THE DEMOCRAT.
 MARK TWAIN has written a letter with to fun, but much good sense in it, rec-ommending the use of rafts instead of boats, on sca-going vessels. He says: But a life raft is a different thing.— All the people you can put on it cannot owamp it. The sort of life-raft i have in my mind is an American invention, con-sisting of three inflated horizontal rub thousand majority. This is the true significance of the late election in Con-necticut.
