AT a meeting of the editors of the twenty-fifth Congressional District of this right and justice in the government Gen. State, the following resolution was passed Butler has been the most prominent; to among others:

That the act of the last Congress requiring postage to be paid on papers published in the county, and exchanges, was uncalled for and unnecessary, and should press should be brought to bear on Con- the objectionable circle of inmates and gressmen to secure this result.

THE agitation has been revived in Rhode Island for the repeal of the property qualification that limits the suffrage in that state; but it already appears that the radicals are utterly opposed to such a measure; and that it will not be permitted to make any progress. The Providence Journal, edited by United States for example, speaking of the brave Gensenator Anthony, is conspicuously vehiment and bitter in protesting against the repeal of the restrictive clause. It is not long ago since Mr. Anthony was equally earnest in urging that the ballot should be conferred upon the ignor-corps into our lines, and the steed and ant and landless freedmen of the south his dead rider were both captured. The people of this city have now to learn the old lessons, that they who would be free themselves must strike the blow. We have been too long looking to the Convention, like the carter in the fable, who kept calling upon Inpiter, but did not put his own shoulder the wheel. The adoption of a new Constitution is now a matter too remote for speculation. There is little reason to think that it will ever be adopted if the "Ring" have a new triump's this fall, and wield the whole power and patronage of the State and city governments against the new instrument. The abolished Al-derman will abolish their abolishers. The whole compact "Ring" of plunderers will whole compact "iting" of plunderers will fight to perpetuate their rule, which will never be ended but by just such an uprising of the people as rescued the city of New York.
