E. B HAWLEY & Co., Proprietors.

HE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT.

TOTMS IF NOT PAID IN ADVANCE, SO CTS BATRA.

NUMBER 48.

MONTROSE. SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3, 1873.

. SELECT POETRY.

MYSTERY.

VOLUME 30.

----Wonder if oak and maple, Willow and elm and all, Are stirred at heart by the coming Ut the day that leaves must fall. Do they think of the yellow whirlwin Or know of the crimson spray That shail be when chill November Bears all their leaves away ?

Perhaps beside the water The willow bends, screne As when her young leaves glistened In the midst of golden green. But the brave old oak is flushing To a wine-red, dark and deep, And maple and eim are blushing The blush of a chi'd asleep.

"If die we must," the leaflets Seem one by one to say, 'We will wear the colors of gladness

No eyes shall see us failer; And before we lay it down, We'll wear in the sight of all the earth, The year's most kingly crown."

So trees of the stately fore t, And trees by trodden way, You are kindling into glory This soft autumnal day. And we who gaze remember That more than all they lost, To lucarts and trees together May come through the ripening frost.

MISCELLANEOUS READING.

THAT CLOCK.

"You must have forgotten to wind the Clock last night, Ruy, for it has stopped. Won't you wind it now, please, it is so nucli company for me when you are aw27

the train, but if I do not, you know the way to Annta's, and it's not far." "No, I can get there all right; good-bye!" with an accompanment, "and oh! hay! don't format to provide the target of the set of the forget to mail my letter." Quickly flew the morning, while little Mis. Richmond went merrily about the house, singing Ray's favorite songs, for they had not been married long, and the h neymoon was scaredy over; it was still a daily delight to Cora to "keep" here litords dest of a home.

After dinner she sat working in the cosy sitting room, and a methodical little oman that she was, she took a survey of the contents of her basket, that she might see how much could be done that after-noon. "Let me see; I ought to finish) those wrist warmers for Ray, and braid the other sleve of my cashmere sacque before time to dress. I do hope they will give some of Strauss' music to night. Of the other stave of my cashmere sleque before time to dress. I do hope they will give some of Strauss' music to night. Of course they will, though; why didn't 1 ask Ray for the programme?" and she commenced braiding most records to flikery and the general, great and essential princi-galized and unalterably established, we declare commenced braiding most vigoronsly. One, two, three, four, struck the little

<text>

French clock in the diuning-room, and Mrs. Richmond spraug up. "Four o'clock already! Mv, but I shall have to hurry if I'm in time for the five o'clock train."— And fiving up stairs also come down avail and reputation, and of pursuing their own hap-

I'm in time for the five o'clock train."— Aud flying up stairs she came down again in an incredibly short time, looking be-wirchingly stylish in her fur trimmed clock, and turned up sauchy relvet hat. As she walked toward the depot, she thought how convenient it was to live so near to New York, where trains left al-most every hour, three, four, five, and balf think proper. SEC. 3. All men have a natural and indefensipast exery hour, three, hour, and a ride of bittle more than half an hour brought one right into the city. So thinking, she reached the depot, bought her ticket, and amount of right be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of working, or to maintain or ministry scaling in some on the second the second the second the support any place of working, or to maintain or support any place of working, or to maintain or support any place of working, or to maintain or support any place of support any place of working or to maintain or burget and the second the support any place of working or to maintain or support any place of working or to maintain right into the city. So thinking, she reached the depot, bought her ticket, and was soon flying toward the great metrop-olis. Ray, was not there to meet her, but but a few moments walk to reack Annt Sallie's. She had been reated in the family room thing that had happened at the cottage during the last week, and histoning to the distance during the during the during the last week, and during the last week, and during the last week, and during the last week and the cottage during the last week, and during the last week and the cottage during the last week and the second second thing that had happened at the cortage wealth. SEC. 5. Elections shall be free and equal; and httle Freddie's enger, though incorherent, account of the day's sport, when, looking interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right account of the day's sport, when, looking at the hall clock, she paused, apparently struck dubb as by a modern Medusa in the midst of the recital commenced fu-culy enough of Ray's odd idens about house-keeping. "What is the matter, child ? asked "what is the matter, child ? asked Annt Sallie, and even as she spoke the ch-ck struck poideronsly five. Why Anntie, that's impossible! It was five o'clock when I left H----, it just cannot the truck mown to be wrong; you that five came, and then six, and a few moments after there was a sudden shar poll at the bell, that set it ringing as if for a fire alarm. "Mercy on us," cried Annt Sallie, running to the door herself for at the orn, the "Mercy on us," Cried and the facts, under see ________ Annt Sallie, ranning to the door herself as in other cases. BEC, 8. The people shall be scenre in their BEC, 8. The people shall be scenre in their bounce, papers, and possessions, from Opening the door she was confronted unreasonable scarches and seizures, and no war

