain with else. In vain did Nellie braid a handsome merino case and tack it inside the closet door for Tom. to put his slippers with mine, and whenever you don't—" in. He would insist on tossing them un-der the parlor sofa, " to have 'em handy." In vain did she gently suggest that the rack in the hall was the place for his hat and overcoat—wet or dry he would throw his overcoat on her pretty, smoothly-made bed, and hang his hat wherever it happened. vain did Nellie make a place for everything, for Tom. invariably tossed everything in some other place. Now little Mrs. Nellie was only human, and Tom.'s Shorenly ways annoyed her exceedingly. She resolved not to destroy the peace of their cozy home by scolding, but how to cure him she could not tell.

She bore with him with the patience of an angel, till one morning when he had gone up to town, she went into the parlor broom in hand, and there lay, Tom.'s big shawl right across the centre table, suthlessly crushing beneath it the trifles that lay on the marble top.
"New, I can't have this, and I won't."

said she, as she raised the shawl from the delicate treasure and discovered the rains i of a favorite Bohemian vase.

"I don't know what to do, but this I this story will have served its purpose. won't have," she continued with a little bir of wifely snap, which every good wife must have if she expects to get along at all with that occasionally unreasonable mimal, a man. "Some way must be discovered to cure Ton. of such performances as this!" added Mrs. Nellie as she removed the ruins of the vase, and all the morning she went around at her work with scarlet lips compressed, and a little flush in her brown eyes, which argued well for Mr. of his voice-

Tom's domestic subjection.

Woman's wit, having a will seldom fails to find a way. And when a determined little woman says "must" and "shall" all masculine insubordination may as well surrender at once.

Before Nellie closed her bright eyes that night, she had arranged plans for that campaign against her lie e lord, who was sleeping the sleep of innocence at her side.

But she meant to give him one more chance. So after breakfast, when Tom-drew on his boots and gave his slippers the customary toss under the sofa, she gently said—

"Tom., dear, hadn't von better put your slippers in the case?"

"No, let 'em alone, they'll be handy to-night." "But, Tom., they look so untidy."

"Why, no they don't, a thing looks as the kitchen for the time being. When well in one place as another. What is the story got into the papers the poor the use of a man's having a home if he fellow became famous without suspecting can't keep things where he wants to keep the cause of it. He is now quite a favor-them?" "What's the use of keeping a woman the name of chucklehead-a title that on her feet all day to pick up things after does not displease him.

" Don't pick them up. Just let them alone, and then I can find them when I our gossippers are admirers of Shakes want them," declared Tom, as he gave her a kiss and took himself off.

And at the moment the door closed on him, Nellie's red lips compressed them-selves again, and her brown eyes wore the same look they had worn yesterday.
"War it is, then," she said to herself. "Now, Master Tom., we shall see who wins the field."

wins the field."

She set quietly about her morning's work, and when Tom. came home to dinner everything was in its accustomed good order. It remained so, and Nellie busied herself with her sewing until nearly time for Tom. to return to his sup-

Then she arose, put away her work, and prepared to open the campaign.
First, she put Tom's slippers where he alway left them, under the sofa. Then she fossed the shawl upon the piano, and

Her furs and sacque reposed on Tom.'s especial arm chair, and her best bonnet command?' sofa: while her own slippers lay upon the

And then thinking that feminine incenuity could make no greater sacrifice with han her best bonnet, she sat down to her for a place to sit down! Nellie quietly pursued her work.

"Hudn't you better pick up things a little before he comes ?" said Tom. glanc-ing around the room.
"Oh, no, just let 'em lie," said Nellie, sweetly. "But they look so bad," said Tom.

"I never saw your room look so before, shouldn't like to have any one step m,' man?"

"Well, don't you like the plan?" said "No! By George, I don't!" cried Mr

Tom. with mine, and whenever you don't-" "Oh, I will," interrupted Tom. "So, Nellie, I'll own up like a man, you've beat me this time. Only just clean up this awful room, and I'll never throw anything down again. There, now, let's kiss and make up, as the children say."

