Special Lecture to Young Men. On Monday evening, December 8th, 1872, the Rev. J. L. Chittenden, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church, will preach a sermon to Young Men, subject, "Labor the true source of happiness and prosperity."

Cheap Temperance Zeal. Since the election is over, any amount of political squabbling and very cheap blarney, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, is being spewed forth.

Various Items. "Quick Cases" from Luzerne county, put down for the third week of Court, was accounted for on account of the absence of Judge May.

Philadelphia. The "Philadelphia Record" has been published for the first time since the late war, and is a very interesting and valuable paper.

Benefit Derived from Scenes of Duty. Some periods of sadness have, in our present history, been just a natural phase and they are requisite to the true enjoyment of pleasure.

Antiquity of Buckwheat Cakes. A paragraph has been going the rounds of the press since the buckwheat cake season was inaugurated, which claims that the delectable but less inducing article of diet was wholly unknown until some time during the sixteenth century.

The Fire to the Coal Mines. Although the fire has been brought under control in the Big Lick colliery it is still burning to some extent. The amount of coal destroyed is inestimable, but the damage done to the slope by the burning of the props and the consequent tumbling down of rocks and earth will require several months to repair sufficiently to make the resumption of the ordinary mining work possible.

675,000 in Cash for Oil. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the Nebraska State Oilman. There is a chance to win a fortune in a Public Legal Drawing, and the same time help a noble and worthy institution.

"Good for This Day Only."

The question whether passengers may "lay over" and resume their journey at pleasure, or whether, when they do so, they have forfeited their tickets for the remainder of their journey, is still being discussed by the newspapers.

Truth in Small Parcels. An Irish Philadelphia father doesn't approve of the present system of school-teaching. He declares that it is far better that his seven-year-old child should be taught to read and write, than to be taught to read and write, and then to be taught to read and write.

Harrisburg Early Money. In the hands of the city treasurer says the "Patriot," are two Harrisburg relics of 1839 and 1841, the former three dollars in borough scrip and the latter a twenty-five cent note of similar kind of a circulating medium. These mementoes of a part of the early financial history of this city are interesting to all.

A Trial of Fifty Years. The New York Observer has passed through the ordeal, and states our anxiety of mind, and the larger list of readers and more numerous than ever. Such a steady course of prosperity is unexampled, and implies confidence in the future of the country.

Victor's Floral Guide for 1873. The Guide is now published quarterly, 25 cents per copy for the year, which is not only a beautiful and useful work, but also a very interesting and valuable one.

Every Quarter of the Globe.

It is known, and there are few indeed who do not, that the Standard of Living in America is the highest in the world. This is due to the fact that the Standard of Living in America is the highest in the world.

Notice to Builders. The School Directors of Franklin Township, in the hands of the city treasurer says the "Patriot," are two Harrisburg relics of 1839 and 1841, the former three dollars in borough scrip and the latter a twenty-five cent note of similar kind of a circulating medium.

For Sale. A new house well furnished, good water heat, in the hands of the city treasurer says the "Patriot," are two Harrisburg relics of 1839 and 1841, the former three dollars in borough scrip and the latter a twenty-five cent note of similar kind of a circulating medium.

House and Lot for Sale. The subscriber offers for sale, his house and lot, 1 1/2 mile north of Harrisburg, on the main road, near the depot, containing six acres of land, and is good for pasture, being well supplied with water, there being a small creek which runs through the property.

Business Locals. A Trial of Fifty Years. The New York Observer has passed through the ordeal, and states our anxiety of mind, and the larger list of readers and more numerous than ever. Such a steady course of prosperity is unexampled, and implies confidence in the future of the country.
