Notes About Town.
Some kinds of potatoes are rotting to quite an alarming extent.
As the quickest way of making a fortune, it is suggested to marry a fashionable young lady and sell her clothes.

Of all the laws of trade, our merchants favor the law of supply and demand.
They are somewhat "opinionated" with the people these days.

HOOPER'S are now recommended to fly in their winter supply of coal, as there is a fair prospect for an increase in the price soon.

Rev. W. J. JORD, will administer the rite of baptism at James Lake, this (Wednesday) evening between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock.

J. R. LYONS, of this place, has a very nice raised seventy-one and one half pounds of potatoes from one pound of seed. Best it was ever seen.

A. H. McCORMICK, Esq., of Montrose, and Menot Riley, of Springville, are appointed Representatives to the Democratic caucus of this county.

There was a heavy frost on Monday morning last. It is believed to have done great damage to corn in various sections. Buckwheat is claimed to be beyond injury to a great extent.

Court commences on Monday, September 29th, and continues two weeks. One case sent hereby the Legislature, and some other tried here from other counties, are to be tried.

A recent student attending the Graded School wants us to tell him if WOODRUFF is a spell. WOODRUFF is a spell, but it is not spelled WOODRUFF. We give it up.

It appears that one-fourth of the five cent nickel coins in circulation are bogus. These counterfeiters are said to be skillfully executed that it is almost impossible even for the most experienced coin experts to detect them.

The new bonnets coming in regard this fall are much larger than have been worn this generation, and are very handsome, too. Of course all the nice girls will go for them. This will soon revive the old practice of two heads under one bonnet.

The Soldiers' Reunion Encampment commenced at the Three Lakes yesterday. Quite a large number went from this place, with plenty of music and martial array. They had a beautiful day to start with, and we wish them a happy time.

The editor of the Republican, who seems to be very much frightened about party colors, has got a roll of brightstone, and some one has sent him a stocking, and now all he needs is to borrow a little intelligence, and he can make the Representative question about pretty long about his office. If he will call on us, we will lend him the fire.

We had a pleasant ride on Monday last, in an "Irish Juniper Car," the property of Lawrence McElroy, of Clonont. It is the easiest, jauntiest, and most accommodating vehicle ever made. It is posted on two wheels, in a manner that no mud can possibly reach you, and is upholstered and seated in the most convenient style. It is drawn by a single horse, and will carry seven persons with the utmost ease. This "Juniper Car," together with the Montrose Railway and Taylor's Steamboat, would make Montrose stand on conveyances of any inland town in America.

IN MEMORIAM.—At a special meeting of the Rough and Ready Fire Company, No. 1, held at home house on Monday, the 15th ult., the following preamble and resolutions regarding the death of Charles E. Horton, a member of said Fire Company, were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, It hath pleased Almighty God, in his all-wise Providence, to remove by death our esteemed friend and brother, Charles E. Horton, who, though not an ardent member, at the time of his death, was still counted as one of us; therefore,

Resolved, That while "we mourn our loss" in the sudden death of our brother, we feel that his life will live in the hearts of those who knew him, and that his memory will be cherished by us all.
Resolved, That we accept this dispensation as another impressive lesson reminding us that this life is short and that we should be ever ready.
Resolved, That we attend, in a body, the funeral of our deceased brother, and that our mournful and impressive services be held at the home of the deceased, on Wednesday, the 17th inst., at 10 o'clock, and that we should be ever ready.

Resolved, That we tender to the family our heartfelt sympathies in this their great affliction and bereavement, directing them to the Great Comforter, who is the only true source of all consolation and comfort, and who will enable them to say, "Thy will be done."
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and inserted in the Montrose papers.

Ursinus National Banks.

So many complaints have reached the treasury department, of late, regarding the usurious charges of interest by the national banks throughout the country for money loaned that the secretary of the treasury contemplates calling the attention of several of the district attorneys to this violation of the national banking laws, and request them to commence prosecutions against such of the banks as are known to have been guilty of this practice.

Death of Albert Packer.

