Congressional Summary.

SEXATE, - Dec. 45,-Mr. Morton, Trom the Committee on Elections and Privileges, in the case of P. B. S. Pinchback and General McMillan, claiming sents as Senators from Louisana, reported that the Committee was equally divided; the sub-ject was ordered to be referred to the Senate. After debate a resolution admit-ting Pinchback went over. The House bill to provide for the redemption of the loan of 1858 was passed. Mr. Sherman called up the resolution reported by him from the Finance Committee on Wednesday, in regard to the present monetary derangement. Mr. Pratt, of Indiana, addressed the Senate in favor of inflation of the currency. The resolution was then laid over and the bill to authorize national backs without circulation. taken up. Mr. Bayard opposed and Mr. Morton favored it. Without action the Senate went into Executive session and

Among the many brautiful things that the Alabama colored delegation said to President Grant was the expression of a hope that he might "Lie down to please the proper this admitting Pinchback to a seat as Senator from Louisana was taken up, and Mr. Morton addressed the Senator at length to the pression of the proper this admitting Pinchback to a seat as Senator from Louisana was taken up, and Mr. Morton addressed the Senator at length the proper of this admit in the proper that the might "Lie down to please the proper of this admit in the proper of the admitting proper that the proper of the seat and the proper of the proper of the seat and the proper of the seat and the proper of the seat and the proper of the proper of the seat and the proper of the seat and the proper of the proper ant dreams." To realize this there is one thing necessary—he musn't attend any more of Boss Shepard's late dinners.

Mr. Morton address of the Senare at length in layer of his admis ion. Without action the Senate at 24.45 P. M. went into Executive session. At 5 P. M. the doors were opened and the House resolution to THE Chicago Tribune's directions how on December 19, was passed. The Sen-
