Partridges.

Partridges are gathered in baskets in some of the neighboring counties, the almost starved birds being too weak to fly, or run away. Many of the birds are being fed in barnvards, and the poor little creatures, usually so timid and shy; have been quite tamed by cold and hunger.

Local Option.

The Scranton Republican says : "It is generalty believed the Local Option Law will not be allowed by the Legislature to remain as it is. We are reliably informed that a dozen amendments. calculated to destroy the vitality of the law, are ready to be introduced within the next few weeks, and that some of them will run the gnumber and get through on the plea of "compromise" between the friends and opponents Local Option."

Township Statements.

Township clerks are required, within sixty days after the annual Spring elections, to make 1832, 1835, 1836, 1837, 1839, 1841, 1843, 1844, out and publish a full and complete statement 1845, 1840, 1847, 1849, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1854, of the financial condition of such townships un-der penalty of fifty dollars. About eight o'clock on Monday evening, Feb 3d, John Knox, a hackman, discovered fire in their eyes. It is plain that the object that they the lower depot, and gave the alarm immediately but too late to save the structure, as it was totally destroyed in an hour afterward. The fire originated from a lamp which set in the tacket window, the heat setting fire to the dry wood work above. Considerable treight was estroyel, consisting of floar, hardware, sew of experience offered them. Circular paper ing machines, one barrel of whiskey, etc. The boose of the Company were all saved by Clarence Nevins who was in the office at the time. The Fire Department were promptly on hand, but were useless, as no water could be obtained. but, fortunately, the depot endangered no neighboring property. When will our people learn that water is quite as necessary as steamers to quench fire ? The entire Third ward is as unprotected from fire as if we had no steamers. No way is provided to get them to the river, and the thickly built neighborhood in that Ward, in ease of fire, is at the mercy of the flames .-Bradford Argus

A Birth in a Snow Storm.

The decision of Judge Agnew, of the Supreme Court of this State, contains some important points for the consideration of the managers of National Banks. By this decision it will be seen that a mortgage executed in fa-vor of a National Bank as collateral security to cover future discounts, is worthless. Of course this decision does not effect such a transaction with other banks, because the decision is based on the provisions of the National Banking act.

A Satisfactory Decision.

The $5,000 verdict rendered last week in the Court of Common Pleas McGilchrist vs. Harvey, meets with general approval by all who knew about the case." Mr. Harvey sold a livery property to Mr. McGilchrist for a large consid-eration, including the business and "good will" ness in the city for a certain length of time. He did not keep his word, or agreement, and as was evident from the testimony, commenced the business again in the name of his brother, and for so doing a suit was brought and a verdiet of $5,000 was obtained for the injured par-

The case was thoroughly tried, and occupied the Court nearly two full days. This is doubtless a righteous verdict. A party who sells his business or "good will" for thousands of dollars, and then starts an opposition at the door of the purchaser, and does all he can to injure the bus iness he has sold and agreed to favor, deserves to be punished by a round verdict for damages Luterns Union.