Mr. Albert Packer died at his residence in the city of Carbondale, on Wednesday the 3d inst., aged 64 years. He was attacked with paralysis about three years ago. He discontinued his mercantile business, and has only been able to walk about for short distances since. For a short time before he died, he was confined to a bed, and for a week was unable to converse. Mr. Packer was, during his early life a resident of Carbondale, but some years ago he removed to Woodstock Vermont. Some eight years ago he settled in Carbondale, erected a store, and commenced the Mercantile business which he continued until stricken down by paralysis. He was an upright and honorable man, highly respected in this city.

Susquehanna County Institute.

The seventh annual Susquehanna county Teachers' Association, convened at New Milford, September 1st, 1873. Session opened by a few salutary remarks, and prayer by County Superintendent Tilden, followed by an introductory reading by Mrs. E. A. Weston, of Brooklyn. The Institute was then more fully organized by electing Mr. J. S. Gillin, of Franklin, Vice President, and Miss Sarah Tingler, of Harford, Secretary. Essay, entitled "Composition in common schools," by Miss Addie Carpenter, of Harford, followed by remarks on the same by Prof. A. W. Cooper, of Susquehanna Depot. Essay, "Primary Mathematics," by Miss Mattie Hayward, of Susquehanna Depot. Class exercises in reading, conducted by Mrs. Weston. Remarks by Prof. Cooper and others. Singing. Adjournment.

Evening Session opened with singing by the Institute. Query, "Can teaching be a profession?" ably discussed by Prof. Cooper, Tilden and Woodruff. Select reading by Mrs. Weston.

Thursday, A. M.—Devotional exercises conducted by Prof. Woodruff, singing conducted by A. W. Cooper. Mr. Tilden then spoke somewhat earnestly and pointedly on the subject of "Punctuality." Exercise in Geography, conducted by J. S. Gillin. Prof. Woodruff then proceeded to explain, and impress upon the minds of those present, the value of Local and County Institutes, and the use derived by those in attendance, after which he discoursed on the subject of "Language."

Friday, P. M.—"Voice culture," by Mrs. Weston. "Thoroughness in recitation," by Prof. Cooper. Orthography by Prof. Woodruff. Drawing by Prof. E. K. Richardson. Each exercise was conducted with interest and ability, and freely discussed.

Evening Session. Singing by Institute. Query box. "Educational Talk" by Prof. Woodruff. Select reading by Mrs. Weston.

Friday, A. M.—Devotional exercises, conducted by County Superintendent Tilden, singing, conducted by Miss Dora Tewksbury, of Brooklyn. Prof. Woodruff made some interesting remarks on the subject of "Music in Schools," after which Prof. Curry presented the subject of "Theory." Methods of teaching "Primary Composition" by E. K. Richardson. As an exercise in orthography, Prof. Woodruff pronounced ten words, which Mr. Tilden requested each member of the Institute to write, offering prizes of books to those spelling the greater number of words correctly. The successful competitors were Mr. A. W. Cooper, of Susquehanna Depot, and Miss Lora Marsh, of Great Bend, their spelling but one word. The subject of "Oral Arithmetic" was then presented to the Institute by Prof. Curry.

Wednesday, P. M.—Essay, "Praise, as an incentive," by Miss Emma Bushnell, of Susquehanna Depot, followed by remarks on the same by Prof. Curry. Exercises in Penmanship, conducted by Prof. Cooper. Prof. Woodruff then addressed the Institute on the subject of "Professional Education."

Wednesday evening. Lecture, "Is woman the coming man," by Prof. Woodruff, followed by a brief address on the subject of "Professional Education" by Prof. Curry. Select reading by Mrs. Weston.

Thursday, A. M.—Devotional exercises, conducted by Prof. Woodruff. The same gentleman then presented some very interesting remarks on the subject of geography, calling forth questions and discussions by different members of the Institute. Prof. Curry followed with very excellent remarks on the subject of self-government, clearly elucidating the fact that the aim of our education is, self control. Essay, "Our common schools," by Mr. Frank Jackson, an instructive exercise in reading, was then conducted by Prof. Woodruff.

Thursday, P. M.—Session opened by singing, conducted by Mr. A. W. Cooper. An opportunity was then given for school directors to propose questions for discussion. As none were proposed, Prof. Curry proceeded with remarks on the subject of "Morality in schools." One of the questions then proposed for discussion was, "What is the incentive for teachers of higher preparation, while those holding lower grade certificates obtain the same amount of wages?" This question led to earnest and animated discussions on the part of County Superintendent, Professors, Directors and Teachers. Select reading by Mrs. Weston. "Physiology" by Prof. Woodruff.