Nellie rose, and laughingly held up her sweet mouth for a kiss of peace. And Nellie rose, and hughingly held up her sweet mouth for a kiss of peace. And then under the magic influence of her them. deft fingers, confusion was suddenly banished, and when Granger came around to spend the evening, he decided that no one had a prettier wife or a tidier home than his friend, Tom. Carter. Wise little Nellie having once gained possession of the matrimonial field, took care to keep it until Tom. was entirely cured of his careless habits. a relapse, but Nellie, instead of scolding. only had to quietly bring something of her own, and lay it down beside whatevr Tom. had tossed down, and it was sure to be put away immediately, for Tom. seldom failed to take a hint.

And if some other little woman, as wise and tidy as Nellie, takes a hint also,

A Chinese Watter.

In San Francisco the Chinese are to some extent employed as waiters in the eating houses. Two miners went in and called for mutton chop. The waiter not understanding the order perfectly, asked what was wanted.
"Mutton chops, you chucklehead."-

And the Chinaman sung out at the top "Some mutton chops, and chuckle-head!"

The joke took well among the custom ers, who all laughed heartily. Presently the poor fellow was overwhelmed with or-ders like the following: "Bring me a hat full of boiled bricks," said one. "Hatee full of bile bricks." bawled the Chinaman.

said another.

SHAKESPEARE.-As a large number of peare, we offer them the following Shakespearean connundrums, which they can ite in the place, and goes constantly by ogwer at their leisure : Did the 'Books in the running brooks' contain flowing sentences?

If the 'three thousands ducats, well,' of Shylock was an artesian well? If when Richard saw the 'son of York' there was any heir apparent?

If the 'sermons in stones' weren't hard day and good government. rending?

If those who 'stord upon the order of their going,' at Mucbeth's supper, did not have to set out without further orders?

has met with an extraordinary example lished government being the work of our of a person being struck by lightning own hands, with the seeds of amendment than her best bonnet, she sat down to her crocheting.

Presently the door opened and in walked Master Tom. He gave a low whistle of surprise as he glanced at the unusual disorder, and at Nellie sitting calmiv in the midst with her crochet work, and he came into the room.

"House cleaning Nell?" he asked.

"House cleaning Nell?" he asked.

"Oh, no, why?" said Nellie, looking up in sweet unconsciousness.

"I thought may be you had been that's ame time unstitched the whole way downfor a place to sit down!"

Thought may be you had been that's came time unstitched the whole way downfor a place to sit down!"

A Lany male a complaint to Freder-way and the redered above the right ear, destroying the carrying side wisdom, good dispositions and mutual allowances, a still howaver, sided by experience, bring it as hove the man who makes a still howaver, and who purs when he walks, and who purs whe same time unstitched the whole way down. The man appears to have been insensible

WASHINGTON.

"Oh, no they don't," said Nellie, as iweetly as before. "A thing looks as well in one place as another."

Tom.'s face reddened.

"I never saw years room look so before."

The presidency was approaching its conclusion, proving his earnest desire to retire to private life, and requesting Mr. Madison to put in shape the reasons which

We believe this letter has never yet aphe said hesitatingly.

"Why not?" said Nellie. "We might as well have things handy. What's the use of having a house if you can't have things where you want to?"

"We believe this letter has never yet appeared in print, and we take pleasure in thus bringing pefore the public eye the views of that great and good man, "Who things where you want to?"

Mt. Vernon, May 20, 1792.

My Dear Sir: As there is a possibility, in not probability, that I shall not see you on your return home; or, if I should ity, ianot probability, that I shall not see you would be so good as to furnish me you on your return home; or, if I should with them in time to be prepared and ensee you, that it may be an the road and grafted with others for the opening of the under circumstances which will prevent session. my speaking to you on the subject we last conversed upon, I take the liberty of committing to paper the following, thoughts

I have not been unmindful of the sentiment expressed by you in the conversa-tion just alluded to. On the contrary tinuation in the office I have now the honor to hold, I therefore still looked forhonor to hold. I therefore still looked for-ward to the fulfillment of my fondest and most ardent wishes to spend the remain-fever," follows in the wake of these Texder of my days (which I cannot expect to ured of his careless habits.

