Solders' Reusion. At an informal meeting of veterans held at the Tarbell House, D. W. Scarle, Chairman, J. R. Lyons, Secretary, it was resolved, that a'l Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, of Susq'a county, be invited to attend; a Remion, or En-campment, at some point to be agreed upon; of from one to three days' daration, for social pur-poses, to be kept up annually, and all inferested are bereby requested to organize in school or other districts for said purpose, and to corres-pond with central committee of arrangements, and that comrad's D. W. Glidden, Wm. H. Mc-(Treken, G. L. Stone, Hyde Crocker, Jr., and J. R. Lyons, be appointed said committee — Meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place next Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, for fur-ther business, and a general invitation was ex-tended to all courtades to drop in, and at that time will try and appoint time and place for first irrution. J. R. Lyons, Sec'y. Montroso, Aug. 20, 1873-1w. So the day comes forth, and nature rejoices n her fresh and luxuriant garments. Stretching away, far as the eve can reach, over the roling prairies, what a glorious scene! A garden of untold wealth and beauty ! Here, perhaps, beside some winding stream, bordered with flowers of sweet | ertume, the verdant, shady wood's spread out their leafy branches, and there, again, the meadow, and such measureless fields