Thursday evening.—Several questions of interest were proposed and freely discussed. Lecture, "Special Education," by Prof. Curry. Song by E. K. Richardson. A brief address on the subject of "School management," by Prof. Woodruff. Select reading by Mrs. Weston. Remarks, and appointment of committee on resolutions by County Superintendent Tilden. Mrs. Weston read.

Friday, A. M.—General closing business. The committee on resolutions presented the following, which were unanimously adopted.
Resolved, That we, as members of the Susquehanna County Teachers' Institute, do hereby tender our most hearty thanks to Prof. Woodruff and Curry, for the instruction they have so ably and interestingly imparted to us, and that in the moral and religious sentiments expressed by them, we recognize the true basis of education.

Resolved, That we give to our Elementary, Mrs. Weston, our grateful acknowledgments for the valuable instructions and pleasing entertainments which she has afforded us during the sessions of the Institute.

Resolved, That the welcome and hospitality we have received from the citizens of New Milford, for the use of the School Building, Town Hall, and organs, and to our committee of arrangements, Prof. E. K. Richardson, we cordially express our gratitude.

Resolved, That as teachers to our County Superintendent for the unremittent and unwearied interest in us, and in the cause of education in the county, but we trust that the fruits of his noble endeavors, as they will appear in our schools, will better express our appreciation of his labors, than our most heartfelt sympathy and sincerest thanks.

Mrs. Weston then read, for the benefit of the Institute a piece, entitled "Mother and Poet." Closing remarks by Mr. Tilden. Mr. George E. Mackey then presented the following resolution on Temperance, which was adopted:
Resolved, That we cheerfully hail the effort to advance the cause of Temperance in our country, and that we enlist our earnest influence to bring its success. Mr. Tilden then followed in a brief but earnest prayer, which closed the entire session.

Prof. Woodruff Institute instructor of New-Orleans, Berks County, Pa. Prof. Curry, Deputy State Superintendent of common schools of Pittsburg, Pa. Although the time of Mrs. Weston's employment expired at the close of the Tuesday evening session, she remained until the close of the week, thereby instructing and enlightening the Institute with her admirable readings. The exercises of the evening sessions were interspersed with general singing. Quartets and Trios, under the supervision of E. K. Richardson, who, also, had charge of the music throughout the Institute, except when otherwise designated in the proceedings.

Committee on Resolutions.—Messrs. Cooper and French, and Miss Agnes Thatcher.
Whole number of Teachers in attendance 124, number of Teachers present at each session 42, number of Honorary members 30, number of school Directors in attendance, 10.
The Institute was, indeed, a success; the deep feeling of the solemnity, and responsibility of the Teachers work that pervaded the Institute at its closing session, proved that the meeting had not been in vain—the first whereof, we trust will be seen "in generations yet unborn."

Mr. Robert Wallace, for so many years "the practical man" has been promoted to the rank of the "ex-mechanic mechanic." Mr. Arthur Beck has been advanced to the position vacated by Mr. Wallace. Mr. John Fulton is set forward to the place held by Mr. Beck. Several men are being added to the whole force, as assistants, assistants, etc. Mr. Thomas C. Wilkinson, just from England, is chief draftsman, with four or six others. A foreman over iron turners, etc., is soon to be added.

This would be a good time to repair our sidewalks, streets, before the setting in of winter. It is not a mistake to elect Burgess, a man closely connected in the shops, no matter how much the honor may go for him, if not for the honor, in the office of Burgess.

I have it on good authority, that over five hundred men are to be added to the force in the shops here, new branches of work done, and the capacity of the shops extended, another Round House created, and much new machinery added.

"House-cleaning" has begun in the offices in Mechanics' Hall, scolding, scuffling, scuffling, scuffling, the place looks and feel clean and bright. The process of cleaning is to be extended throughout the whole premises, as soon as possible. Men will then have greater pleasure in their work, and will feel happier in clean, than in dirty surroundings. Carlisle in his "plain philosophy," says that even pigs prefer clean water to dirty, but they take the first clean water they find. "If cleanliness is next to Godliness," we shall be on the look out for a good advance in whole-some philosophy, in the direction of the shops.