Sometimes he seemed threatened with to continue me in it) would involve the consequences which might result there-trom in the floating and divided opinions I do not see how any evidence can be obtained previous to the election. My vanity, I am sure, is not of that cast as to al-> nonneing the intention, and that you would prepare the letter. In revolving this subject myself, my judgment has always been embarrassed. On the one hand a provious dealership to retire not a letter. a previous declaration to retire, not only enries with it the appearance of vanity and self-importance, but it may be connothing, implys consent, or, at any rate would leave the matter in doubt, and to decline afterwards might be deemed as bad and uncandid.

ble that your compliance with it must add to your trouble; but as the recess aid another.

"Barrel Homopatty soup, sung out the aiter. — will without apology desire (if the meas"Give me a dog's ear fry," exclaimed ure in itself should strike you as proper, them adieu (retaining no other concern es for the prosperity of my country) I take the liberty, at my departure from civil, as I formerly did at my military ex-it, to invoke a continuation of the blessings of Providence upon it, and upon all those who are the supporters of its interder and good government. That to impress these things it might,

THE following is a letter written by Gen. Washington, as his first term of the being dead yet speaketh." It was found and requests.

be many) in ease and tranquility.

Nothing short of conviction that my dereliction of the Chair of Government country in serious disputes respecting the Chief Magistrate, and the disagreeable which seem to prevail at present, could, in any wise, induced me to relinquish the determination I have formed, and of this me to view the subject in this light. Under these impression then, permit me to reiterate the request I made to you at our last meeting, namely; to think of the proper time, and the best mode of annuausure the intertion. strued into a manoguvre to be invited to matter, would regard this as another sin-remain, and on the other hand, to say gular fact. But Lonisiana cattle were not

I would fain carry my request farther than is asked above, although I am sensia third.

But John Chinaman was not to be fooled with the dog fry. He knew the Americans aboninated dogs for food, and seeing everybody laughing, he began to smell the rat, and therefore retreated to the control of the public, expressing in plain and modest terms—that having been honored with the Policy of the public of th modest terms—that having been honored to the theory that Texas cattle imparts Two neighbors living in Westchester with the Presidential chair, and to the this disease, that is worthy of consideration county had a long and envenomed litting. government—that having arrived at a period of life, when the private walks of it, in the shade of retirement, become necessary and will be most pleasing to me; and the spirit of the government may render a rotation in the elective officers of the many render a rotation in the elective officers of the many render a rotation with their ideas and illinois in the beef markets of the use of making so much fuss: about a sumptions of the interested parties of use of it," replied one of the lawyers one with the render are the states named which will require more conclusive proofs than have thus far been both milkmen!" cers of it, more congenial with their ideas adduced, to satisfy us that they are justiof liberty and safety, that I take my leave fied in the unfriendly legislation that has of them as a public man; and in bidding them against them adjeu (retaining no other concern the interest of the Texas cattle trade.—

among other things, be observed that we If when Richard refused to 'let the collin pass' he 'ordered it up?'.

If the tale that the ghost of Hamlet's father 'could unfold' was equal to that of a rottlesnake?

Was it waist time when Puck 'put a girdle round the earth is could unfold be could be among other things, be to served that we are all the children of the same country—a country great and rich in itself—capable, and promising to be as prosperous and as happy as any the annuls of histoso rossed the shawl upon the piano, and his best hat upon the centre table. She then brought several of her dresses and flung them across the chairs and on the soft.

Was it waist time when Puck 'put and flung them across the chairs and on the soft.

Was it waist time when Puck 'put and soft, and the various productions of the States, and the various productions of the States, when he sold 'I will be correspondent to make one part not only convenient, that War Ariel in the newspaper business when he said, 'I will be correspondent to command?'