Opening the door she was confronted by Rav, his fice pale to the very lips, and his voice husky with feeling as he hastily things, shall issue without describing them as demanded. Is Cora here?" "Yes," said Aunt Sallie, and was anazed to see him rush past her into the sitting room, where Cora was mending Freddie's lines, and take her up in his arms, reins and all, kis-sing her passionately. "If you only knew how to face to face to face to face compulsory proceed for ob-Aust Sallie, and was amazed to see him rish past her into the sitting room, where Cora was merding Freddie's lines, and alkiesting to used to the sing her passionately. "If you only knew my darling," he said, as he put her down as by indicated to the sitting safely here, when I feared you strong withing safely here, when I feared you strong by indicated to compelled to give eritered on the sitting safely here, when I feared you strong by an indicately of the pase by the deprived of his life, litter to specify of the store state and compelled to give eritered as and the store shall be there are memory of what he had feared. There had been an accident even in the

ts mer

which concerned by the Solidin distribution of adjourned annual session after the year of the object of United States in a second in the the object of United States in the twee bases of a vecancy in the fore the years of age, and Representatives twenty-one years of age. They shall have been citizens and inhabitants of the State four years, and inhabitants of the State four years, and inhabitants of the State four years and inhabitants of the State state in the twent years of age. They shall have been citizens and elimbitants of the State four years, and inhabitants of the State state in the public dustries of the State or of this State, and

Locating of changing county seals, crecting new countries, or changing county lines; Incorporating cities, town, or villages, or chauging their charters; For the opening and conducting of elections, or fixing or changing the place of voting; Granting divorces; Erecting new townships or boroughs, chang-ing township lines, borough limits, or school dis-tricts; ball reside in their respective districts during beir terms of service their terms of service. BEC. 6. No Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he shall have been elected, he appointed to any civil office under this Commonwealth, and no member of Con-gressor other person holding any office (except of attorney-at-law or in the militia) under the United States or this Commonwealth shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

in office. BEC. 7. No person hereafter convicted of em-bezzlenners of public moneys, brillery, perjury or other infamous crime, shall be digible to the General Assembly, or capable of holding any adless of trust or profit in this Commonwealth. SEC. 8. The members of the General Assem-

SEC. 8. The members of the General Assessment of the collection of debts, or the enforcing of by shall receive such salary and melenge for guidant and special sessions as shall be fixed by sales of trait citate; in the collection of debts, or the enforcing of by shall receive such salary and melenge for servic, upon committee or otherwise. No member of either house shall, during the term for which he muy have been elected, receive any increase of salary, or mileage, ander the building or repairing of school houses, and the building or repairing of school houses, and the building of the case of alsence or disability, or mileage, ander the building of repairing of school houses, and the building of the case of alsence or disability of that officer, and whenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor, in any menters as didler, and whenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor, in any be accessed to one of its members as Speaker. Each house shall choose its other officers, and thenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor, in any the case of labeling or that officer, and whenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor, in any be necessary election and qualifications of the calculating labor, trade, mining, or manufacting its members.

shall judge of the election and qualifications of its members. SEC. 10. A majority of each House shall on-stitute a quorum, but a smaller number may ad-journ from day to day, and competite attend journ from day to day, and competite attend ince of absent members. SEC. 11. Each house shall have power to de-termine the rules of its proceedings and punish its members or other persons for contenient or disorderly behavior in its presence, to enforce obedience to its proceedings and punish is members, or offers of luitics or private splicitation, and with the concurrence of two-thirds, to expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause and shall have all other pow-ters necessary for the legislature of a free State member expelled tor corruption shall not thereafter be eligible to cither house, and punish ment for contempt or disorderly behavior shall not bar an indictment for the same offense. Size, 12. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings and from time to time publish the same, except such parts as require secrecy, and the yeas and mays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them. Bez, 13. The sessions of each house and of secret law, butch mote ascions of any construction shall, at the desire of any two of them. Bez, 13. The sessions of each house and of secret law, but haw the exceeding shall be passed the matter or the thing to be affected in the privided by law. The evidence of such house and the yeas and mays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them. Bez, 13. The sessions of each house and and the yeas and have all be one may end ascending officer of each house and the schole chill be one may any constitute of the schole chill be one may any constitute as the one of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them. Bez, 13. The setsions of each house and and the yeak of the members on any constitute of the schole be and here on the schole the presiding officer of each house and the yeak of the one publish an icts ; Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, citles, boroughs, townships, election or school districts; Lianging the haw of decent or succession; Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, aldermen, justices of the peace, sheriffs, commissioners, ar-bitrators, auditors, masters in chancery, or oth-er tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of huderments, or prescribing the effect of ludicial changing the rule of critdence in may judical processing or inquiry before courts, alternary, indices of the peace, theriffs, commissioners, ar-bitrators, anditors, masters in chancery, or other strates, or proscribing or changing nucluods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing inducess, or proscribing the effect of judical sates or real estare; Regulating the fess, or extending the powers and duries of aldermen, justices of the peace, maxistrates, it constables; Regulating the fess, or extending the powers and duries of aldermen, justices of the peace, and ther raising of repairing of school houtes, and the raising of money for such purposes; Privag the rate of interest; Affecting the est-te of minors or persons un-ter disability, except affect due notice of all part is in Interest, to be recited in the special enact inter; Regulating fines, penalties and forfeitures, or enonding moneys legally paid hoto the Tear-turing; Creating corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privilege in any funces fin in the General Assembly in during to any corporation, association or individual any special or exclusive privilege in any privileges shall have been purposes or privileges shall have been purposed. Nor shall the General Assembly notice the provided by law. Sec. 30. Any person who shall in the correst and such additional, privilege, or person-individual any special or exclusive privilege in any privileges shall have been provided for by gen-privileges shall have been provided for by gen-privileges shall have been provided for by gen-privileges shall have been provided in the powers and shall hore been provided in the powers and shall portised by fine and imprisonment. Ecc. 30. A hierber of the formation in the form any compation, association of individual any special or exclusive privileges in any privileges shall have been provided in the powers and shall here been provided to approve or privilege in any privileges shall have been provided in the portised for by gen-gen, and the <text><text><text><text><text><text><text>