The British Medical Journal cays it to distant period) one of the most independent in the world. That the estate of the period one, and said a stage of the part, and may render the whole (at no distant period) one of the most independent in the world. That the estate of the contribution of the most independent in the world. That the estate of the contribution of the most independent in the world. The period one.

Consequent upon official, and stage as the consequent upon of the most only that any texture and the most independent to the and the most of the most independent in the world. That the estate of the contribution of the most independent in the world. The period one. without receiving tatal injury, under the engrafted in the constitution, may, by care of Mr. James R. Lane, at St. Mary's wisdom, good dispositions and untital alengrated in the constitution, may, by watching. limits to it, for suspicions unfounded and jealousies too lively, are irritating to houest feelings, and oftimes are productive of the favor of you to consider, 1. The pro [From the Pittsburg Post.] priety of such an address: 2, if approved the several matters which ought to be contained in it; and third, the time it should appear, that is whether at the delaration of my intention to withdraw from the service of the public, or to let it be the closing act of my administration, which will end with the next session of Congress (the probabilities being that that body will continue sitting until March.) induced him to decline a re-election:

when the House of Representatives ; will also dissolve.

Though I do not wish to hurry you (the cases not pressing) in the execution of oither of the publications before memtioned, yet I should be glad to hear from into a laugh. "Oh, that's your game, is it," he said. "Trying to beat me with my own weapons, are you, my little womy own weapons, are you, my little womy own weapons, are you, my little womy own weapons, are you, my little wowhich came into our possion some years in the form they are finally to take. I wood for the my own weapons, are you, my little wowhich came into our possion some years in the form they are finally to take. I wood for the my own weapons, are you, my little wowhich came into our possion some years in the form they are finally to take. I wood for the my own weapons, are you, my little wowhich came into our possion some years in the form they are finally to take. I wood for the my own weapons, are youngless that the form they are finally to take. which came into our possion some years since:

If the form they are finally to take. I root is used for teneering, and some beg leave to draw your attention also to stumps are worth $150 after being propersuch things as you shall conceive a fit ly worked into shape.

subject for communication on that occasion, and noting them as they occur, that With very sincere and affectionate regard,

I am ever vours. G. WASHINGTON. James Madison, Esq.

Texas Cattle Fever.

Our Western exchanges have already begun their periodical fusilade against the transportation of Texas cattle across as catfle drovers. There are some singular, if not suspicious facts connected with this tirade against the Texas cattle in re-ference to the disease in question, a few of which we propose to notice in the in-that Texas cattle impart to the cattle of priest of protection, owes his defeat for Missouri and Illinois a disease which they do not have.

do not have.

During the late war large numbers of Texas cattle were driven to and through Louisiana by the Confederate authorities for the use of the Confederate forces at ded on the range till required, and many of them wintered in the cane region of Eastern Lonisiana, where they land free and constant intercourse with the native stock of the country, and yet not a single case of Texas cattle fever was ever developed from this contract. The unsophisticated, who are without interest in the competing with the Texas cattle in the beef market, hence they obstinately refused to contract any disease from them. and they were particulary cautions not to contract a disease which these Texas cattle did not have. Some four yeers ago an Arkansus correspondent of Colman's Rural World detailed the fact that "the disease (Texas cattle fever) commenced its rurages in Arkansas in 1846, killing thousands of cattle, while no such thing was known in Texas at that time. It continued to rage for ten years, and dissappeared about the time Texas cattle were introduced."

Now here is an array of facts adverse

Rural South-Land.

"Billings" Philosophy. THERE is no servitude in life so oppressive az tew be obliged tew flatter thoze whom we don't respekt chuff to praze. The wimmin ought tew ketch all them phellows who part their hair in the middle, and ciap a red flannel pettycote on

How natral it iz for a man, when he

a good one.

Grate welth in our journey thru life iz ments.

only extra baggage, and wants a lieap ov ratching.

Beware ov the man who makes a still Mrs. Timothy Bradlee, of Trumbull Co. wisdom, good dispositions and untual allowances, aided by experience, bring it as noize when he walks, and who purs when near to perfection as any human institution ever approximated; and therefore, the manax," 1873.

Beware ov the man who manax a sum of the month of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of the walks, and who purs when one of the control of th

Ax Irish pedlar usked ang itinerant

ODDS AND ENDS. MIRRORS laid over with gold are reported to reflect sixteen times as powerfully as ordinary quicksilver ones. Mas. Mippin, said a visitor, Emma has your features, but I think she has her fa-ther's hair. 'Oh, now I see, said the dear little Emma, 'its because I have got papa's hair that he has to wear a wig. Old Scotch lady—Tak' a snuff, sir.

Gentleman (with large nasal promontory, indignantiy,)—Do I look like a snuffer?

old lady—Well, I canna jist say you do, though I mann say ye ha grand accommodation.

JOHN BUNYAN was once asked a question about heaven which he could not an swer, because the matter was not revealed in the scriptures, and he therefore advised the inquirer to live a holy life and go and Corper cents were first issued in the year 1763, and ceased in 1857.—In 1815 there were none coined.—The half cents made their first appearance in 1793, and were discontinued in 1837.

Now, let the bonfires blaze and let the annon roar! Eight hundred thousand negroes give Ulysses three years more!

Precious stones are so; well similated now-a-days that a lady can appear decked in all the wealth of Ormus and India at a very moderate outlay. THE virtuous Mr. Quay of the Beaver Redical thinks that Greeley "represents the very worst party that ever existed in the country." As a member of the Cam-terest of common justice.

It is a fact not generally known, perlings, that Texas cattle do not have the

THE negroes are as devoid of erritings. THE negroes are as devoid of gratitude without inferest in the matter cannot regard it otherwise than a very singular fact

State of Connecticut the offer of $1,000. 1000. to be exponded in building a State House, which will be a present from the Vicksburg and Port Hudson. These cattle were driven across the country, herford is also about to build a new State House. According to an advertisement in the London Speciator, a nose machine has been invented which, applied to, the nose

THE city of New Haven has made the

for an hour daily, so directs the soft car-tilage of which the member consists, that an ill-formed nose is quickly shaped to perfection. In one of Lord Brougham's last speeches his upper teeth fell out, and there was an embarrassing silence until they were restored, when he remarked that his teeth had given him a great deal of trouble since he cut them. That restored the equilibrium. PROFESSOR Baird's "Birds of North America," a wholly new work, to cover the lavel birds in three volumes, and the water birds in perhaps as many more, will see the light sometime during the coming winter. It will be illustrated with far more fullness than any preceding work on ornithology.

Two neighbors living in Westchester

BEFORE you ask a favor of a man, consider three things: First. Can you not avoid it? Second. Can the one you apply to grant it? Third. Would you, if. your places were reversed, do for your friend what you ask him to do for yourself? It is well to think of this as it may change the whole question. A PARISIAN landlady requested a Christmas party on the third floor to cease dancing, as a man below was dying. The guests acquiesced. Returning an hour later, "My dear children," she exclaimed, with the most benevolent smile, "You may begin again—he is dead." THERE is now living at Reading, Pa. a man named Jacob Hartman, who a man named Jacob Hartman, who has attained the age of ninety years, during eighty-seren years of which he has been totally blind. He lost his sight when a child of three years old, by his brother's thrusting a shoemaker's awl into his eyes. He kept a tavern for forty-fire years, taking the active management of the business, was his own bar-keener, and was an ness, was his own bar keeper, and was so expert in the handling of money, that any attempt to cheat him was futile. Ho

THE Boston Medical and Surgical Jour-

A LADY made a complaint to Frederick the Great, King of Prussia: "Your Majesty," said she, "my heaband treats Ax Irish pedlar asked an innermal poulterer the price of a pair of fowls.

"Six shillings, sir".

"In my own dear country, my darling, me baddy."

"That is none of my business," said.

"That is none of my business," said.

the king. "But, he speaks ill of you," said the ludy. That," replied he, "is none of your

ा केवन प्रमास्त्रीयाः जन्म 4